Curriculum Series National Council for the Social Studies,1967 Market Education Andrew J. Coulson, In Market Education The Unknown History Andrew J Coulson explores the educational problems facing parents and shows how these problems can best be addressed He begins with a discussion of what people want from their school systems tracing their views of the kinds of knowledge skills and values education should impart and their concerns about discipline drugs and violence in schools Using this survey of goals and attitudes as a guide Coulson sets out to compare the school systems of civilizations both ancient and modern seeking to determine which systems achieved the aims of parents and the public at large and which did not Drawing on the historical evidence of how these various systems operated Coulson concludes that free educational markets have consistently done a better job of serving the public s needs than state run school systems have

Research Quarterly for Exercise and Sport ,1988 Pro-Family Politics and Fringe Parties in Canada Chris MacKenzie,2014-05-14 Pro Family Politics and Fringe Parties in Canada explores the organizational and ideological nature of political parties that are initially formed to do the work of social movements Specifically it examines the development of the Family Coalition Party of British Columbia FCP from its origins as a group of alienated Social Credit Party members to its rebirth as the Unity Party of British Columbia and through its struggles as a marginal political entity along the way While addressing the FCP s relationship to the larger North American pro family movement Chris MacKenzie also deftly demonstrates how the party can be seen as organizationally congruent with its ideological antithesis the Green Party Basing his findings on seven years of field research he identifies the obstacles that political parties involved in social movement work must overcome in order for them to achieve their goals He concludes that despite their invaluable contribution to democracy such party movements have limited political institutionalization Consequently their only realistic goal may be to merge their ideals with those of another larger political body This book makes a substantial contribution to our understanding of the genesis development and impact of political party movements in Canada Moreover it provides useful insight into the dynamics and issues that make up the current pro family movements in Canada and the United States Canadian Library Handbook ,2000 What Teachers Need to Know Matthew Bruce Etherington,2017-03-31 Every generation has sought to make teaching and learning more inclusive and equitable but pesky questions always remain such as how can teaching and learning be conducted in ways that satisfies and respects everyone What are the parameters of an inclusive pedagogy Who defines its principles How should these principles be taught and by whom And by what authority shall they be grounded These types of thorny questions occupy the essence of educators and the authors of this book This book is about teachers educators and topics related to inclusion Teachers and educators have a lot to know therefore the topics are broad and relevant to the times What should teachers know about special needs religion and spirituality Aboriginality the environment tolerance and school choice Although teachers have knowledge of their subject matter knowledge alone is not sufficient They must know and understand how people learn A teacher must also care deeply about who they teach And this teacher knowledge grows and changes over time as teachers become more experienced informed skilled and wiser At the same time no teacher preparation will be sufficient because there will always be discussions that were never had and knowledge that was never shared Time has its costs and there is only so much a formal education can prepare someone This book helps to satisfy a cavity in learning for teachers and educators in general The Guide to Jewish Life in British Columbia ,2003
