A Prophet of the People Lauren V. Jarvis, 2024-03-01 In 1910 Isaiah Shembe was struggling He had left his family and quit his job as a sanitation worker to become a Baptist evangelist but he ended his first mission without much to show Little did he know that he would soon establish the Nazareth Church as he began to attract attention from people left behind by industrial capitalism in South Africa By his death in 1935 Shembe was an internationally known prophet and healer described by his peers as better off than all the Black people In A Prophet of the People Isaiah Shembe and the Making of a South African Church historian Lauren V Jarvis provides a fascinating and intimate portrait of one of South Africa s most famous religious figures and in turn the making of modern South Africa Following Shembe from his birth in the 1860s across many environments and contexts Jarvis illuminates the tight links between the spread of Christianity strategies of evasion and the capacious forms of community that continue to shape South Africa today

Lobola (Bridewealth) in Contemporary Southern Africa Lovemore Togarasei,Ezra Chitando,2021-02-03 This volume explores the multiple meanings and implications of lobola in Southern Africa The payment of lobola often controversially translated as bridewealth is an entrenched practice in most societies in Southern Africa Although having a long tradition of late there have been voices questioning its relevance in contemporary times while others vehemently defend the practice This book brings together a range of scholars from different academic disciplines national contexts institutions genders and ethnic backgrounds to debate the relevance of lobola in contemporary southern African communities for gender equality

Generation, Gender and Negotiating Custom in South Africa Elena Moore,2022-06-16 This book investigates how customary practices in South Africa have led to negotiation and contestation over human rights gender and generational power Drawing on a range of original empirical studies this book provides important new insights into the realities of regulating personal relationships in complex social fields in which customary practices are negotiated This book not only adds to a fuller understanding of how customary practices are experienced in contemporary South Africa but it also contributes to a large discussion about the experiences impact and ongoing negotiations around changing structures of gender and generational power and rights in contemporary South Africa It will be of interest to researchers across the fields of sociology family customary law gender social policy and African Studies

Exploring Peace Formation Kwesi Aning,M Anne Brown,Volker Boege,Charles T Hunt,2018-04-17 This volume examines the dynamics of socio political order in post colonial states across the Pacific Islands region and West Africa in order to elaborate on the processes and practices of peace formation Drawing on field research and engaging with post liberal conceptualisations of peacebuilding this book investigates the interaction of a variety of actors and institutions involved in the provision of peace security and justice in post colonial states The chapters analyse how different types of actors and institutions involved in peace formation engage in and are interpenetrated by a host of relations in the local arena making the local contested ground on which different discourses and praxes of peace security and justice coexist and overlap In the course of interactions new and different forms of socio political order emerge which are far from being captured through the familiar notions of a liberal peace and a Weberian ideal type state Rather this volume investigates how dis order emerges as a result of interdependence among agents thus laying open the fundamentally relational character of peace formation This innovative relational liminal and integrative understanding of peace formation has far reaching consequences for internationally supported peacebuilding This book will be of much interest to students of statebuilding peace studies security studies governance development and IR The Nightwatchman Hlonipha Mokoena, 2025-08 The Nightwatchman Essays on Portraiture and the Black Male Figure in Colonial South Africa brings into focus the African policeman as a subject of portraiture While colonial governments co opted and conscripted Africans into military and policing services it was after the Zulu defeat of the English in the battle of Isandlwana that a genre of photography developed around images of the Zulu warrior and Zulu policeman In this illustrated book Hlonipha Mokoena extends the literature on colonial ethnographic photography by creating a narrative of nightwatchman portraiture from the rich archive of images Although the origins of this genre lay in the representation of Fingoes amaMfengu during the frontier wars she argues that an ethnological spectacle of the Zulu male body was inaugurated after the last Zulu king Cetshwayo was photographed as a posing subject While much research has focussed on the African man employed in emasculating labour or as a functionary of settler power this book shifts debates about how the body moves in history Placed in uniform the male subject becomes aestheticised and admired Mokoena focuses less on the idiosyncrasies of the uniform than on the sartorial selection processes and co optation of colonial aesthetic culture that constructed the idea of the Nonqgqayi or nightwatchman as a fully formed photographic presence The beauty captured in these images upends conceptions of colonial photography as a tool of oppression In its focus on the figure of the black and brown fighting man The Nightwatchman offers an innovative work on the history of portraiture and dress in colonial South Africa Incorporating insights from African history art history anthropology and critical theory it offers new insights about the use of men of colour in colonial warfare and new avenues for the interpretation of visual representations of the black male figure Battle Story: Isandlwana 1879

Edmund Yorke, 2011-09-30 On 22 January 1879 a 20 000 strong Zulu army attacked 1 700 British and colonial forces The engagement saw primitive weapons of spears and shields clashing with the latest military technology However despite being poorly equipped the numerically superior Zulu force crushed the British troops killing 1 300 men whilst only losing 1 000 of their own warriors It was a humiliating defeat for the British Army who had been poorly trained and who had underestimated their enemy The defeat ensured that the British had a renewed respect for their opponents and changed their tactics rather than fighting in a straight linear formation known as the Thin Red Line they adopted an entrenched system or close order foundations The defeat caused much consternation throughout the British Empire who had assumed that the Zulu were no match for the British Army and thus the army was greatly reinforced and went on to victory at Rorke s Drift Battle Story Isandlwana puts you at the forefront of the action 2024-25 TGT/PGT/DSSSB Science Physics, Chemistry & Biology Solved Papers YCT Expert Team , 2024 25 TGT PGT DSSSB Science Physics Chemistry Biology Solved Papers 576 1095 E This book covers TGT PGT DSSSB NVS KVS chapter wise solved papers 78 sets and 8210 objective questions Fighting Global Neo-Extractivism Jasper Finkeldey, 2022-08-02 Fighting Global Neo Extractivism Fossil Free Social Movements in South Africa analyzes social struggles over damaging new fossil fuel projects in the Global South with a focus on South Africa Africa

s biggest fossil fuel emitter Fossil fuel extraction in South Africa has reached a new accelerated phase in which the fossil fuel frontier is moving beyond historical sacrifice zones into non traditional spaces such as conservation parks and middle class neighbourhoods and provoking fervent opposition from grassroots activists This book examines campaigns such as Frack Free South Africa and Save our iMfolozi Wilderness viewing them as struggles against neo extractivism driven by the state and industry Through a series of detailed case studies it highlights the shaping of mobilisation patterns by prior land use practices and the capacity to mobilize different social groups across race and class Developing the notion of the fossil fuel frontier as the material and political boundary that activists in South Africa and elsewhere in the world render visible this volume provides a theoretical framework to understanding global mobilization patterns This timely and impassioned book will appeal to students and researchers interested in a range of subjects including environmentalism social movements political ecology and development studies

A History of Genocide in Africa Timothy J. Stapleton, 2017-04-17 Based on a series of detailed case studies this book presents the history of genocide in Africa within the specific context of African history examining conflicts in countries such as Burundi Democratic Republic of Congo Namibia Rwanda and Sudan Why has Africa been the subject of so many accusations related to genocide Indeed the number of such allegations related to Africa has increased dramatically over the past 15 years Popular racist mythology might suggest that Africans belong to tribes that are inherently antagonistic towards each other and therefore engage in tribal warfare which cannot be rationally explained This concept is wrong as Timothy J Stapleton explains in A History of Genocide in Africa the many conflicts that have plagued post colonial Africa have had very logical explanations and very few of these instances of African warring can be said to have resulted in genocide Authored by an expert historian of Africa this book examines the history of six African countries Namibia Rwanda Burundi Democratic Republic of Congo Sudan and Nigeria in which the language of genocide has been mobilized to describe episodes of tragic mass violence It seeks to place genocide within the context of African history acknowledging the few instances where the international legal term genocide has been applied appropriately to episodes of mass violence in African history and identifying the many other cases where it has not and instead the term has been used in a cynical manipulation to gain some political advantage Readers will come to understand how to a large extent genocide accusations related to post colonial Africa have often served to prolong wars and cause greater loss of life The book also clarifies how in areas of Africa where genocides have actually occurred there appears to have been a common history of the imposition of racial ideologies and hierarchies during the colonial era which when combined with other factors such as the local geography demography religion and or economics resulted in tragic and appalling outcomes

Right Peripheral Fragments Javier Fernández-Sánchez, 2020-02-15 In recent years a number of authors De Vries 2009 Truckenbrodt 2015 Ott and de Vries 2016 inter alia have defended that right dislocations RD should be treated as bisentential structures where the dislocated constituent is actually a remnant of a clausal ellipsis operation licensed under identity with an antecedent clause Although Romance RD is a fertile area of research the consequences of the biclausal analysis remain unexplored in these languages This monograph intends to fill this gap Adopting this approach not only solves some issues that have always been at the core of dislocation structures in general it also allows us to uncover novel sets of data and to provide straightforward explanations for well known generalizations Further it brings RD along with a set of phenomena which are structurally very similar like afterthoughts or split questions which have been independently argued to display a bisentential structure Under alternative monoclausal approaches to RD the striking similarities between these phenomena must be rendered anecdotal
