Living Politics in the City

Marion Hohlfeldt ,Carmen Popescu, 2023-03-15 Public space and performativity from the perspective of architecture In recent decades architecture has been seen as a field of practice that contributes greatly to the performativity of public space In spite of the explosion of virtual communities through social media and the limitations imposed by pandemics architecture today still holds an active role in literally building our societies Bearing in mind its acute politicisation in past years Living Politics in the City looks at public space from the perspective of architecture and its effective contribution not as a prop but as an actual catalyst for embodying politics The essays gathered here span five continents activating various disciplinary approaches to architecture and examining it in different contexts from a Palestinian refugee camp to the most vibrant urban axis in Sao Paolo from the numerous city squares around the world crowded with rebellious populations to the proximal politics of housing in Australia Contributors Endriana Audisho
