Learning spellings in a multisensory way gives children the best chance of remembering them Multisensory methods are also widely accepted as being most effective for dyslexic children

Spelling rules explained at the top of each page if there is a rule This helps children to apply the rule to other words too not just to the specific words on the page

Irregular words are highlighted in red with the irregular letters underlined This prevents children from generalizing incorrectly from irregular words and draws their attention to the tricky letters

Pen lifts after each syllable Breaking longer words into syllables helps children to spell them

Encouraging self checking Children checking their own work for errors makes them more likely to remember these and is less damaging for their self esteem than adult correction
