2015 Daily Journal Planner Eric:

2015 Daily Journal and Planner - ERIC LightSide LightSide,2014-10-22 As functional as it is unique our 2015 Daily Journal Planner is a powerful tool ready and able to help you manage and accomplish the many tasks and responsibilities of your daily life This generously sized book is personalized and contains dated entries for each day of 2015 allowing 15 lines of space for writing each day two days per page Full page calendars for both 2015 and 2016 are provided for viewing the years at a glance Full page calendars are also included for each of the twelve months in 2015 with space for writing your own special dates For each month a page for goals financial matters and notes is provided making it your life s organizer Perfect for use as a journal or daily planner for tracking goals work hours vehicle mileage tasks purchases diet weight loss or any of the other things that fill each of your days 218 pages 8 5 x 11      Land Bargains and Chinese Capitalism Meg E.

Rithmire,2015-10-06 Land reforms have been critical to the development of Chinese capitalism over the last several decades yet land in China remains publicly owned This book explores the political logic of reforms to land ownership and control accounting for how land development and real estate have become synonymous with economic growth and prosperity in China Drawing on extensive fieldwork and archival research the book tracks land reforms and urban development at the national level and in three cities in a single Chinese region The study reveals that the initial liberalization of land was reversed after China s first contemporary real estate bubble in the early 1990s and that property rights arrangements at the local level varied widely according to different local strategies for economic prosperity and political stability In particular the author links fiscal relations and economic bases to property rights regimes finding that more open cities are subject to greater state control over land      The Qualified Self Lee Humphreys,2018-04-13 How sharing the mundane details of daily life did not start with Facebook Twitter and YouTube but with pocket diaries photo albums and baby books Social critiques argue that social media have made us narcissistic that Facebook Twitter Instagram and YouTube are all vehicles for me promotion In The Qualified Self Lee Humphreys offers a different view She shows that sharing the mundane details of our lives what we ate for lunch where we went on vacation who dropped in for a visit didn t begin with mobile devices and social media People have used media to catalog and share their lives for several centuries Pocket diaries photo albums and baby books are the predigital precursors of today s digital and mobile platforms for posting text and images The ability to take selfies has not turned us into needy narcissists it s part of a longer story about how people account for everyday life Humphreys refers to diaries in which eighteenth century daily life is documented with the brevity and precision of a tweet and cites a nineteenth century travel diary in which a young woman complains that her breakfast didn t agree with her Diaries Humphreys explains were often written to be shared with family and friends Pocket diaries were as mobile as smartphones allowing the diarist to record life in real time Humphreys calls this chronicling in both digital and nondigital forms media accounting The sense of self that emerges from media accounting is not the purely statistics driven quantified self but the more well rounded qualified self We come to understand ourselves in a new way through the representations of ourselves that we create to be consumed

Accommodating the Republic Kirsten E. Wood, 2023-11-08 People have gathered in public drinking places to drink relax socialize and do business for hundreds of years For just as long critics have described taverns and similar drinking establishments as sources of individual ruin and public disorder Examining these dynamics as Americans surged westward in the early nineteenth century Kirsten E Wood argues that entrepreneurial improvement minded men integrated many village and town taverns into the nation s rapidly developing transportation network and used tavern spaces and networks to raise capital promote innovative businesses practice genteel sociability and rally support for favored causes often while drinking the staggering amounts of alcohol for which the period is justly famous White men s unrivaled freedom to use taverns for their own pursuits of happiness gave everyday significance to citizenship in the early republic Yet white men did not have taverns to themselves Sharing tavern spaces with other Americans intensified white men s struggles to define what and for whom taverns should be At the same time temperance and other reform movements increasingly divided white men along lines of party conscience and class In both conflicts some improvement minded white men found common cause with middle class white women and Black activists who had their own stake in rethinking taverns and citizenship

The Living Environmental Education Wei-Ta Fang, Arba'at Hassan, Ben A. LePage, 2022-09-29 This open access book is designed and written to bridge the gap on the critical issues identified in environmental education programs in Asian countries The world and its environments are changing rapidly and the public may have difficulty keeping up and understanding how these changes will affect our way of life The authors discuss various topics and case studies from an Asian perspective but the content messaging and lessons learned need not be limited to Asian cultures Each chapter provides a summary of the intensive research that has been performed on pro environmental behaviors the experience of people working in industry and at home and their philosophies that guide them in their daily lives We highlight humanity s potential to contribute to Sustainable Development Goals SDGs by understanding better the environmental psychology social inclusion and environmental sustainability and stewardship protection elements that contribute to responsible environmental citizenship The content of the chapters in this book includes a discussion of the crucial issues plans and evaluations for sustainability theories practices and actions with a proposed management structure for maximizing the cultural social and ecological diversity of Asian experiences compared to other theories and cultures internationally We intend that the data in this book will provide a comprehensive guide for students professors practitioners and entrepreneurs of environmental education and its related disciplines using case studies that demonstrate the relationship between the social and behavioral sciences and environmental leadership and sustainability

One Giant Leap Charles Fishman, 2020-09-22 The New York Times bestselling meticulously researched and absorbingly written The Washington Post story of the trailblazers and the ordinary Americans on the front lines of the epic Apollo 11 moon mission

President John F Kennedy astonished the world on May 25 1961 when he announced to Congress that the United States should land a man on the Moon by 1970 No group was more surprised than the scientists and engineers at NASA who suddenly had less than a decade to invent space travel When Kennedy announced that goal no one knew how to navigate to the Moon No one knew how to build a rocket big enough to reach the Moon or how to build a computer small enough and powerful enough to fly a spaceship there No one knew what the surface of the Moon was like or what astronauts could eat as they flew there On the day of Kennedy's historic speech America had a total of fifteen minutes of spaceflight experience with just five of those minutes outside the atmosphere Russian dogs had more time in space than US astronauts Over the next decade more than 400 000 scientists engineers and factory workers would send twenty four astronauts to the Moon Each hour of space flight would require one million hours of work back on Earth to get America to the Moon on July 20 1969 A veteran space reporter with a vibrant touch nearly every sentence has a fact an insight a colorful quote or part of a piquant anecdote The Wall Street Journal and in One Giant Leap Fishman has written the sweeping definitive behind the scenes account of the furious race to complete one of mankind's greatest achievements It's a story filled with surprises from the item the astronauts almost forgot to take with them the American flag to the extraordinary impact Apollo would have back on Earth and on the way we live today From the research labs of MIT where the eccentric and legendary pioneer Charles Draper created the tools to fly the Apollo spaceships to the factories where dozens of women sewed spacesuits parachutes and even computer hardware by hand Fishman captures the exceptional feats of these ordinary Americans It's been 50 years since Neil Armstrong took that one small step Fishman explains in dazzling form just how unbelievable it actually was Newsweek

Space Ethics Brian Patrick Green, 2021-10-19 Throughout history humans have explored new places making both good and bad moral decisions along the way As humanity proceeds to explore space it is important that we learn from the successes and not repeat the mistakes of the past This book provides the first comprehensive introduction to ethics as it applies to space exploration and use It examines real world case studies that exemplify the ethical challenges we face in exploring beyond Earth space debris militarization in space hazardous asteroids planetary protection the search for extraterrestrial life commercial and private sector activities in space space settlements very long duration missions and planetary scale interventions Major themes include human health environmental concerns safety and risk governance and decision making and opportunities and challenges of multidisciplinary and international contexts Ideal for classroom use and beyond the book provides ways of thinking that will help students academics and policymakers examine the full range of ethical decisions on questions related to space exploration

Education in Contemporary Society Richard M Gargiulo, Richard M. Gargiulo - Professor Emeritus, Emily C.

Bouck, 2024-12-17 Special Education in Contemporary Society An Introduction to Exceptionality offers a comprehensive engaging and readable introduction to the dynamic field of special education Grounded in the latest research it reflects current educational standards and equips students with the knowledge skills attitudes and beliefs needed to create inclusive learning environments that empower all students to reach their full potential Authors Richard M Gargiulo and Emily C Bouck encourage a deep awareness and understanding of the human side of special education offering insightful perspectives into the lives of exceptional students their families and the dedicated teachers who support them The Eighth Edition of this text has been updated with new information on specific disabilities and challenges issues of diversity and equity within special education and the latest statistics and research that are a hallmark of this book      Tours Inside the Snow Globe Tonya K.

Davidson, 2024-05-16 The toppling of monuments globally in the last few years has highlighted the potency of monuments as dynamic and affectively loaded participants in society In the context of Ottawa Canada s capital city monuments inspire colonial and imperial nostalgia compelling visitors to consistently re imagine Canada as a white Anglophone nation built through the labour of white men politicians soldiers and businessmen At the same time Ottawa monuments allow for dominant affective relationships to the nation to be challenged demonstrated through subtle and explicit forms of defacement and other interactions that compel us to remember colonial violence pacifism violence against women and racism Organized as a series of walking tours throughout Ottawa the chapters in Tours Inside the Snow Globe demonstrate the affective capacities of monuments and highlight how these monuments have ongoing relationships with their sites the city other monuments and local deliberate national and casual communities of users The tours focus on the lives of a monument to an unnamed Indigenous scout the National War Memorial Enclave the Ottawa Women s Monument and the Canadian Tribute to Human Rights Two of the tours offer analyses of the ambivalent representations of women and Indigeneity in Ottawa s statue landscape      Labor's End Jason Resnikoff, 2022-01-18 Labor s End traces the discourse around automation from its origins in the factory to its wide ranging implications in political and social life As Jason Resnikoff shows the term automation expressed the conviction that industrial progress meant the inevitable abolition of manual labor from industry But the real substance of the term reflected industry s desire to hide an intensification of human work and labor s loss of power and protection behind magnificent machinery and a starry eyed faith in technological revolution The rhetorical power of the automation ideology revealed and perpetuated a belief that the idea of freedom was incompatible with the activity of work

From there political actors ruled out the workplace as a site of politics while some of labor's staunchest allies dismissed sped up tasks expanded workloads and incipient deindustrialization in the name of technological progress A forceful intellectual history Labor's End challenges entrenched assumptions about automation's transformation of the American workplace

Participatory Design & Health Information Technology A.M. Kanstrup,A. Bygholm,P. Bertelsen,2017-02 Health Information Technology HIT continues to increase in importance as a component of healthcare provision but designing HIT is complex The creation of cooperative learning processes for future HIT users is not a simple task The importance of engaging end users such as health professionals patients and relatives in the design process is widely acknowledged and Participatory Design PD is the primary discipline for directly involving people in the technological design process Exploring the application of PD in HIT is crucial to all those involved in engaging end users in HIT design and in collaboration with a wide range of people a broad repertoire of methods and techniques to apply PD within multiple domains has been established This book Participatory Design participatory reflections participatory business and participatory inspiration The book will be of interest to researchers students health professionals IT designers and managers who work with or are interested in supporting participation in the design of HIT

Constructivism Reconsidered in the Age of Social Media Jeff Ershler,Chris Stabile,2015-12-16 No longer relegated to just the classroom learning has become universal through the use of social media Social media embodies constructivism itself as the users engage in the development of their own meaning And constructivism is relevant to education and learning theory and technological advance can be better understood in the light of one another This volume explores particular areas influenced by constructivist thinking and social media such as student learning faculty development and pedagogical practices practical and useful ways to engage in social media and dialogue and discussions regarding the nature of learning in relation to the technology that has changed how both faculty and students experience their educational landscape This is the 144th volume of this Jossey Bass higher education series It offers a comprehensive range of ideas and techniques for improving college teaching based on the experience of seasoned instructors and the latest findings of educational and psychological researchers

El Prácticum, factor de calidad en la formación del profesorado de Secundaria y Bachillerato Ana Rodríguez Marcos,Rosa María Esteban Moreno,2020-04-01 La obra El Prácticum factor de calidad en la formación del profesorado de Secundaria y Bachillerato Teoría y práctica es fruto del trabajo de investigación llevado a cabo por un equipo interdisciplinar de la Universidad Autónoma de Madrid en el Máster de Formación de Profesorado y Educación MESOB Pretende contribuir al corpus de conocimiento sobre el Prácticum y servir de ayuda a los tutores de la universidad y de los centros de prácticas tanto desde la perspectiva de la reflexión teórica como en la aplicación práctica En este momento cuando se está debatiendo sobre la formación del profesorado de Enseñanza Secundaria Obligatoria y Bachillerato pensamos que este libro también puede resultarles útil a los tutores en el caso de que el actual plan de estudios sea reemplazado por un modelo de formación de profesor residente MIR docente
