

AP Gov Unit 2 Study Guide (Part 1)

CONGRESS

Essential Question: How do the structure and operation of the legislative branch reflect the US republican ideal?

Foundational Documents/Court Cases

-Article I of the US Constitution:

- Establishes bicameral legislature and appointment of House and Senate
- States powers given to Congress ex: declare war, make treaties, borrow money, raise an army

-Baker v. Carr (1962):

- Tennessee did not redraw the districts to reflect population changes
- Supreme Court originally saw arguments about redistricting as a "political question"
- Constitutional Principle: 14th Amendment=no one can deny equal protection of the laws
- Argument: By refusing to redraw districts, citizens were not equally protected under the law
- Decision: In favor of Baker. Issues of reapportionment were justiciable, therefore Supreme Court had authority to rule on these questions
- Importance: 1. established foundation of one person-one vote doctrine 2. Altered nature of political rep across US 3. Got Supreme Court involved in political questions

-Shaw v. Reno (1993):

- Voting Rights Act of 1965 prohibited voting rules that discriminated on the basis of race, and certain states (w/ history of discrimination) had to have their districts approved by the federal gov

- No NC reps were black, so NC drew 2 oddly shaped districts that had a black majority
- Districts were an example of gerrymandering=drawing congressional districts to favor one (racial) group over another
- Constitutional Principle: case argued on equal protection clause of 14th amendment
 - Shaw argued 14th amendment was violated b/c districts were drawn only w/ race in mind
 - Reno argued 14th wasn't violated b/c districts were drawn w/ intention of helping black residents who had been the object of historic discrimination
- Decision: Court ruled against Reno. While districts may have been drawn w/ noble intentions, they were only based on race and therefore unconstitutional b/c it sets a dangerous precedent (what if majority races did the same thing). Equal protection clause of 14th amendment was violated
- Important: set precedent for future cases involving racial gerrymandering; districts can't be drawn to gather those of same race in voting districts

Scoring the Free Response Section

The following guide explains typical free response scoring criteria

Score Explanation of Score 8 9

The thesis is extremely well developed and is supported with concrete evidence all aspects of the question have been addressed thoroughly discussions presented are balanced

6 7

The thesis is defined and supported the evidence provided is very organized the essay may be slightly imbalanced with one strong argument and one weak argument and or discuss one topic more thoroughly than the next sporadic factual errors may appear

A basic argument or thesis is provided evidence given supports the argument or thesis but does not clearly connect with the argument or thesis only the formal facets of the question are dealt with and informal facets are not adequately covered not all aspects of the question are discussed

The thesis is not organized and is not referred to in the essay the essay is little more than a recounting of facts and events the essay may be overloaded with data only one facet of the questions may be discussed numerous factual errors may appear

The thesis is weak evidence provided in support does not apply to the thesis factual errors are apparent

The thesis is very weak little or no factual evidence is provided to support the thesis irrelevant and inaccurate information appears

An attempt is made to answer the question but the support given is insignificant and the coverage of topics is incomplete

The question is not answered with any significance

Free Response Part II Comparative only

Score Explanation of Score 5

It would be extremely helpful to find someone who is willing to score your essay your teachers or anyone who is familiar with the test material If you do ask the person to assign each of your U S and Comparative Part I essays a score of 0 to 9 For your Comparative Part II essays use the 0 to 5 scale If you must grade your own essays try to be objective In addition you may want to give your essays three different grades For instance if you feel you did well try giving the essay a score of 5 6 or 7 to represent the various scores you may receive By underestimating what your score may be you are more likely to receive a better score on the actual exam Use the following formulae to determine your raw score for the Free Response section

United States Exam Free Response Response 1 score \times 1 66 raw score Response 2 score \times 1 66 raw score Response 3 score \times 1 66 raw score Response 4 score \times 1 66 raw score Comparative Exam Response 1 score \times 1 66 raw score Response 2 score \times 1 66 raw score Response 3 score \times 3 raw score Response 4 score \times 3 raw score

The Composite Score Once you have obtained your raw scores for both the Multiple Choice and the Free Response sections add the scores together to get your composite score

United States Exam Multiple Choice raw score Free Response raw score composite score round to nearest whole number

Score Essay 1 Score Essay 2 Score Essay 3 Score Essay 4 raw score Comparative Exam Multiple Choice raw score Free Response raw score composite score round to nearest whole number

Now compare your composite score with the scale below

Composite Score	AP Grade

AP grades are interpreted as follows

- 5 extremely well qualified
- 4 well qualified
- 3 qualified
- 2 possibly qualified
- 1 no recommendation

Studying for Your AP Examination It is never too early to start studying The earlier you begin the more time you will have to sharpen your skills Do not procrastinate Cramming is not an effective way to study since it does not allow you the time needed to learn the test material It is very important for you to choose the time and place for studying that works best for you Some students may set aside a certain number of hours every morning to study while others may choose to study at night before going to sleep Other students may study during the day while waiting on a line or even while eating lunch Only you can determine when and where your study time will be most effective But be consistent and use your time wisely Work out a study routine and stick to it When you take the practice exam s try to make your testing conditions as much like the actual test as possible Turn your television and radio off and sit down at a quiet table free from distraction Make sure to time yourself As you complete the practice test s score your test s and thoroughly review the explanations to the questions you answered incorrectly but do not review too much during any one sitting Concentrate on one problem area at a time by reviewing the question and explanation and by studying our review s until you are confident that you completely understand the material Since you will be allowed to write in your test booklet during the actual exam you may want to write in the margins and spaces of this book when practicing However do not make miscellaneous notes on your answer sheet Mark your answers clearly and make sure the answer you have chosen corresponds to the question you are answering Keep track of your scores By doing so you will be able to gauge your progress and discover general weaknesses in particular sections You should carefully study the reviews that cover the topics causing you difficulty as this will build your skills in those areas To get the most out of your studying time we recommend that you follow the Study Schedule which corresponds to the exam you are taking It details how you can best budget your time If you are taking both exams do not try to study for each at the same time Try alternating days by studying for the United States exam one day and the Comparative exam the next Test Taking Tips Although you may be unfamiliar with tests such as the Advanced Placement exams there are many ways to acquaint yourself with this type of examination and help alleviate your test taking anxieties Listed below are ways to help yourself become accustomed to the AP exam some of which may also be applied to other standardized tests Become comfortable with the format of the AP Examination in Government and Politics that you are taking When you are practicing to take the exam s simulate the conditions under which you will be taking the actual test s You should practice under the same time constraints as well Stay calm and pace yourself After simulating the test only a couple of times you will boost your chances of doing well and you will be able to sit down for the actual test much more confidently Know the directions and format for each section of the exam Familiarizing yourself with the directions and format of the different test sections will not only save you time but will also ensure that you are familiar enough with the AP exam to avoid nervousness and the mistakes caused by being nervous Work on the easier questions first If you find yourself working too long on one question make a mark next to it in your test booklet and continue After you have answered all of the questions that you can go back to the ones you have skipped Use the process of elimination when you are unsure of an answer If you can eliminate three of the answer choices you have given yourself a fifty fifty chance of getting the item correct since there will only be two choices left from which to make a guess If you cannot eliminate at least three of the answer choices you may choose not to guess as you will be penalized one quarter of a point for every incorrect answer Questions not answered will not be counted Be sure that you are marking your answer in the circle that corresponds to the number of the question in the test booklet Since the multiple choice section is graded by machine marking the wrong answer will throw off your score *Princeton Review AP U.
