Methodology for Business and Management Studies Dr Martin Rich, Dr Anne Brown, 2014-06-16 Tourism in the City Nicola Bellini, Cecilia Pasquinelli, 2016-08-29 This book critically explores the interconnections between tourism and the contemporary city from a policy oriented standpoint combining tourism perspectives with discussion of urban models, issues and challenges. Research based analyses addressing managerial issues and evaluating policy implications are described and a comprehensive set of case studies is presented to demonstrate practices and policies in various urban contexts. A key message is that tourism policies should be conceived as integrated urban policies that promote tourism performance as a means of fostering urban quality and the well being of local communities e.g. in terms of quality spaces, employment, accessibility, innovation and learning opportunities. In addition to highlighting the significance of urban tourism in relation to key urban challenges, the book reflects on the risks and tensions associated with its development, including the rise of anti-tourism movements as a reaction to touristification, cultural commodification and gentrification. Attention is drawn to asymmetries in the costs and benefits of the city tourism phenomenon and the supposedly unavoidable trade off between the interests of residents and tourists is critically questioned. Mass Tourism in a Small World David Harrison, Richard Sharpley, 2017-05-26 This new book reviews all aspects of the phenomenon of mass tourism. It covers theoretical perspectives including political economy, ethics, sustainability and environmentalism, the historical context and the current challenges to domestic, intra-regional and international mass tourism. As tourism and tourist numbers continue to grow around the world, it becomes increasingly important that this subject is studied in depth and best practice applied in real life situations. Finishing with a speculative chapter identifying potential future trends and challenges, this book forms an essential resource for all.
