Kalina encourages you not to feel ashamed or defeated but to realize that acknowledging how you feel is the first step to a life filled with greater joy, connection, and peace. So what's your next step? Are you ready to find what you've been looking for? Aching for Greatness will inspire you to set out on the adventure that only a deep personal knowledge of God can offer. The Catholic deposit of faith and tradition is wide and deep. There are so many different devotions and ways to pray that it's impossible for anyone to ever use them all, let alone in a busy family. Fortunately, the liturgical calendar is here to help. In this companion to her bestselling book about liturgical living traditions in the home, The Catholic All Year Compendium, Kendra Tierney lays out hundreds of prayers, devotions, practices, blessings, indulgences, novenas, hymns, Bible readings, poems, encyclicals, and humor in an easy-to-use format according to the liturgical seasons and feast days of the Church calendar. These prayers and practices are a great way to connect with the Bible, the Saints, the Church, and your family throughout the year. Without paging through stacks of books, you can easily access hundreds of beautiful devotions for every season of the liturgical year. This book will help you and your family to: Pray the Christmas Novena, nine days leading to Christmas Day; Sing the beautiful Pange Lingua Gloriosi for the feast of St. Thomas Aquinas; Discover the Seven Sundays of Saint Joseph; Do the Stations of the Cross during Lent; Have a Tenebrae service for the Triduum; Have a blessed bonfire for the Nativity of St. John the Baptist; Host a family joke night in honor of St. Lawrence; and so much more. Plus, learn how to pray rosaries, chaplets, novenas, and how to get indulgences and what blessings are appropriate for use by lay people. And do it all with no more preparation than picking this book up from the shelf. Produced with busy families in mind, Kendra Tierney brings these jewels of the Church into your home and family.

Millennial Missionaries Katherine Dugan, 2019

Millennials in the U.S. have been characterized as uninterested in religion, as defectors from religious institutions, and as agnostic about the role of religious identity in their culture. Amid the rise of so-called "nones," though, there has also been a countervailing trend: an increase in religious piety among some millennial Catholics. The Fellowship of Catholic University Students (FOCUS), which began evangelizing college students on American university campuses in 1998, hires recent college graduates to evangelize college students and promote an attractive and culturally savvy Catholicism. These millennial Catholics have personal relationships with Jesus, attend Mass daily, and know and defend papal teachings while also being immersed in U.S. popular culture. With their skinny jeans, devotional tattoos, and large framed glasses, FOCUS missionaries embody a hip, attractive style of Catholicism. They promote a faith that interweaves distinctly Catholic identity with outreach methods of twentieth-century evangelical Protestants and the anxieties of middle-class emerging adulthood. Though this new generation of missionaries lives according to strict gender essentialism prescribed by papal teachings including the notions that men lead while women follow and that biology dictates gender roles they also support stay at home fatherhood and women earning MBAs Millennial Missionaries examines how these young people navigate their Catholic and American identities in the twenty first century Illuminating the ways missionaries are reshaping American Catholic identity Katherine Dugan explores the contemporary U S religious landscape from the perspective of millennials who proudly proclaim I am Catholic and devote years of their lives to convincing others to do the same
