Carroll,Michael T. Hannan,2018-06-05 Most analysts of corporations and industries adopt the focal perspective of a single prototypical organization Many analysts also study corporations primarily in terms of their internal organizational structures or as complex systems of financial contracts Glenn Carroll and Michael Hannan bring fresh insight to our understanding of corporations and the industries they comprise by looking beyond prototypical structures to focus on the range and diversity of organizations in their social and economic setting The result is a rich rendering of analysis that portrays whole populations and communities of corporations The Demography of Corporations and Industries is the first book to present the demographic approach to organizational studies in its entirety It examines the theory models methods and data used in corporate demographic research Carroll and Hannan explore the processes by which corporate populations change over time including organizational founding growth decline structural transformation and mortality They review and synthesize the major theoretical mechanisms of corporate demography ranging from aging and size dependence to population segregation and density dependence The book also explores some selected implications of corporate demography for public policy including employment and regulation In this path breaking book Carroll and Hannan demonstrate why demographic research on corporations is important describe how to conduct demographic research specify fruitful areas of future research and suggest how the demographic perspective can enrich the public discussion of issues surrounding the corporation in our constantly evolving industrial society All researchers and analysts with an interest in this topic will find The Demography of Corporations and Industries an invaluable resource

The Diversity of Life Edward O. Wilson,1999 This classic by the distinguished Harvard entomologist tells how life on earth evolved and became diverse and now how diversity and life are endangered by us truly While Wilson contributed a great deal to environmental ethics by calling for the preservation of whole ecosystems rather than individual species his environmentalism appears too anthropocentric We should judge every scrap of biodiversity as priceless while we learn to use it and come to understand what it means to humanity And Signals abound that the loss of life s diversity endangers not just the body but the spirit This reprint of the 1992 Belknap Press publication contains a new foreword Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Doing Diversity Differently in a Culturally Complex World Megan Watkins,Greg Noble,2021-10-07 Doing Diversity Differently in a Culturally Complex World explores the challenges facing multicultural education in the 21st century It argues that the ideas fashioned in 1970s multiculturalism are no longer adequate for the culturally complex world in which we now live Much multicultural education celebrates superficial forms of difference and avoids difficult questions around culture in an age of transnational flows and hybrid identities Megan Watkins and Greg Noble explore the understandings of multiculturalism that exist amongst teachers parents and students They demonstrate that ideas around culture and identity don t match the complexities of the social contexts of schooling in migrant based nations such as Australia the UK the USA Canada and New Zealand Doing Diversity Differently in a Culturally Complex World draws on comprehensive research undertaken in Australian schools It examines how a diverse range of schools address the challenges that superdiversity poses considering how the strengths and limitations of each school s approach reflect wider logics of traditional multiculturalism In contrast the authors argue for a transformative multiculturalism involving a critically reflexive approach to understanding the processes relations and identities of the contemporary world With a Foreword by Fazal Rivzi Emeritus Professor University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign USA and Professor of Global Studies in Education University of Melbourne Australia
