2016 Passenger Car and 2015

Concept Car Yearbook Automotive Engineering International, 2015-12-15 Carmakers release new models every year with advanced technology to attract consumer interest and to satisfy increasingly stringent government regulations. Some of these technologies are firsts or leading edge and they start trends that more companies will soon follow. Snapshots of the direction of the automotive industry along with OEM and supplier perspectives are presented in these articles that have been collected by the Editors of Automotive Engineering whose aim is to provide the reader with a complete overview of the key advances that took place over the course of one model year. Provides a single source for information on the key engineering trends of one year. Allows the reader to skip to chapters that cover specific car models that interest them or read about all models from beginning to end. Includes plenty of big full color images and the facts about the most recent technology and engineering innovations. Each car manufacturer has its own chapter exploring new models in depth. The yearly trends and innovations that make the automotive industry fascinating to both the engineer and the customer are all captured in the imagery and easy reading of this full color book.

Autonomous Vehicle Technology James M. Anderson, Kalra Nidhi, Karlyn D. Stanley, Paul Sorensen, Constantine Samaras, Oluwatobi A. Oluwatola, 2014-01-10 The automotive industry appears close to substantial change engendered by self driving technologies. This technology offers the possibility of significant benefits to social welfare saving lives reducing crashes congestion fuel consumption and pollution increasing mobility for the disabled and ultimately improving land use. This report is intended as a guide for state and federal policymakers on the many issues that this technology raises.

media e.g. Twitter sensors, drones, wearables, smartphone apps and computing infrastructure e.g. cloud computing. These developments have captured the enthusiasm of the public while inevitably presenting unprecedented challenges and opportunities for the geographic research community. When meeting the smart challenges are there emerging theories, methods and observations that reveal new spatial phenomena, produce new knowledge and foster new policies? Smart Spaces and Places addresses questions such as how to make spaces and places smart, how the smartness affects the way we think spaces and places and what role geographies play in knowledge production and decision making in a smart era. The collection of 21 chapters offers stimulating discussion over the meaning of spaces, places and smartness, scientific insights into smartness, social, political views of smartness and policy implications of smartness. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Annals of the American Association of Geographers.

Emotions and Affect in Human Factors and Human-Computer Interaction Myounghoon Jeon, 2017-04-05. Emotions and Affect in Human Factors and Human Computer Interaction is a complete guide for conducting affect-related research and design projects in HFI and HCI domains. Introducing necessary concepts, methods, approaches and applications, the book highlights how critical emotions and affect are to everyday life and interaction with cognitive artifacts. The text covers the basis of neural mechanisms of affective phenomena as well as representative approaches to Affective Computing, Kansei Engineering, Hedonomics and Emotional Design. The methodologies section includes affect induction techniques, measurement techniques, detection and recognition techniques and regulation models and strategies. The application chapters discuss various HFI and HCI domains: product design, human-robot interaction, behavioral health and game design and transportation. Engineers and designers can learn and apply psychological theories and mechanisms to account for their affect-related research and can develop their own domain-specific theory. The approach outlined in this handbook works to close the existing gap between the traditional affect research and the emerging field of affective design and affective computing. Provides a theoretical background of affective sciences. Demonstrates diverse affect induction methods in actual research settings. Describes sensing technologies such as brain-computer interfaces, facial expression detection and more. Covers emotion modeling and its application to regulation processes. Includes case studies and applied examples in a variety of HFI and HCI application areas. Addresses emerging interdisciplinary areas including Positive Technology, Subliminal Perception, Physiological Computing and Aesthetic Computing.

Advanced Methodologies and Technologies in Engineering and Environmental Science Khosrow-Pour, D.B.A., Mehdi, 2018-09-07. The ever-increasing awareness and growing focus on environmental issues such as climate change and energy use is bringing about an urgency in expanding research to provide possible solutions to these problems. Through current engineering research and emerging technologies, scientists work to combat modern environmental and ecological problems plaguing the globe. Advanced Methodologies and Technologies in Engineering and Environmental Science provides emerging research on the current and forthcoming trends in engineering and environmental sciences to resolve several issues plaguing researchers such as fossil fuel emission and climate change While highlighting these challenges including chemical toxicity environmental responsibility readers will learn how engineering applications can be used across disciplines to aid in reducing environmental hazards This book is a vital resource for engineers researchers professors academicians and environmental scientists seeking current research on how engineering tools and technologies can be applied to environmental issues

Digital Healthcare and Expertise Claudia Egger, 2022-12-02 This open access book explores how expertise about bipolar disorder is performed on American and French digital platforms by combining insights from STS medical sociology and media studies It addresses topical questions including How do different stakeholders engage with online technologies to perform expertise about bipolar disorder How does the use of the internet for processes of knowledge evaluation and production allow for people diagnosed with bipolar disorder to reposition themselves in relation to medical professionals How do cultural markers shape the online performance of expertise about bipolar disorder And what individualizing or collectivity generating effects does the internet have in relation to the performance of expertise The book constitutes a critical and nuanced intervention into dominant discourses which approach the internet either as a quick technological fix or as a postmodern version of Pandora's box sowing distrust among people and threatening unified conceptualizations and organized forms of knowledge

The 2015 Regional Forecast and Urban Development Patterns Sonny Conder, 1964 Reckoning with Social Media Aleena Chia, Ana Jorge, Tero Karppi, 2021-11-04 Once celebrated for connecting people and circulating ideas social media are facing mounting criticisms about their anticompetitive reach addictive design and toxicity to democracy Known cumulatively as the techlash journalists users and politicians are asking social media platforms to account for being too big too engaging and too unruly In the age of the techlash strategies to regulate how platforms operate technically economically and legally are often stacked against individual tactics to manage the effects of social media by disconnecting from them These disconnection practices from restricting screen time and detoxing from device use to deleting apps and accounts often reinforce rather than confront the ways social media organize attention everyday life and society Reckoning with Social Media challenges the prevailing critique of social media that pits small gestures against big changes that either celebrates personal transformation or champions structural reformation This edited volume reframes evaluative claims about disconnection practices as either restorative or reformative of current social media systems by beginning where other studies conclude the ambivalence commodification and complicity of separating from social media
