Reducing loneliness and isolation

The Daylight Club is a social club for adults with physical and sensory disabilities. The club meets twice a week to engage members in a variety of activities, teach new skills, reduce loneliness and importantly, exercise and have fun. Thanks to a grant of £1,000 from the St Albans Fund for the Future the club was able to run evening art and sketching evening activities, which greatly improve wellbeing, self-awareness to all.

Supporting victims of domestic abuse

Future Living provides a range of support to victims of domestic abuse and those recovering from addiction. A grant from the Police and Crime Commissioner's Fund for Hertfordshire and the Transport for Communities Fund contributed towards the costs of workshops, counselling, training courses and advice to pregnant women and girls to rebuild their lives and with confidence.

Giving offenders a second chance

HMCRG supports people who have been on the wrong side of the law to look back from prison. Thanks to a grant from the Police Crime Commissioner's Fund for Hertfordshire, HMCRG ran a course to support male females about perpetrators and a 6-week course for female offenders.

Helping people with disabilities

Chapel House St Albans District provides free confidential support to local residents living a range of issues relating to money, benefits, housing and employment. Thanks to a major grant from the Graham Southerton Family Fund four Citizen Advice Services collaborated and as a result have been able to provide an extra of £1,000 in benefits for people living with disabilities. Due to the success of this project it is now being rolled out to other further districts.

Providing therapy to adults with dementia and their carers

The Blue Bird focuses on the therapeutic benefits of gardening to help people with dementia whilst reducing isolation. A £1,000 grant from the Hertfordshire Capital Growth Community Grants programme supported a local garden working for people with dementia, carers and their carers.
