African Public Theology Sunday Bobai Agang, Dion A. Forster, H. Jurgens Hendriks, 2020-04-30 Africa needs leaders and Christians from every walk of life to rediscover their identity and purpose in all spheres of society African Public Theology sounds a clarion call to accomplish this vital task God created all humans equally intending for us to live in community and take responsibility for the world around us a mandate we need to act on Through faithful application of Scripture to contexts common in the continent today contributors from across Africa join as one to present a vision for the Africa that God intended No simplistic solutions are offered instead African Public Theology challenges every reader to think through the application of biblical principles in their own community place of work and sphere of influence If we heed the principles and lessons that God s word has for society culture and public life then countries across Africa can have hope of a future that is free from corruption and self promotion and is instead characterized by collective stewardship and servant hearted leadership

Contextualizing English for Academic Purposes in Higher Education Ian Bruce, Bee Bond, 2022-07-28 This book highlights the centrality of political and ideological issues as they relate to the positioning and practice of English for Academic Purposes EAP demonstrating that EAP cannot flourish as a profession or a discipline without an awareness of the macro and meso level political shifts that impact the wider university The volume states that the practices of EAP are in fact political acts and examines these as yet unexplored power dynamics The volume begins by considering key influences that have shaped universities and their governance and management over the last three decades and how these relate to the role and practice of EAP These influences include neoliberal economic policies governmental demands for widening participation globalization entrepreneurial approaches to higher education students as clients and therapeutism in universities Following consideration of these broader contextual issues specific chapters focus on politics and policies surrounding the recruitment and participation of international fee paying students their positioning and identity within English medium universities including issues relating to English language standards and academic integrity Further chapters then consider more local influences that shape EAP programmes such as their strategic roles within universities their management their teaching and wider academic impact

A Global History of Anti-Apartheid Anna Konieczna, Rob Skinner, 2019-04-15 This book explores the global history of anti apartheid and international solidarity with southern African freedom struggles from the 1960s It examines the institutions campaigns and ideological frameworks that defined the globalization of anti apartheid the ways in which the concept of solidarity was mediated by individuals organizations and states and considers the multiplicity of actors and interactions involved in generating and sustaining anti apartheid around the world It includes detailed accounts of key case studies from Europe Asia and Latin America which illustrate the complex relationships between local and global agendas as well as the diverse political cultures embodied in anti apartheid Taken together these examples reveal the tensions and synergies transnational webs and local contingencies that helped to create the sense of being global that united worldwide anti apartheid campaigns

Being Spiritual while Doing Research Volker Kessler, Marilyn Naidoo, Tanya van Wyk, Philipp Wenk, Although the topic of spirituality has been experiencing a renaissance since the end of the previous century it is not always associated with academic activities The book invites scholars from all fields to rethink this traditional divide between knowledge and spirituality offering fresh perspectives on how the two can coexist and enhance each other Twenty nine authors from across the world illustrate how scholarly pursuits in various disciplines can be deeply spiritual journeys

The Transformation of Academic Work James Goodman, Claire Parfitt, Keiko Yasukawa, 2023-09-19 This book offers a unique grounded analysis of recent crises and transformations in academic work It charts international and Australia based efforts to overcome academic fragmentation and precarity and to advance agendas for the public university It is based on extensive qualitative interviews with academics and managers across several universities in Australia It finds new grounds for universal universities with decent jobs to serve the public good The book is aimed at students and scholars from sociology education politics and industrial relations and a wider readership concerned about the future of universities Analysis centres on a trade union led initiative in Australia aimed at decasualising universities and ensuing debates about the impact of academic fragmentation The authors argue for strengthening the teaching research nexus as the foundation stone for public purpose universities Evidence-Based Work with Violent Extremists Massil Benbouriche,Martine Evans,2019-07-15 Using France as a case study contributors from around the world explore the factors that create violent extremists including criminogenic needs violence supportive cognition religious beliefs identity uncertainty or fusion the quest for significance and social and political influences They present a multidisciplinary and evidenced based analysis of how and why violent extremism has reappeared as a contemporary issue and provide theoretical and practical approaches to responding to and when possible intervening using deradicalization programs deterrent and preventive legislations prison segregation and permanent monitoring Mapping Gender Nilima Srivastava,Sunita Dhal,2025-09-30 This volume brings together a comprehensive documentation of feminist research while locating gender from the perspective of both practice and praxis frameworks It maps out the emerging social issues in India such as women s embodied and multiple realities their alienation resulting from the interplay of technology and capitalism the gendered nature of smart urban spaces access to clean energy technologies violence and performativity the new conceptualisation of fatherhood women in leadership and intimate partner violence Firmly grounded in contemporary feminist research the book will be an indispensable resource for students teachers and researcher scholars of feminist studies anthropology social work sociology and women s and gender studies It will also be of interest to gender practitioners and researchers Religious Leaders and the Regime in the Second Republic of Zimbabwe Bekithemba Dube,2023-05-30 Religious Leaders and the Regime in the Second Republic of Zimbabwe looks at the nexus of religion and politics in Zimbabwe Religious leaders and institutes are discussed as either regime enablers resistors or transformers This book focuses on how religion has played a role in thwarting democracy and has acted as a machine to silence dissenting voices repression and poor governance The book addresses religious figures such as Andrew Wutawunashe Talent Chiwenga Bishop Mutendi and Mapostori In discussing these figures the book highlights how ZANU PF has taken advantage of religious power to thwart democracy while rewarding regime enablers The book also discusses the road to 2023 Zimbabwean elections and highlights the role of the church in creating an enabling and catastrophic environment This book challenges oppressive systems perpetrated by religious leaders and politicians A Question of Worth Chris Steed,2016-09-14 We live in a world that has become a resource a world conditioned by the progressive domination of a monetary scale applied across the board Our value and worth are contingent upon what we earn on what we own Amidst the increasing financialisation that characterises much of the globe the prevailing ethos is that the only values we can usefully measure are those that can be quantified and expressed in terms of economics Yet economic value and the value of the human are closely connected erode the economic and you erode the personal In the global economic crash of recent years it has been people who have been under assault not just financial value The vulnerability of a society shaped solely by economic and monetised transactions is exposed when the economy and the monetisation of everything fails When the economic machine seizes up it is people who are devalued and dumped Drawing upon his experience in government education and the Church the author asks Must we be a market society as well as a market economy Can we devise a non economic account of describing human value and worth Christopher Steed argues that the really important issues that frame the contemporary human situation are those that cannot be measured Quality is also vital to human flourishing what after all is wealth for In this timely and important work the author calls for a wider concept of value one that encompasses both economic value and human value and for a society that cultivates the importance of the human

Decolonising Knowledge and Knowers

Mlamuli Nkosingphile Hlatshwayo, Hanelie Adendorff, Margaret A.L. Blackie, Aslam Fataar, Paul Maluleka, 2022-04-21

Decolonising Knowledge and Knowers contributes to the current struggles for decolonising education in the global South focusing on the highly illuminating case of South African higher education Galvanised by FeesMustFall and RhodesMustFall student protests South Africa has seen particularly intense and broad social engagement with debates over decolonising universities However much of this debate has been consumed with definitions and meanings In contrast Decolonising Knowledge and Knowers shows how conceptual tools specifically from Legitimation Code Theory can be enacted in research and teaching to meaningfully work towards productive decolonisation Each chapter addresses a key issue in contemporary debates in South African higher education and show how practices concerning knowledge and knowers are playing a role drawing on quantitative and qualitative research praxis and interdisciplinary research

Palestine in the World

Sorcha Thomson, Pelle Valentin Olsen, 2023-02-23 The Palestinian national liberation movement or the Palestinian revolution as it is known in Arabic emerged during the 1960s as an iconic cause of the global Left This volume highlights the different practices of international solidarity that characterised this period and how they shaped and were shaped by the global trajectory of the Palestinian movement Bringing together scholars with versatile linguistic and interdisciplinary skills Palestine in the World puts the Palestinian movement into conversation with the models of transnational politics that emerged through the revolutionary period From participation in a vibrant sphere of intellectual and cultural production the work of travelling revolutionaries as delegates volunteers and militants and the connected mobilisations that took place in different corners of the world international solidarity with and from the Palestinian movement was integral to its ascendance on the global stage By treating the Palestinian revolution as a world phenomenon with cases from Cuba France the US the GDR Japan and more this volume reveals the forms of solidarity that shaped the rise of the movement and their afterlives today It illuminates the rich connected histories of international solidarity that positioned the Palestinian movement as an iconic anticolonial struggle

Transition and Transgression Judith Inggs, 2015-12-07 This book conveys the story of a society in the throes of restructuring itself and struggling to find a new identity A particularly attractive aspect of this study is the focus on young adult literature and its place in post apartheid South Africa as well as its potential use in the classroom and lecture hall Intersecting these two topics provides a compelling lens for refocusing debate on young adult fiction while offering a new and novel angle on debates in South Africa after the end of apartheid The multilingual and multicultural South African society has resulted in fiction that differs from other parts of the English speaking world This work presents a holistic critique of South African young adult fiction and addresses issues such as change and transformation identity politics sexuality and the issue of the right of white writers to represent and write characters of different races

Selected Topics in Midwifery Care Ana Polona Mivšek, 2019-02-08 Midwifery across the globe faces different issues In some countries the autonomy of the profession is a tradition while in some societies midwives struggle to practice autonomously the basic competencies In one part of the world the medicalisation of childbirth is the main issue preventing the natural processes of pregnancy and childbirth to flow at their own pace while in other parts of the world midwives struggle with lack of resources to provide safe midwifery care The authors of this book practice midwifery in different cultures and within different social contexts They have to deal with different obstacles and seek solutions to diverse problems With their contributions they offer an insight into their thinking their dilemmas and the problems of midwifery practices in their countries However despite different backgrounds they all have in common a uniform goal a wish to offer women optimal midwifery care and to improve midwifery services
