

VOLCANOES

By Leah Chiaravalloti

FACTS

I want to learn how volcanoes work and specifically the different types.

DEFINITION

I used my following definition to research and explain:

- The interior of the Earth
- The formation of volcanic material (lava, ash, etc.)

Volcano

A mountain with a vent which lava erupts from the Earth's crust.

Lava

Hot molten rock erupted from a volcano.

Magma

Hot fluid within the Earth's crust which lava is formed on cooling.

ERUPTION

From going to sleep a volcano, I will become dead by being changed and being with what will come on eruption.

ERUPTION

The volcano will erupt and create a cloud of ash and gas. The lava will flow out of the volcano and spread over the ground. The lava will cool and become solid rock which will form a new land mass.

Igneous Rock

Hot molten rock is formed from the cooling and solidifying of magma or lava.

Ocean Ridge

An elevated ridge on the ocean floor where two tectonic plates are separating.

Island

A piece of land surrounded by water.

CONCLUSION

After researching and learning about volcanoes, I have learned that they are powerful forces of nature. They can create new land and destroy old land. They can also be dangerous to people and animals. I will be careful when I go near a volcano.

3rd Grade Science Projects Volcanoes:

Tyler's Third Grade Science Project Sonia M. Johnson, 2009-02 Tyler's Science Project is the story about a young boy's dilemma of deciding on what to do for his science project. He has so many ideas that he doesn't exactly know where to begin. Therefore, he asks his mom for help. The book explains the many choices that Tyler has to choose from. It shows how Tyler has such a vivid and creative imagination. There are several illustrations within the book to show some of Tyler's ideas. It also explains the steps in which Tyler takes throughout his experiment. I Was a Third Grade Science Project Mary Jane

Auch, 1999-10-12 It sure is handy having Brian the Brain for a best friend. How else would Josh have a shot at first prize in the science fair and winning tickets to Wonderland Lake? But when Brian plans to hypnotize his dog Arfie into thinking he's a cat, Josh knows he can say goodbye to Wonderland Lake; this scheme will never work. The next thing he knows, Josh is climbing trees and craving raw fish sandwiches. What's going on? Will the real science project please meow? Fun & Easy Science
