Sadly there is very little reality in reality TV. That wouldn't be so bad except for the fact that these shows are the only TV shows for the barn find collector car aficionado. Barn Find Road Trip is the antidote to all the manufactured collector reality shows. It's a real world barn find banzai run in which auto archaeologist Tom Cotter, his car collector pal Brian Barr and photographer Michael Alan Ross embarked on a 14 day collector car seeking adventure with no predetermined destinations. It's barn find freestyle. Roaming the Southeast they documented their day to day car search in photos and through stories and interviews. This trip is absolutely real and the same kind of junket any gearhead with the skills, knowledge and time can undertake. Cotter and company hit the road in Cotter's 1939 Ford Woody, the kind of car that opened doors and started the conversations that revealed where interesting cars were squirreled away. The result: The discovery of over 1,000 collector cars and some of the most amazing barn find stories. Cotter has yet unearthed all, accompanied by Ross' evocative photography. If you love stories of automotive adventure this is the book for you. American Cars, 1960-1972 J.
