Posh Boys Robert Verkaik, 2018-07-05 The latest in the series of powerful books on the divisions in modern Britain and will take its place on many bookshelves beside Reni Eddo Lodge's Why I'm No Longer Talking to White People About Race and Owen Jones's Chavs Andrew Marr Sunday Times In his fascinating enraging polemic Verkaik touches on one of the strangest aspects of the elite schools and their product's domination of public life for two and a half centuries the acquiescence of everyone else Observer In Britain today the government judiciary and military are all led by an elite who attended private school Under their watch our society has become increasingly divided and the gap between rich and poor is now greater than ever before Is this the country we want to live in If we care about inequality we have to talk about public schools Robert Verkaik issues a searing indictment of the system originally intended to educate the most underprivileged Britons and outlines how through meaningful reform we can finally make society fairer for all Young Adults and Active Citizenship Natasha Kersh, Hanna Toiviainen, Pirkko Pitkänen, George K. Zarifis, 2021-04-21 This open access book sheds light on a range of complex interdependencies between adult education young adults in vulnerable situations and active citizenship Adult education has been increasingly recognized as a means to engage and re engage young adults and facilitate their life chances and social inclusion thus contributing to an active citizenship within their societal contexts This collection of chapters dealing with issues of social inclusion of young people represents the first book to explicitly approach the complex interdependencies between adult education young adults in vulnerable situations and active citizenship from the European perspective Social exclusion disengagement and disaffection of young adults have been among the most significant concerns faced by EU member states over the last decade It has been increasingly recognised by a range of stakeholders that there is a growing number of young people suffering from the various effects of the unstable social economic and political situations affecting Europe and its neighbouring countries Young adults who experience different degrees of vulnerability are especially at risk of being excluded and marginalised Engaging young adults through adult education has been strongly related to addressing the specific needs and requirements that would facilitate their participation in social economic and civic political life in their country contexts Fostering the active citizenship of young people both directly and indirectly is an area where many AE programmes overlap and this has become a core approach to integration This book considers social economic and political dimensions of active citizenship encompassing the development of social competences and social capital civic and political participation and the skills related to the economy and labour market The cross national consideration of the notions of vulnerability inclusion and active citizenship underpins the complexity of translating these concepts into the national contexts of adult education programmes Annual Report on Scholarships and Grants in Aid of Research. Compte Rendu Annuel Des Bourses Et Subventions D'Aide À la Recherche National Research Council of Canada, 1971 Divided JoAnn Jaffe, Patricia W. Elliott, 2021-10-08T00:00:00Z Divided looks at the last fifteen years in Saskatchewan during which time the Saskatchewan Party government sought to reforge the province's image into the New Saskatchewan brash materialistic highly competitive and aggressively partisan In the process a climate of polarization and hyper partisanship swept the province into a near perpetual state of anger and social division These actions are not without consequences In Divided diverse voices describe the impact on their lives and communities when simmering wedge issues burst open on social media and in public spaces The collection dives deep into the long set up to this moment from the colonial past to the four decades of neoliberal economics that have widened social and economic gaps across all sectors Divided positions Saskatchewan as a fascinating case study of the global trends of division and provides testament to the resiliency of a vision of social solidarity against all odds Education Policy Outlook 2019 Working Together to Help Students Achieve their Potential OECD, 2019-09-16 Taking the perspective of institutions and the system Education Policy Outlook 2019 Working Together to Help Students Achieve their Potential analyses the evolution of key education priorities and key education policies in 43 education systems It compares more recent developments in education policy ecosystems mainly between 2015 and 2019 with various education policies adopted between 2008 and 2014

The Top Books of the Year 16 2017 Bursaries The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. 16 2017 Bursaries : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
