Indiana Business Studies Indiana University. Bureau of Business Research, 1944 Routledge Handbook of Caribbean Studies Patricia Noxolo, Kevon Rhiney, Ronald Cummings, 2025-04-02 The Routledge Handbook of Caribbean Studies provides a critical collection of world class scholarship about this fascinating diverse and dynamic region Bringing together new and established voices on the Anglophone Francophone Spanish speaking and Dutch speaking Caribbean the handbook explores the cultural and historical shapes and reach of the region as well as the environmental climatic and geo political challenges that it faces in the 21st century Each of its four parts Environment Geo politics History and Culture explores the region s conceptual and material entanglements and disentanglements its transnational and transregional connections and disconnections and its historical wakes and posts The Routledge Handbook of Caribbean Studies is essential reading for all who want to know more about this much studied but often misrepresented and misunderstood region British Rail 1974-1997 Terry Gourvish, 2002-03-28 Britain s privatised railways continue to provoke debate about the organisation financing and development of the railway system This important book written by Britain s leading railway historian provides an authoritative account of the progress made by British Rail prior to privatisation and a unique insight into its difficult role in the government s privatisation planning from 1989 Based on free access to the British Railway Board s rich archives the book provides a comprehensive analysis of the main themes a process of continuous organisational change the existence of a persistent government audit perennial investment restraints the directive to reduce operating costs and improve productivity a concern with financial performance technological change service quality and the management of industrial relations and the Board s ambiguous position as the Conservative government pressed home its privatisation programme The introduction of sector management from 1982 and the Organising for Quality initiative of the early 1990s the Serpell Report on railway finances of 1983 the sale of the subsidiary businesses the large scale investment in the Channel Tunnel and the obsession with safety which followed the Clapham accident of 1988 are all examined in depth In the conclusion the author reviews the successes and failures of the public sector rehearses the arguments for and against integration in the railway industry and contrasts what many have termed the golden age of the mid late 1980s when the British Rail government relationship was arguably at its most effective with what has happened since 1994 Nuernberg War Crimes Trials United States. National Archives and Records Service, 1975 Cambridge Yearbook of European Legal Studies, Vol 16 2013-2014 Albertina Albors-Llorens, Kenneth Armstrong, Markus Gehring, 2015-01-22 The Cambridge Yearbook of European Legal Studies provides a forum for the scrutiny of significant issues in EU Law the law of the European Convention on Human Rights and Comparative Law with a European dimension and particularly those issues which have come to the fore during the year preceding publication The contributions appearing in the collection are commissioned by the Centre for European Legal Studies CELS Cambridge a research centre in the Law Faculty of the University of Cambridge specialising in European legal issues The papers presented are at the cutting edge of the fields which they address and reflect the views of recognised experts drawn from the University world legal practice and the institutions of both the EU and its Member States Inclusion of the comparative dimension brings a fresh perspective to the study of European law and highlights the effects of globalisation of the law more generally and the resulting cross fertilisation of norms and ideas that has occurred among previously sovereign and separate legal orders The Cambridge Yearbook of European Legal Studies is an invaluable resource for those wishing to keep pace with legal developments in the fast moving world of European integration

The Rise of China and India in Africa Fantu Cheru, Cyril Obi, 2010-03-11 In recent years China and India have become the most important economic partners of Africa and their footprints are growing by leaps and bounds transforming Africa's international relations in a dramatic way Although the overall impact of China and India's engagement in Africa has been positive in the short term partly as a result of higher returns from commodity exports fuelled by excessive demands from both countries little research exists on the actual impact of China and India's growing involvement on Africa's economic transformation This book examines in detail the opportunities and challenges posed by the increasing presence of China and India in Africa and proposes critical interventions that African governments must undertake in order to negotiate with China and India from a stronger and more informed platform

Onassis Business History, 1924—1975, 2023-11-13 Aristotle Onassis was the most famous shipowner of the twentieth century He became the archetype and image of the ship owning magnate the symbol of Greek enterprise on a global scale What distinguished him from the rest was that he created the shipping business of the new global era combining the European maritime tradition and the American institutions and resources Almost all books written on Onassis focus on his lifestyle and personal life This is the first book examining all aspects of his multi faceted global business activities in the shipping airline and oil industries It is based on the newly formed Onassis Archive comprising thousands of new and unpublished files of his core business Contributors are Alexandra Papadopoulou Amalia Pappa Maria Damilakou Lars Scholl and Christos Tsakas

Apartheid, 1948-1994 Saul Dubow, 2014-05-23 This new study offers a fresh interpretation of apartheid South Africa Emerging out of the author's long standing interests in the history of racial segregation and drawing on a great deal of new scholarship archival collections and personal memoirs he situates apartheid in global as well as local contexts The overall conception of Apartheid 1948 1994 is to integrate studies of resistance with the analysis of power paying attention to the importance of ideas institutions and culture Saul Dubow refamiliarises and defamiliarise apartheid so as to approach South Africa's white supremacist past from unlikely perspectives He asks not only why apartheid was defeated but how it survived so long He neither presumes the rise of apartheid nor its demise This synoptic reinterpretation is designed to introduce students to apartheid and to generate new questions for experts in the field

Doing Business with the Nazis Neil Forbes, 2020-04-15 Britain's financial and economic relations with Nazi Germany are assessed in this book The structure and formulation of British policy the interaction of government and business and the relationship between British business interests and Nazi Germany are looked at. A particular focus of the book is on the crisis of uncertainty felt in Britain over the rejection of economic internationalism, Sterling's devaluation and the imposition of tariffs, which opened up a breach with Europe which exerted a severely destabilising influence. In the face of economic nationalism at home and abroad, leading figures in British commercial and political life struggled to prevent a complete breakdown of relations with Germany, the most important trading partner in Europe.

Quaker Women Sandra Stanley Holton, 2012-11-12. One nineteenth century commentator noted the public character of Quaker women as signalling a new era in female history. This study examines such claims through the story of middle class women Friends from among the kinship circle created by the marriage in 1839 of Elizabeth Priestman and the future radical Quaker statesman John Bright. The lives discussed here cover a period from the late eighteenth to the early twentieth centuries and include several women Friends active in radical politics and the women's movement in the service of which they were able to mobilise extensive national and international networks. They also created and preserved a substantial archive of private papers comprising letters and diaries full of humour and darkness, the spiritual and the mundane, family confidences and public debate, the daily round and affairs of state. The discovery of such a collection makes it possible to examine the relationship between the personal and public lives of these women Friends explored through a number of topics including the nature of Quaker domestic and church cultures, the significance of kinship and church membership for the building of extensive Quaker networks, the relationship between Quaker religious values and women's participation in civil society and radical politics and the women's rights movement. There are also fresh perspectives on the political career of John Bright provided by his fond but frank women kin. This new study is a must read for all those interested in the history of women, religion and politics.
