Veltmeyer,J. Petras,S. Vieux,2016-07-27 The 1980s in Latin America saw the implementation of a sweeping programme of economic reforms either imposed as a condition for securing new loans or to embrace the neoliberal doctrine of structural adjustment the ideology of a newly formed transnational capitalist class However the structural adjustment programme also generated widespread resistance especially from within the popular sector of civil society This book analyses both the politics of the adjustment process and the political dynamics of this resistance in Latin America      The School Journal ,1906      New York School Journal ,1905      Work, Social Status, and Gender in Post-Slavery Mauritania Katherine A. Wiley,2018-09-10 Although slavery was legally abolished in 1981 in Mauritania its legacy lives on in the political economic and social discrimination against ex slaves and their descendants Katherine Ann Wiley examines the shifting roles of Muslim ar n ex slaves and their descendants women who provide financial support for their families Wiley uses economic activity as a lens to examine what makes suitable work for women their trade practices and how they understand and assert their social positions social worth and personal value in their everyday lives She finds that while genealogy and social hierarchy contributed to status in the past women today believe that attributes such as wealth respect and distance from slavery help to establish social capital Wiley shows how the legacy of slavery continues to constrain some women even while many of them draw on neoliberal values to connect through kinship friendship and professional associations This powerful ethnography challenges stereotypical views of Muslim women and demonstrates how they work together to navigate social inequality and bring about social change      St. Louis Daily Market Reporter and Merchants Exchange Price Current ,1919      American Lumberman ,1929      Church Helper ,1894      Hides and Leather in France United States.
