with exceptionalities to supporting children and families in broader cultural contexts Assessment Chris

Atherton,2025-02-28 This book provides a critical overview of assessment taking an evidence based approach with balanced and reflective consideration given to arguments around various approaches to assessment in schools It offers practical advice on how to implement such evidence based models and helps with reflectively evaluating their success Evidence based teaching is fast becoming a new orthodoxy There are many strong voices including policy voices advocating its adoption Understanding the underlying principles allows you to better evaluate the benefits of different approaches to evidence based teaching and how they relate to your own school context Construction Dispute Research Sai On Cheung,2014-07-08

There are three specific purposes of Construction Dispute Research First this volume aims to summarise studies on construction dispute Second apart from the theoretical constructs where appropriate empirical tests are also included This approach serves to go beyond the commonly used anecdotal approach for the subject matters Third it is the sincere hope of the authors that this book will help shaping research agenda of construction dispute The studies are mostly framed from a management perspective drawing on methods and concepts in contract law economics psychology and management science The book has twenty chapters that are arranged in four parts covering conceptualisation avoidance negotiation and mediation Part 1 is devoted for dispute conceptualisation A building is only as strong as its foundation Thus it is no better start to study construction dispute by conceptualisation The theme of Part 2 is dispute avoidance The conventional wisdom of prevention is better than cure seems can be applied to all problems As far as construction dispute is concerned equitable risk allocation and trust are the two most commonly accepted avoidance strategies Part 3 focuses on negotiation that is the gateway to resolution as almost all disputes are negotiated first before the service of other mechanisms Negotiation is sometimes described as an art because settlement may not be obtained solely from legal and rational approaches Part 3 discusses the behavioral dimensions of construction dispute negotiation Part 4 deals with Mediation a form of assisted negotiation Specially the skill of the mediators in facilitating settlement the interrelationships among dispute sources mediator tactics and mediation outcomes are explored The studies presented in Construction Dispute Research collectively demonstrate holistic approach in dispute management Each chapter can be read as a study on its own Practitioners will find the book a handy reference in dispute management and resolution Students would find the book useful in explaining in details the causes of dispute the processes to resolve them The research design and empirical approaches are particularly useful to students in construction management architectural surveying and civil engineering programs Cultural

Sociology of the Middle East, Asia, and Africa Andrea L. Stanton,2012 In our age of globalization and multiculturalism it has never been more important to understand and appreciate all cultures across the world The four volumes take a step forward in this endeavour by presenting concise information on those regions least well known to students across Europe the Middle East Asia and Africa The volumes convey what daily life is like for people in these selected regions Entries will aid readers in understanding the importance of cultural sociology to appreciate the effects of cultural forces around the world and to learn the history of countries and cultures within these important regions Key Features Topics are explored within historical context in three broad historical periods prehistory to 1250 1250 to 1920 and 1920 to the present One volume each is devoted to the regions of the Middle East and Africa and then one volume to East and Southeast Asia and a final volume to West Central and South Asia The volumes include extensive use of photographs and maps to explain cultural and geographic content Each volume has its own volume editor with expertise in that particular region Key Themes Arts Culture and Science People Society and Dynasties Religion and Law Family and Daily Life Conflicts and Wars Politics and Government Health and Education Economy Trade and Industry National Geography and History
