2015 Courses Intake In Kenya:

The Status of Student Involvement in University Governance in Kenya Mulinge, Munyae M., Arasa, Josephine N., 2017-05-05 This book examines the concept of the democratization of governance in universities in Kenya with particular emphasis on students involvement in governance processes and decision making Data were collected from members of the student community utilizing a structured self administered questionnaire and from purposively selected key informants and focus group discussants drawn from Kenyatta University representing the public sector and the United States International University representing the private sector The guiding argument for the study was that shared governance one of the principles of good governance is critical in enabling the universities to deliver their visions and the missions effectively The results revealed that while in principle Kenyan universities have embraced democratic governance in which all stakeholders including students have a role to play in practice they continue to violate the core principles of good governance particularly shared governance Specifically students who are major stakeholders in university education are largely excluded from significant structures of governance thereby limiting their influence and participation Although their representation is mainly provided via student self governance organs unions associations and or councils their effectiveness is undermined considerably by the lack of trust and confidence of the student body and the unending manipulation by top university administrators and external political actors Student active involvement in decision making is mainly confined to lower levels such as the school faculty and departmental programme The authors call for a paradigm shift in the involvement of students in the governance of universities in ways that discourage the current culture of tokenism and political correctness that characterizes public and private universities in Kenya

Facing Forward Sajitha Bashir, Marlaine Lockheed, Elizabeth Ninan, Jee-Peng Tan, 2018-09-20 Facing Forward lays out a range of policy and implementation actions that are needed for countries in Sub Saharan Africa to meet the challenge of improving learning while expanding access and completion of basic education for all The book underscores the importance of aligning the education system to be relentlessly focused on learning outcomes and to ensuring that all children have access to good schools good learning materials and good teachers It is unique in characterizing countries according to the challenges they faced in the 1990s and the educational progress they have made over the past 25 years allowing countries in the region to learn from each other The authors review the global literature and add to it by their extensive new analyses of multiple datasets from more than three dozen countries in the region they integrate findings about what affects children s learning their access to schooling and progress through basic education The book draws lessons from the region and for the region about what works and what is needed to better implement what is known to have worked The book examines four areas to help countries better align their systems to improve learning 1 completing the unfinished agenda of reaching universal basic education with quality 2 ensuring effective management and support of teachers 3 targeting spending priorities and budget processes on improving quality and 4

closing the institutional capacity gap It concludes with an assessment of how future educational progress may be affected by projected fertility rates and economic growth overweight and obesity as well as anaemia in women and child stunting and wasting Nutrition-sensitive agriculture Ruel, Marie T., Quisumbing, Agnes R., Balagamwala, Mysbah, 2017-10-27 A growing number of governments donor agencies and development organizations are committed to supporting nutrition sensitive agriculture NSA to achieve their development goals Although consensus exists on pathways through which agriculture may influence nutrition related outcomes empirical evidence on agriculture s contribution to nutrition and how it can be enhanced is still weak This paper reviews recent empirical evidence since 2014 including findings from impact evaluations of a variety of NSA programs using experimental designs as well as observational studies that document linkages between agriculture women s empowerment and nutrition It summarizes existing knowledge regarding not only impacts but also pathways mechanisms and contextual factors that affect where and how agriculture may improve nutrition outcomes The paper concludes with reflections on implications for agricultural programs policies and investments and highlights future research priorities New Challenges and Future Perspectives in Nutrition and Sustainable Diets in Africa Hettie Carina Schönfeldt, Gloria Essilfie, Yunyun Gong, 2024-05-06 Africa is confronted with the triple burden of malnutrition it is also faced with the triple challenges of poverty inequality and unemployment In many African countries large proportions of the population rely on agriculture not only for their food but also for their livelihoods A transformed agricultural and food system is thus a necessary condition for addressing this double triple challenge Additionally post harvest and food waste and losses reduce the availability of sufficient quantities of safe edible and preferable foods At least one third of food produced at farm level is lost due to inappropriate storage infrastructure and agro processing technologies in developing countries and one third of food purchased is wasted at household and retail level Nutrition and Chronic Conditions Omorogieva Ojo, 2019-02-04 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Nutrition and Chronic Conditions that was published in Nutrients Accountability in education: meeting our commitments UNESCO, 2017-10-30 The second edition of the Global Education Monitoring Report GEM Report presents the latest evidence on global progress towards the education targets of the UN Sustainable Development Goals With hundreds of millions of people still not going to school and many not achieving minimum skills at school it is clear education systems are off track to achieve global goals The marginalized currently bear the most consequences but also stand to benefit the most if policy makers pay sufficient attention to their needs Faced with these challenges along with tight budgets and increased emphasis on results oriented value for money countries are searching for solutions Increased accountability often tops the list The 2017 8 GEM Report shows the entire array of approaches to accountability in education It ranges from countries unused to the concept where violations of the right to education go unchallenged to countries where accountability has become an end in itself instead of a means to inclusive equitable and high quality education and lifelong learning for all The report emphasizes that education is a shared responsibility While governments have primary responsibility all actors schools teachers parents students international organizations private sector providers civil society and the media 0 3 have a role in improving education systems The report emphasized the importance of transparency and availability of information but urges caution in how data are used It makes the case for avoiding accountability systems with a disproportionate focus on narrowly defined results and punitive sanctions In an era of multiple accountability tools the report provides clear evidence on those that are working and those that are not Back cover

The Report: Kenya 2017, As the largest economy in the EAC and COMESA in terms of GDP Kenya has positioned itself as a major economic power in sub Saharan Africa Traditionally a largely agrarian economy Kenya has quickly entrenched its position as a manufacturing logistics and technology hub in the region and this diversification forms a solid platform from which the government can generate economic growth over the coming years The resolution of the electoral process improving business confidence and strong private consumption are likely to support GDP expansion over 2018 and into 2019 In April 2018 the IMF estimated the economy would expand by 5.5% in 2018 and 6% in 2019 compared to 4.8% in 2017

Hidden Hunger H. K. Biesalski, R. E. Black, 2016-05-24 Malnutrition caused by deficiencies of vitamins and minerals also called hidden hunger impairs both the intellectual and physical development of a child Due to the absence of clinical symptoms and assessments no intervention can be staged The tragedy is that this in turn decreases the child's chance to escape from poverty This book looks at malnutrition in high income countries the nutrition transition and nutritional deficiencies in low income countries consequences of hidden hunger and interventions to improve nutrition security Written by leading experts in the field it clearly stresses that national governments and international organizations must make malnutrition one of their top priorities in order to provide children with optimal conditions for a healthy future

Cultural Impact on Conflict Management in Higher Education Nancy T. Watson, Lei Xie, Matthew J. Etchells, 2018-07-01 Cultural Impact on Conflict Management in Higher Education shares information regarding conflict management and resolution in higher education from a global perspective In this book we introduced many conflict resolution methods from different regions in the world You can borrow some successful strategies and examine the differences and similarities between contexts The book shares a conflict resolution model which may direct the reader to start thinking about addressing and managing conflicts from different levels of organizations This book is a collective work of authors coming from all over the world We chose higher education as the context because it is a place where diverse thoughts perspectives and people come together Because of the potential richness of diversity on a college campus the opportunity for conflicts occurs Managing conflict does not work when there is a one way only approach model for addressing conflict Some conflict resolution encompasses multiple dimensions a one s personal beliefs or beliefs about an issue b an individual s personal history in terms of how the conflict was perceived as something to be discussed or not c work culture of the conflict where if one has a conflict the person or unit is messing up or there is a problem person d the unconscious strategies of face saving trying to maintain one s image present e social hierarchies or relationships and f the diversity dimensions and issues that may be present

Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
