The New Domestic Automakers in the United States and Canada A.J. Jacobs, 2015-12-16 Over the past forty years state provincial and local governments in the United States and Canada have provided foreign automakers with approximately 4 80 billion in incentives in order to lure light vehicles assembly plants to their areas This has included tax abatements infrastructure construction land giveaways job training programs and other subsidies As of early 2015 ten foreign vehicle makers operated 20 light vehicles in developed North America Despite the fact that all ten of these automakers have pursued a similar pattern first exporting vehicles into the United States and Canada before launching vehicle plants in developed North America each has followed its own specific historical development path and has created its own unique growth trajectory This book provides a unique historical and qualitative review of these ten vehicle makers from their early beginnings to their export entry into the United States and or Canada through early 2015 In addition it chronicles the histories of more than a dozen former automakers and potential future foreign light motor vehicle assembly plants in the United States and Canada This includes the first foreign automaker to build its cars in the United States De Dion Bouton of France in July 1900 the early 20th Century endeavors of Fiat Mercedes and Rolls Royce and the present day hopes of Chinese and Indian automakers In the process the text also provides an assessment of the top competing states and sites for any future plants the possible incentives packages governments may offer to attract such facilities and an estimated incentive value for each automaker Overall the goal of this book is to expand the knowledge of policymakers at all tiers of government in the United States and Canada and to help them take a more holistic look at the pros and cons of attracting Automobile Manufacturing FDI It is hoped that this will enable them to make more informed decisions when pursuing a new foreign motor vehicle assembly plant Its findings should also prove informative to urban and regional planning political science sociology economics labor and international development scholars and students in North America and worldwide

Scientific Testimony Mikkel Gerken, 2022-08-18 Scientific Testimony concerns the roles of scientific testimony in science and society The book develops a positive alternative to a tradition famously expressed by the slogan of the Royal Society Nullius in verba Take nobody's word for it This book argues that intra scientific testimony i e testimony between collaborating scientists is not in conflict with the spirit of science or an add on to scientific practice On the contrary intra scientific testimony is a vital part of science This is illustrated by articulating epistemic norms of intra scientific testimony and arguing that they are vital to scientific methodology on a par with other scientific norms governing scientific observation and data analysis The book also provides an account of public scientific testimony i e scientific testimony to the lay population This is done by integrating philosophical resources with empirical research on the science of science communication For example various misconceptions about science and folk epistemological biases are diagnosed as factors that contribute to science skepticism This diagnosis provides the basis for developing novel norms for science communication that are sensitive to the psychological and social obstacles to laypersons uptake of it Finally the volume discusses how public scientific testimony is best embedded in society and argues that it is critical for societies that pursue the ideals of deliberative democracy Scientific Testimony draws on philosophy of science social epistemology and empirical research to provide a wide ranging account of the roles of scientific testimony within scientific practice and within the wider society

Performance, Subjectivity, Cosmopolitanism

Yana Meerzon,2020-08-07 This book looks at the connection between contemporary theatre practices and cosmopolitanism a philosophical condition of social behaviour based on our responsibility respect and healthy curiosity to the other Advocating for cosmopolitanism has become a necessity in a world defined by global wars mass migration and rise of nationalism Using empathy affect and telling personal stories of displacement through embodied encounter between the actor and their audience performance arts can serve as a training ground for this social behavior In the centre of this encounter is a new cosmopolitan a person of divided origins and cultural heritage someone who speaks many languages and claims different countries as their place of belonging The book examines how European and North American theatres stage this divided subjectivity both from within the way we tell stories about ourselves to others and from without through the stories the others tell about us

Religious Disagreement and Pluralism Matthew A. Benton,Jonathan L. Kvanvig,2021-11-25

Epistemological questions about the significance of disagreement have advanced alongside broader developments in social epistemology concerning testimony the nature of expertise and epistemic authority the role of institutions group belief and epistemic injustice among others During this period related issues in the epistemology of religion have re emerged as worthy of new consideration and available to be situated with new conceptual tools Does disagreement between and within religions challenge the rationality of religious commitment How should religious adherents think about exclusivist inclusivist and pluralist frameworks as applied to religious truth or to matters of salvation or redemption or liberation This volume explores many of these issues at the intersection of the epistemology of disagreement and religious epistemology It engages in careful reflection on religious diversity and disagreement offering ways to balance epistemic humility with personal conviction Recognizing the place of religious differences in our social lives it provides renewed efforts at how best to think about truths concerning religion
