Christianity in South Africa Richard Elphick, Rodney Davenport, T. R. H. Davenport, 1997-01-01 At a strategic time in South Africa's history the Christian history which is absolutely basic to all developments is presented in a comprehensive and objective way Too little attention is given to the influence of religion in socio political accounts This is a creative and much needed contribution to scholarship and general knowledge An outstanding work Dean S Gilliland Fuller Theological Seminary A History of Northern Botswana, 1850-1910 J. Mutero Chirenje, 1977 A study of chronological facts as well as personalities social issues and economic factors with an analysis of the influence of Western culture on four particular tribes of the Tswana nation Kwena Ngwaketse Ngwato and Tawana Imagining Multilingual Schools Ofelia García, Tove Skutnabb-Kangas, Maria E. Torres-Guzmán, 2006 This book brings together visions and realities of multilingual schools throughout the world in order to examine the pedagogical socioeducational and sociopolitical issues that impact on their development and success The chapters describe and analyze pedagogical instructional and policy efforts to develop multilingualism through school with different targeted populations immigrant students indigenous peoples traditional minorities majorities and multiethnic multilingual groups Each contribution many written by well known scholars in the field of bilingual and multilingual education affirms the desirability of multilingualism as a societal resource and as a right of individuals while acknowledging the social economic and political differences that make the acquisition of multilingualism easy for some and difficult for others And yet the book focuses on the school as a place of promise and resistance having the potential to preserve recover and expand the world's linguistic diversity The introduction written by the co editors identifies the conceptual threads that are developed throughout the chapters But the chapters themselves remind us of the importance of local conditions despite the global pressures of the 21st century in imagining and creating multilingual educational spaces
