Who to Release? Nicola Padfield, 2013-03-07 This book is concerned to explore the changing role of the Parole Board across the range of its responsibilities including the prediction of risk and deciding on the release or continued detention of the growing number of recalled prisoners and of those subject to indeterminate sentences In doing so it aims to rectify the lack of attention that has been given by lawyers academics and practitioners to back door sentencing where the real length of a sentence is decided by those who take the decision to release compared to front door sentencing decisions taken by judges or magistrates in court Particular attention is given in this book to the important changes made to the role and working of the Parole Board as a result of the impact of the early release scheme of the Criminal Justice Act 2005 with the Parole Board now deciding in Panels concerned with determinate sentence prisoners lifers and recalled prisoners A wide range of significant issues and case law has arisen as a result of these changes which the contributors to this book leading authorities in the field aim to explore Federal Register, 1990-07-05

Conflicting Integration Elli Louka, 2004 This book provides a comprehensive explanatory framework for understanding the European Community environmental law It looks behind the technicalities of the European Union environmental law as it explains the purpose and effects of Community's rulemaking. The proposed explanatory framework is used to analyze several environmental issues such as air pollution, water pollution, waste management and biodiversity protection as well as strategic planning and economic instruments and to provide normative direction for the future development of EC law. This book is innovative in that it examines environmental issues from both a Community and an international perspective, exploring the interconnection between International Law and Community rulemaking. This book is an indispensable source for those who wish to understand EC environmental law, students, scholars and practitioners of EC law, environmental law, international law and policy. The ASEAN Intergovernmental Commission on Human Rights Robin Ramcharan, 2025-03-31. This book systematically documents the practice of the ASEAN Intergovernmental Commission on Human Rights (AICHR) on the protection of human rights. It provides a template of universal standards spanning prevention, response and mitigation and redress and remedies from which to gauge the performance of the AICHR. The evidence points to a Commission that leaves much to be desired and whose protective function needs significant improvement. Nevertheless, the National Representatives of Member States to the AICHR have taken important and positive steps that lay the groundwork for a more protection-oriented Commission. The work offers avenues for the National Representatives, the ASEAN Member States and civil society to enhance the protection function of the AICHR and to thus more closely align it with hard-won international standards and best practices. The book will be of interest to representatives of the AICHR, human rights practitioners, ASEAN policymakers and academics, students, researchers and policymakers in the areas of international relations, human rights law and Asian studies.
