The Future of Accessibility in International Higher Education Alphin Jr., Henry C., Chan, Roy Y., Lavine, Jennie, 2017-05-17 Education is the foundation to almost all successful lives and it is important that a high level of schooling be available on a global scale Studying the trends in accessibility in education will allow educators to improve their own teaching techniques as well as expand their influence to more remote areas in the world The Future of Accessibility in International Higher Education is a comprehensive reference source for the latest scholarly material on emerging methods and trends in disseminating knowledge in university settings Featuring extensive coverage on relevant topics such as e learning economic perspectives and educational technology this publication is ideally designed for educators academics students and researchers interested in expanding their knowledge of global education Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Participation of Young People in Governance Processes in Africa Kurebwa, Jeffrey, Dodo, Obadiah, 2019-06-28 Active political engagement requires the youth of today to begin their journeys now to be leaders of tomorrow Young individuals are instrumental in providing valuable insight into issues locally as well as on a national and international level Participation of Young People in Governance Processes in Africa examines the role of young peoples involvement in governance processes in Africa and demonstrates how they are engaging in active citizenship There is an intrinsic value in upholding their right to participate in decisions that affect their daily lives and their communities and the content within this publication supports this by focusing on topics such as good citizenship youth empowerment democratic awareness political climate and socio economic development It is designed for researchers academics policymakers government officials and professionals whose interests center on the engagement of youth in active citizenship roles The Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa: a commentary Celestine Nyamu Musembi ,Trésor Muhindo Makunya, 2023-08-28 The first in a series of PULP commentaries on African human rights law under the series title PULP Commentaries on African human rights law Since its adoption on 11 July 2003 the Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa the Maputo Protocol has become a landmark on the African human rights landscape It has steadily gained prominence as a trail blazing instrument responsive to the diverse realities of women on the African continent This comprehensive Commentary on the Maputo Protocol the first of its kind provides systematic analysis of each article of the Protocol delving into the drafting history and elaborating on relevant key concepts and normative standards This Commentary aims to be a one stop shop for anyone interested in the Maputo Protocol such as researchers teachers students practitioners policymakers and activists Comparative Law and Anthropology James A.R. Nafziger, 2017-12-29 The topical chapters in this cutting edge collection at the intersection of comparative law and anthropology explore the mutually enriching insights and outlooks of the two fields Comparative Law and Anthropology adopts a foundational approach to social and cultural issues and their resolution rather than relying on unified paradigms of research or unified objects of study Taken together the contributions extend long developing trends from legal anthropology to an anthropology of law and from externally imposed to internally generated interpretations of norms and processes of legal significance within particular cultures The book s expansive conceptualization of comparative law encompasses not only its traditional geographical orientation but also historical and jurisprudential dimensions It is also noteworthy in blending the expertise of long established acclaimed scholars with new voices from a range of disciplines and backgrounds

Handbook of Global Urban Health Igor Vojnovic, Amber Pearson, Gershim Asiki, Geoff DeVerteuil, Adriana Allen, 2019-05-09 Through interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary perspectives and with an emphasis on exploring patterns as well as distinct and unique conditions across the globe this collection examines advanced and cutting edge theoretical and methodological approaches to the study of the health of urban populations Despite the growing interest in global urban health there are limited resources available that provide an extensive and advanced exploration into the health of urban populations in a transnational context This volume offers a high quality and comprehensive examination of global urban health issues by leading urban health scholars from around the world The book brings together a multi disciplinary perspective on urban health with chapter contributions emphasizing disciplines in the social sciences construction sciences and medical sciences The co editors of the collection come from a number of different disciplinary backgrounds that have been at the forefront of urban health research including public health epidemiology geography city planning and urban design The book is intended to be a reference in global urban health for research libraries and faculty collections It will also be appropriate as a text for university class adoption in upper division under graduate courses and above The proposed volume is extensive and offers enough breadth and depth to enable it to be used for courses emphasizing a U S or wider Western perspective as well as courses on urban health emphasizing a global context

Fashioning the Afropolis Kerstin Pinther, Kristin Kastner, Basile Ndjio, 2022-07-14 A revelation Reclaiming fashion from its European history Shane White With a focus on sub Saharan Africa Fashioning the Afropolis provides a range of innovative perspectives on global fashion design dress photography and the body in some of the major cities with a focus on Lagos Johannesburg Dakar and Douala It contributes to the ongoing debates around the globalization of fashion and fashion theory by exploring fashion as a genuine urban phenomenon on the continent and among its diasporas To date fashion and city have not been systematically related to each other in the African context and for too long a western centric gaze has dominated scholarship resulting in the perception of Africa as provincial and its visual arts and textile cultures as static and folkloristic This perspective is all the more distorted given Africa s rich sartorial past With a huge number of tailors ready to adapt and renew clothing reshaping garments into contemporary styles and many cities in Africa becoming hot spots for a steadily growing and well connected scene of fashion designers in the past 20 years the time is ripe for a reevaluation and reconsideration of the fashionscapes of Africa Leading scholars offer an updated empirical and theoretical foundation on which to base new and exciting research on sub Saharan fashion challenging perceptions and offering new insights

Regionalism, Security and Development in Africa Ernest Tooichi Aniche,Ikenna Mike Alumona,Inocent Moyo,2021-04-29 This book charts the history and contemporary landscape of African regionalism investigating how regional cooperation can be used to help to tackle security and development challenges in Africa Africa has a long tradition of regional cooperation with the oldest trade and monetary integration schemes in the developing world but its colonial period and partition of have caused lasting damage that still be seen in today s African economies Contemporary post colonial African regionalism deeply rooted in notions of pan Africanism has served as a means of collective self reliance and economic transformation and development This book starts with the history and theory behind African regionalism before discussing and comparing regional organisations such as the Economic Community of Central African States ECCAS the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS the Community of Sahel Saharan States CEN SAD Southern African Development Community SADC the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA and the East African Community EAC Finally the book considers how regional integration and cooperation can help to address security and development challenges This ambitious and broad ranging book will be a valuable resource for researchers working on African regionalism security African integration and development and comparative regionalism Policymakers should also consider it a useful guide to the background and contemporary landscape of African regionalism The State of

Accountability in the Global South Sylvia I. Bergh,Sony Pellissery,C. Sathyamala,2022-11-15 Political leaders and institutions across the Global South are continually failing to respond to the needs of their citizens This incisive book sets out to establish the pathways to and outcomes of accountability in a development context as well as to investigate the ways in which people can seek redress and hold their public officials to account Routledge Handbook of Public Policy in Africa Gedion Onyango,2021-12-30 This Handbook provides an authoritative and foundational disciplinary overview of African Public Policy and a comprehensive examination of the practicalities of policy analysis policymaking processes implementation and administration in Africa today The book assembles a multidisciplinary team of distinguished and upcoming Africanist scholars practitioners researchers and policy experts working inside and outside Africa to analyse the historical and emerging policy issues in 21st century Africa While mostly attentive to comparative public policy in Africa this book attempts to address some of the following pertinent questions How can public policy be understood and taught in Africa How does policymaking occur in unstable political contexts or in states under pressure Has the democratisation of governing systems improved policy processes in Africa How have recent transformations such as technological proliferation in Africa impacted public policy processes What are the underlying challenges and potential policy paths for Africa going forward The contributions examine an interplay of prevailing institutional political structural challenges and opportunities for policy effectiveness to discern striking commonalities and trajectories across different African states This is a valuable resource for practitioners politicians researchers university students and academics interested in studying and understanding how African countries are governed Prison Bureaucracies in the United States, Mexico, India, and Honduras Brian

Norris,2018-02-19 Modern criminal justice institutions globally include police criminal courts and prisons Prisons unlike courts which developed out of an old aristocratic function and unlike police which developed out of an ancient posse or standing army function are only about 200 years old and are humanitarian inventions Prisons defined as modern institutions that deprive the freedom of individuals who violate societies most basic norms in lieu of corporal or capital punishment were near universal at the dawn of the 21st century and their use was expanding globally The US alone spent 60 billion on prisons in 2014 Prison Bureaucracies addresses two fundamental questions Do prisons in Christian Hindu and Muslim societies separated by space and level of socioeconomic development follow a common evolutionary path Given that differences in prison structure and performance exist what factors resources laws leadership historical accident institutions culture account for differences Based on more than 150 interviews conducted in ten international trips with prison administrators in 15 male state prisons in the US Mexico India and Honduras Norris provides ethnographic descriptions of prisons bureaucracies that are immediately recognizable as similar institutions but that nonetheless possessed distinctive forms and developmental trajectories Economists and political scientists have argued that incentives provided by institutions matter for good or bad public administration and this is undeniable in the prisons of this study But institutional incentives were one factor among many affecting the form and function of the prisons and prison systems of this study African Indigenous

Medical Knowledge and Human Health Charles Wambebe,2018-01-29 Despite the relevance of and empirical evidence for African Traditional Medicine based on African Indigenous Medical Knowledge AIMK research and development of new phytomedicines from this continent has been slow African Indigenous Medical Knowledge and Human Health aims to provide a catalyst for health innovations based on the rich African biodiversity and AIMK The book documents some of the success stories from the continent related to AIMK and serves as a one step reference for all professionals interested in the research and development of medical interventions including pharmacognosists ethnobiologists botanists phytochemists pharmacologists and medical scientists

Disability and Poverty in the Global South Shaun Grech,2015-08-25 Drawing from long term ethnographic work and practice in Guatemala this incisive and interdisciplinary text brings in perspectives from critical disability studies postcolonial theory and critical development to explore the various interactions and dynamics between disability and extreme poverty in rural areas A grammar of Fwe Hilde Gunnink,2022-07-06 This book provides a first ever comprehensive overview of the grammatical structure of Fwe Fwe is a Bantu language spoken on the border between Zambia and Namibia by some 20 000 people Very little previous documentation exists on the language and the current description of Fwe is based exclusively on newly collected field data It includes an analysis of the grammatical structure of Fwe followed by basic cultural information on greetings a Fwe narrative with its English translation and a lexicon comprising some 2200 Fwe lexemes with their English translation This book is intended as a resource for linguists whether interested in African languages Bantu languages language typology or general linguistics     Regimes of

Comparatism ,2018-11-05 Historically all societies have used comparison to analyze cultural difference through the interaction of religion power and translation When comparison is a self reflective practice it can be seen as a form of comparatism Many scholars are concerned in one way or another with the practice and methods of comparison and the need for a cognitively robust relativism is an integral part of a mature historical self placement This volume looks at how different theories and practices of writing and interpretation have developed at different times in different cultures and reconsiders the specificities of modern comparative approaches within a variety of comparative moments The idea is to reconsider the specificities the obstacles and the possibilities of modern comparative approaches in history and anthropology through a variety of earlier and parallel comparative horizons Particular attention is given to the exceptional role of Athens and Jerusalem in shaping the Western understanding of cultural difference Contributors are Matei Candea Philippe Descola Renaud Gagn Simon Goldhill Anthony Grafton Caroline Humphrey Dmitri Levitin Geoffrey Lloyd Joan Pau Rubi s Jonathan Sheehan Marilyn Strathern Guy Stroumsa and Phiroze Vasunia     DIY Urbanism in Africa Stephen Marr,Patience

Mususa,2023-11-02 Protracted economic crises accelerating inequalities and increased resource scarcity present significant challenges for the majority of Africa s urban population Limited state capacity and widespread infrastructure deficiencies common in cities across the continent often require residents to draw on their own resources knowledge and expertise to resolve these life and livelihood dilemmas DIY Urbanism in Africa investigates these practices It develops a theoretical framework through which to analyze them and it presents a series of case studies to demonstrate how residents invent new DIY tactics and strategies in response to security place making or economic problems This book offers a timely critical intervention into literatures on urban development and politics in Africa It is valuable to students policymakers and urban practitioners keen to understand the mechanisms and political implications of widespread dynamics now shaping Africa s expanding urban environments     Re-thinking Postcolonial Education in Sub-Saharan Africa in the 21st Century Edward

Shizha,Ngoni Makuvaza,2017-04-17 What have postcolonial Sub Saharan African countries achieved in their education policies and programmes How far have they contributed to successful attainment of the targeted 2015 Millennium Development Goals MDGs on education What were the constraints and barriers for developing an education system that appeals to the needs of the sub region Re thinking Postcolonial Education in Sub Saharan Africa in the 21st Century Post Millennium Development Goals is an attempt to demonstrate that Sub Saharan Africa has the potential and capability to provide solutions to challenges facing its desire and ability to provide sustainable education to its people To that end the contributors are academics with an African vision attempting to come up with African home grown perspectives to fill the gap created by the lapse of the MDGs as the guiding vision and framework for educational provision in Africa and beyond The book seeks to articulate and address African issues from an informed as well as objective African perspective The book is also intended to provide insights to scholars who are interested in studying and understanding the nature of postcolonial education in the Sub Saharan African region Given the objectives and themes of this book it is intended for academic scholars undergraduate and graduate students human rights scholars curriculum developers college and university academics teachers education policy makers international organisations and local and international non governmental organisations that are interested in African education policies and programmes Rethinking Postcolonial Education in Sub Saharan Africa in the 21st Century provides contemporary reflections from multiple perspectives and re positions the issue of education at the forefront of the debates on African development Lamine Diallo Associate Professor Wilfrid Laurier University Canada The book is a welcome addition to discourses and analyses on education in sub Saharan Africa with reference to a postcolonial critique and the Millennium Development Goals framework on education in Africa Michael Tonderai Kariwo PhD Instructor and Research Fellow University of Alberta Canada

Knowledge for a Sustainable World Halvorsen, Tor, Ibsen, Hilde, 2015-12-07 The search for answers to the issue of global sustainability has become increasingly urgent In the context of higher education many universities and academics are seeking new insights that can shift our dependence on ways of living that rely on the exploitation of so many and the degradation of so much of our planet This is the vision that drives SANORD and many of the researchers and institutions within its network Although much of the research is on a relatively small scale the vision is steadily gaining momentum forging dynamic collaborations and pathways to new knowledge The contributors to this book cover a variety of subject areas and offer fresh insights about chronically under researched parts of the world Others document and critically reflect on innovative approaches to cross continental teaching and research collaborations This book will be of interest to anyone involved in the transformation of higher education or the practicalities of cross continental and cross disciplinary academic collaboration The Southern African Nordic Centre SANORD is a network of higher education institutions from Denmark Finland Iceland Norway Sweden Botswana Namibia Malawi South Africa Zambia and Zimbabwe Universities in the southern African and Nordic regions that are not yet members are encouraged to join

Slumming It

Fabian Frenzel, 2016-06-15 Have slums become cool More and more tourists from across the globe seem to think so as they discover favelas ghettos townships and barrios on leisurely visits But while slum tourism often evokes moral outrage critics rarely ask about what motivates this tourism or what wider consequences and effects it initiates In this provocative book Fabian Frenzel investigates the lure that slums exert on their better off visitors looking at the many ways in which this curious form of attraction ignites changes both in the slums themselves and on the world stage Covering slums in Rio de Janeiro Bangkok and multiple cities in South Africa Kenya and India Slumming It examines the roots and consequences of a growing phenomenon whose effects have ranged from gentrification and urban policy reform to the organization of international development and poverty alleviation Controversially Frenzel argues that the rise of slum tourism has drawn attention to important global justice issues and is far more complex than we initially acknowledged
