

10 check tire pressures

Before driving each day, glance at all your tires. If one looks softer than the others, have all pressures checked. Otherwise check pressures every few weeks. Check pressures only when tires are reasonably cool - never bleed air out of tires to adjust pressure right after a long period of sustained high-speed driving.

The recommended tire pressures are:

Passenger Car-Front . . . 24 lbs. Rear . . . 24 lbs.
Station Wagon-Front . . . 24 lbs. Rear . . . 28 lbs.

For better gas economy, high speed driving, or for heavy loads it is desirable to inflate tires 4-6 lbs. above recommended pressures.

11 keep the upholstery and finish clean

Your Falcon has been painted with a Diamond Lustre finish, one of the hardest and most durable finishes ever used on a car. While it does not require wax to maintain its lustre, it should be washed often enough to prevent heavy build-ups of road film, salt, etc., which might gradually erode the finish.

The use of a good polish such as Rotunda Custom Silicone Gloss will make washing and removal of bug-spots and road deposits easier while it provides extra protection for the finish. The same care will preserve the chrome and bright metal trim. Similarly dirt and dust trapped in the upholstery acts as an abrasive and the life of these materials can be lengthened by cleaning reasonably often. When cleaning vinyl surfaces, use only a recommended vinyl cleaner like Rotunda Triple Clean. Harsh kitchen cleansers may damage the surface coating of the vinyl and make future cleanings much more difficult.

12 have the recommended maintenance services performed

Take the car to your Ford dealer every 6 months or every 6,000 miles (whichever comes first). He is thoroughly familiar with the maintenance requirements of your Falcon, and has the factory-trained technicians, factory-approved equipment and Genuine FoMoCo and Rotunda parts and lubricants necessary to provide the recommended FORD QUALITY CAR CARE maintenance services prescribed on the coupons at the back of this book. All these services will be provided at a reasonable cost to you.
