14 Zimsec History Paper 1:

A History of Zimbabwe, 1890-2000 and Postscript, Zimbabwe, 2001-2008 Chengetai J. M. Zvobgo, 2009-10-02 This study combines in one volume the history of Zimbabwe from the advent of British settlers in 1890 to 2000 including women's rights and human rights in Zimbabwe. It is a political, social and economic history. The Postscript examines the major developments in Zimbabwe from 2001 to 2008. The two previous major studies on the history of Zimbabwe, The Past Is Another Country by Martin Meredith (London: Andre Deutsch, 1979) and The Road to Zimbabwe 1890-1980 by Anthony Verrier (London: Jonathan Cape, 1986) are now out of date. This volume brings the historical study of Zimbabwe almost up to the present day. A History of Zimbabwe A. S. Mlambo, 2014-04-07 Examines Zimbabwe's pre-colonial, colonial and postcolonial social, economic and political history and relates historical factors and trends to more recent developments in the country. Making History in Banda Ann Brower Stahl, 2001-08-02 Drawing on evidence from several disciplines, Ann Brower Stahl reconstructs the daily lives of Banda villagers of west central Ghana from the time that they were drawn into the Niger trade around AD 1300 until British overrule was established early in the twentieth century. The case study aims to closely integrate perspectives drawn from archaeology, history and anthropology in African studies. Making History in Mugabe's Zimbabwe Blessing-Miles Tendi, 2010 The crisis that has engulfed Zimbabwe since 2000 is not simply a struggle against dictatorship. It is also a struggle over ideas and deep-seated historical issues still unresolved from the independence process that both Robert Mugabe's ZANU-PF regime and Morgan Tsvangirai's MDC are vying first to define and then to address. This book traces the role of politicians and public intellectuals in media, civil society and the academy in producing and disseminating a politically usable historical narrative concerning ideas about patriotism, race, land, human rights and sovereignty. It raises pressing questions about the role of contemporary African intellectuals in the making of democratic societies. In so doing, the book adds a new and rich dimension to the study of African politics which is often diluted by the neglect of ideas.

(Re)Constructing Memory: Textbooks, Identity, Nation, and State James H. Williams, Wendy D. Bokhorst-Heng, 2016-07-08 This book engages readers in thirteen conversations presented by authors from around the world regarding the role that textbooks play in helping readers imagine membership in the nation. Authors' voices come from a variety of contexts: some historical, some contemporary, some providing analyses over time. But they all consider the changing portrayal of diversity, belonging and exclusion in multiethnic and diverse societies where silenced, invisible, marginalized members have struggled to make their voices heard and to have their identities incorporated into the national narrative. The authors discuss portrayals of past exclusions around religion, ethnicity, sexual orientation as they look at the shifting boundaries of insider and outsider. This book is thus about who we are, not only demographically but also in terms of the past, especially how and whether we teach discredited pasts through textbooks. The concluding chapters provide ways forward in thinking about what can be done to promote curricula that are more inclusive, critical and positively bonding in increasingly larger and more inclusive contexts

The History and Political Transition of Zimbabwe Sabelo J.

Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Pedzisai Ruhanya, 2020-10-21 This book is the first to tackle the difficult and complex politics of transition in Zimbabwe with deep historical analysis Its focus is on a very problematic political culture that is proving very hard to transcend At the center of this culture is an unstable but resilient nationalist military alliance crafted during the anti colonial liberation struggle in the 1970s Inevitably violence misogyny and masculinity are constitutive of the political culture Economically speaking the culture is that of a bureaucratic parasitic primitive accumulation and corruption which include invasion and emptying of state coffers by a self styled Chimurenga aristocracy However this Chimurenga aristocracy is not cohesive as the politics that led to Robert Mugabe s ousting from power was preceded by dirty and protracted internal factionalism At the center of the factional politics was the first family Robert Mugabe and his wife Grace Mugabe This book offers a multidisciplinary examination of the complex contemporary politics in Zimbabwe taking seriously such issues as gender misogyny militarism violence media identity modes of accumulation the ethnicization of politics attempts to open lines of credit and FDI national healing and the national question as key variables not only of a complete political culture but also of difficult transitional politics
