Jonny's spontaneous wit and free spirited genius In Memoriam Collectively this piece of work could only have come into being because of the people I have met places I have been and experiences lived through over the years So really it is the People to whom a debt of gratitude is owed Thankyou All Forest and Stream ,1906 The President's Report University of Michigan,1966 Cleveland Women's Journal ,1917 Episcopal Clerical Directory 2023 Church Publishing Incorporated,2023-09-19 A must have for every search Committee The Episcopal Clerical Directory is the biennial directory of all living clergy in good standing in the Episcopal Church more than 18 000 deacons priests and bishops It includes full biographical information and ministry history for each cleric Women in the War Zone Anne Powell,2001-08-26 In our collective memory the First World War is dominated by men The sailors soldiers airmen and politicians about whom histories are written were male and the first half of the twentieth century was still a time when a woman's place was thought to be in the home It was not until the Second World War that women would start to play a major role both in the armed forces and in the factories and the fields Yet there were some women who were able to contribute to the war effort between 1914 and 1918 mostly as doctors and nurses In Women in the War Zone Anne Powell has selected extracts from first hand accounts of the experiences of those female medical personnel who served abroad during the First World War Covering both the Western and the Eastern Fronts from Petrograd to Basra and from Antwerp to the Dardanelles they include nursing casualties from the Battle of Ypres a young doctor put in charge of a remote hospital in Serbia and a nurse who survived a torpedo attack albeit with serious injuries Filled with stories of bravery and kindness it is a book that honours the often unsung contribution made by the female doctors and nurses who helped to alleviate some of the suffering of the First World War

Clinical Studies, Big Data, and Artificial Intelligence in Nephrology and Transplantation Wisit Cheungpasitporn, Wisit Kaewput,2021-09-02 In recent years artificial intelligence has increasingly been playing an essential role in diverse areas in medicine assisting clinicians in patient management In nephrology and transplantation artificial intelligence can be utilized to enhance clinical care such as through hemodialysis prescriptions and the follow up of kidney transplant patients Furthermore there are rapidly expanding applications and validations of comprehensive computerized medical records and related databases including national registries health insurance and drug prescriptions For this Special Issue we made a call to action to stimulate researchers and clinicians to submit their invaluable works and present here a collection of articles covering original clinical research single or multi center database studies from registries meta analyses and artificial intelligence research in nephrology including acute kidney injury electrolytes and acid base chronic kidney disease glomerular disease dialysis and transplantation that will provide additional knowledge and skills in the field of nephrology and transplantation toward improving patient outcomes In a New Light Abigail Harrison Moore,R.W. Sandwell,2021-07-15 In the early 1970s a German study estimated that women expended as many calories cleaning their coal mining husbands work clothes as their husbands did working below ground arguably making the home as much a site of industrialized work as factories and mines But while energy studies are beginning to acknowledge the importance of social and historical contexts and to produce more inclusive histories of the unprecedented energy transitions that powered industrialization women have remained notably absent from these accounts In a New Light explores the vital place of women in the shift to fossil fuels that spurred the Industrial Revolution illuminating the variety of ways in which gender and energy intersected in women s lives in nineteenth and twentieth century Europe and North America From their labour in the home where they managed the adoption of new energy sources to their work as educators in electrical housecraft and their protests against the effects of industrialization women took on active roles to influence energy decisions Together these essays deepen our understanding of the significance of gender in the history of energy and of energy transitions in the history of women and gender By foregrounding women s energetic labours and concerns the authors shed new light on energy use in the past and provide important insights as societies move towards a carbon neutral future Unusual
