Chance of Lightning Kristin Robertson, 2025-04-15 Chance of Lightning is a striking meditation on human fragility and resilience Sonnets prose poems and experiments in lyrical verse resonant with the Southern Gothic but grounded firmly in indefatigable hope create a world of imaginary lottery winners from a man who invests his windfall in a dove release business to a woman who tracks down every person she s ever kissed and explore themes of birth death loss and survival The collection will appeal to admirers of both magic and realism It s a precarious love letter that wagers the mystery against easy answers and unflinching vulnerability against inevitable misfortune Kristin Robertson s Chance of Lightning is electric and sharp From a crown of sonnets likening love to the elements of the periodic table to a sequence of poems imagining what lottery winners might do with their winnings if they hit the jackpot Robertson s way with language image and thought is dazzling and fresh The features of this book s landscapes are grounded and rich Corvettes Kenny Rogers songs a funerary bouquet in the shape of a telephone glitter covered coffins a goldfish in a plastic cup a stud in an earring gun and mullets tossed across state lines Above all there is wonder the poet looking at each thing she examines as if for the first time seeing all of its wild possibilities With humor punch and heart Chance of Lightning strikes deep into what is elemental what is luck what is loss and what is love Every page of this book surprised me Kristin Robertson is a poet to watch Melissa H Range judge and author of Scriptorium Poems
