Rangers, Ranchers, and Realtors Thomas O. McDonald,2021-03-25 A native Georgian James Hughes Callahan 1812 1856 migrated to Texas to serve in the Texas Revolution in exchange for land In Seguin Texas where he settled he met and married a divorcee Sarah Medissa Day 1822 1856 The lives of these two Texas pioneers and their extended family would become so entwined in the events and experiences of the nascent nation and state that their story represents a social history of nineteenth century Texas From his arrival as a sergeant with the Georgia Battalion through the ill fated 1855 expedition that bears his name to his shooting death in a feud with a neighbor Callahan was a soldier a Texas Ranger a rancher and a land developer at every turn making his mark on the evolving Guadalupe River Basin Separately Sarah's family's journey reflected the experience of many immigrants to Texas after its war of independence Thomas O McDonald traces the pair's respective paths to their meeting then follows as together they contend with conflict troublesome social mores the emergence of new industries and the taming of the land along the way helping to shape the Texas culture we know today With a sharp eye for character and detail and with a wealth of material at his command author Thomas O McDonald tells a story as crackling with life as it is steeped in scholarly research In these pages the lives of the Callahan and Day families become a canvas on which the history of Texas from revolution frontier defense and Indian wars to Anglo settlement and emerging legal and social systems dramatically inexorably unfolds      General Index to the First-[fifth] Ten Volumes of
