

Servicing your vehicle if you tow

If you tow a trailer for a long distance, your vehicle will need to be serviced more frequently than usual. See the Maintenance Schedule and Record Log in the back of this Owner Guide.

Drinking and Driving

Warning: | The presence of alcohol in significant levels in the blood increases the probability that the driver will be involved in an accident.

Ford Motor Company supports the recommendation of the Presidential Commission on Drunk Driving.

While legal limits are helpful, remember that everybody reacts differently to alcohol. Even before you reach the legal limit for driving, you may have consumed too much alcohol to drive safely.

If you have too much to drink, don't drive. Call a cab, call a friend, or find another way to get home.

Many of us believe that police officers need to carry guns to protect themselves as well as us. But do we want our police forces to become armies? Most of us are shocked when suspects are shot dead by police before they can be tried and disturbed to see police wearing riot gear and using baton charges at peaceful demonstrations. When police begin using paramilitary tactics the essential nature of their role is redefined, switching from protection and peacekeeping to active aggression. Some units within our police forces, such as the Special Operations Group, train with the military and use military weapons and tactics. In looking behind the extraordinary number of police shootings in Victoria, Blue Army examines how the Special Operations Group and their tactics, which are passed on to ordinary police, have contributed to the toll. Jude McCulloch's involvement as a lawyer in cases of police shootings led her to detailed investigation of changes to policing in Australia. Blue Army arises from her research into the paramilitarisation of the police. It exposes the risks of allowing Australia's police forces to move away from
