Destination Branding and Bias in Ecotourism Abrar, Muhammad, Nawaz, Muhammad Asim, Kiran, Faiqa, 2024-11-29 Destination branding in ecotourism shapes tourist and traveler s perceptions and experiences It creates a unique identity for a location that highlights its natural beauty cultural heritage and commitment to sustainability Biases may also impact this branding influencing which destinations are promoted and their perception by potential visitors Factors like socioeconomic status geographic location and environmental narratives can lead to disparities in visibility and accessibility Further understanding of these biases can develop authentic and equitable ecotourism practices that benefit both travelers and local communities Destination Branding and Bias in Ecotourism explores practices and strategies in ecotourism using destination marketing bias and brand authenticity It examines the use of intelligent technologies and data analysis for marketing strategies to promote cultural sites and environmentally conserved areas This book covers topics such as environmental science digital technology and social media and is a useful resource for computer engineers environmental scientists marketers tourism professionals academicians and researchers Postinternet Art and Its Afterlives Ian

Rothwell, 2023-12-19 Focusing on the postinternet art of the 2010s this volume explores the widespread impact of recent internet culture on the formal and conceptual concerns of contemporary art The postinternet art movement is splintered and loosely defined both in terms of its form and its politics and has come under significant critique for this reason This study will provide this definition offering a much needed critical context for this period of artistic activity that has had and is still having a major impact on contemporary culture The book presents a picture of what the art and culture made within and against the constraints of the online experience look sound and feel like It includes works by Petra Cortright Jon Rafman Jordan Wolfson DIS Amalia Ulman and Thomas Ruff and presents new analyses of case studies drawn from the online worlds of the 2010s including vaporwave anonymous image board culture irony bros and edgelords viral extreme sports stunts and GIFs The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history contemporary art and digital culture Nuclear

Science and Engineering, 1967 Cumulated Index Medicus, 1967 Ecotoxicology, Ecological Risk Assessment and Multiple Stressors Gerassimos Arapis, Nadezhda Goncharova, Philippe Baveye, 2006-02-09 The science of ecotoxicology and the practice of ecological risk assessment are evolving rapidly Ecotoxicology as a subject area came into prominence in the 1960s after the publication of Rachel Carson s book on the impact of pesticides on the environment The rise of public and scientific concern for the effects of chemical pollutants on the environment in the 1960s and 1970s led to the development of the discipline of ecotoxicology a science that takes into account the effects of chemicals in the context of ecology Until the early 1980s in spite of public concern and interest among scientists the assessment of ecological risks associated with natural or synthetic pollutants was not considered a priority issue by most government However as the years passed a better understanding of the importance of ecotoxicology emerged and with it in some countries the progressive formalization of an ecological risk assessment process Ecological risk assessment is a conceptual tool for organizing and analyzing data and information to evaluate the likelihood that one or more stressors are causing or will cause adverse ecological effects Ecological risk assessment allows risk managers to consider available scientific information when selecting a course of action in addition to other factors that may affect their decision e g social legal political or economic Ecological risk assessment includes three phases problem formulation analysis and risk characterization RADIALS Bulletin Library Association, 1974 Comparative Risk Assessment and Environmental Decision Making Igor Linkov, Abou Bakr Ramadan, 2006-03-02 Decision making in environmental projects is typically a complex and confusing process characterized by trade offs between socio political environmental and economic impacts Comparative Risk Assessment CRA is a methodology applied to facilitate decision making when various activities compete for limited resources CRA has become an increasingly accepted research tool and has helped to characterize environmental profiles and priorities on the regional and national level CRA may be considered as part of the more general but as yet quite academic field of multi criteria decision analysis MCDA Considerable research in the area of MCDA has made available methods for applying scientific decision theoretical approaches to multi criteria problems but its applications especially in environmental areas are still limited The papers show that the use of comparative risk assessment can provide the scientific basis for environmentally sound and cost efficient policies strategies and solutions to our environmental challenges Office Design: a Study of Environment Pilkington Research Unit, 1965 Who's who in Finance and Industry, 1999 Who's who in Finance and Industry 2000-2001, 1999 Library & Information Science Abstracts, 1979 Punched Card Data Processing Annual, 1961 Data Processing Annual, 1961 Current Research in Library & Information Science, 1985 The Times Index, 2007 Indexes the Times and its supplements Dictionary Catalog of the University Library, 1919-1962 University of California, Los Angeles.
