Transcultural Exchange through Art Kristina Dziedzic Wright, 2025-10-03 Transcultural Exchange through Art provides an exploration of two countries and their capital cities two regions and their growing cultural engagement with one another soft and hard power and their impact on the arts multiculturalism museums globalization cosmopolitanism and postcoloniality Drawing on the author's experiences of working in Kenya and living in South Korea as well as interviews with artists curators and other practitioners the book demonstrates that experiencing otherness through the imaginative engagement of art can cultivate appreciation of cultural diversity Various case studies from Nairobi and Seoul are analyzed to unpack narratives about nation self and other through the cultural and creative industries By focusing on two non Western regional capitals whose urban contemporary development is affected by their colonial pasts the book explores the larger dynamics of postcolonial nation building and the formulation of cultural identities in the face of rapid economic development and demographic changes The issues identified in the study are linked to wider debates concerning the role of the arts and art museums in relation to migration globalization and multiculturalism Transcultural Exchange through Art will be of great interest to academics and practitioners working in the cultural and creative industries museum and curatorial studies visual culture studies African studies and Asian studies The book transcends disciplinary boundaries and relates academic research to pragmatic issues such as diversity and inclusion in public cultural spaces Black Belt, 1980-11 The oldest and most respected martial arts title in the industry this popular monthly magazine addresses the needs of martial artists of all levels by providing them with information about every style of self defense in the world including techniques and strategies In addition Black Belt produces and markets over 75 martial arts oriented books and videos including many about the works of Bruce Lee the best known martial arts figure in the world Social Media in Southeast Italy Razvan Nicolescu, 2016-10-07 Why is social media in southeast Italy so predictable when it is used by such a range of different people This book describes the impact of social media on the population of a town in the southern region of Puglia Italy Razvan Nicolescu spent 15 months living among the town's residents exploring what it means to be an individual on social media Why do people from this region conform on platforms that are designed for personal expression Nicolescu argues that social media use in this region of the world is related to how people want to portray themselves He pays special attention to the ability of users to craft their appearance in relation to collective ideals values and social positions and how this feature of social media has for the residents of the town become a moral obligation they are expected to be willing to adapt their appearance to suit their different audiences at the same time which is crucial in a town where religion and family are at the heart of daily life The Korean Wave in a Post-Pandemic World Geon-Cheol Shin, Mark D.

Whitaker, 2023-11-02 This book presents an analysis of how the economic Korean Miracle spread into the cultural Korean Wave Hallyu First only in Asian countries and then around the world the rising popularity of the Korean Wave continued within the pandemic despite or even because of policies of digital lockdowns Partially this has been by design as Korea for decades has had a very strong fast development drive in telecommunications and that aided the growth of its cultural wave Partially however this became exclusively by default how the Korean Wave had to spread increasingly in a digital manner after 2020 globally in response to many countries rules regarding the COVID 19 pandemic in their attempts to enforce a decline in face to face content consumption In retrospect this has meant only more digital growth and innovation for the Korean Wave in past years compared to other cultures entertainment complexes that suffered more Korea's earlier digital readiness combined with later lockdown conditions and pushed the Korean Wave further ahead Despite the ending of COVID 19 lockdowns in many countries a greater digital aftermath will continue in the cultural industry and in the economy in general This is due to changes created in cultural preferences in organizational investments and in communication technologies due to those lockdowns Thus the authors examine how the Korean Wave coped actively with a pronounced digital shift by default in all aspects of media including production distribution and consumption In turn they examine how the greater digital shift in the world's culture and economy influenced the Korean Wave's entertainment performances TV dramas and cosmetics among other areas The authors analyze general trends in the Korean Wave's economics culture and technology along with specific strong cases of the K pop boy group BTS the cosmetics manufacturer Cosmax and the television series Squid Game Since the Korean Wave continues to grow in popularity within a more exclusive digital socialization future implications of such a competitive digital world economy and multi polar digital world culture are discussed for all countries as well

South Korea's Engagement with Africa Yongkyu Chang, 2019-12-11 This book represents the first scholarly attempt to summarize and analyze how Korea's relationship with Africa has been shaped in policy and non policy aspects It shows how far it has come and where it goes The book recognizes that Korea Africa relations though relatively new break ground by acknowledging the importance of a diligent endeavor to carry out post colonial development and have continued to grow as we find promising progress and opportunities in the mutual cooperation between the two This book is all inclusive covering Korea's academic economic diplomatic and civil engagements with Africa It investigates untold aspects of Korea Africa relations
