Disciples Mark Ireland,2015-12-10 Ten years on from their first book Evangelism Which way now which has become a valuable and much recommended resource Mark Ireland and Mike Booker aim to take people a step further Making New Disciples offers a practical approach based on careful theological reflection and years of hands on experience in local church leadership theological education and the national church The book is not so much a Which guide to the available resources as a wrestling with the paradoxes of evangelism in a changing world backed up with plenty of stories and specific examples

The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,2002 Apuleius and Drama Regine May,2006-12-07 Regine May discusses the use of drama as an intertext in the work of the 2nd century Latin author Apuleius who wrote the only complete extant Latin novel the Metamorphoses in which a young man is turned into a donkey by magic Apuleius uses drama especially comedy as a basic underlying texture and invites his readers to use their knowledge of contemporary drama in interpreting the fate of his protagonist and the often comic or tragic situations in which he finds himself May employs a close study of the Latin text and detailed comparison with the corpus of dramatic texts from antiquity as well as discussion of stock features of ancient drama especially of comedy in order to explain some features of the novel which have so far baffled Apuleian scholarship including the enigmatic ending All Latin and Greek has been translated into English Isaiah, Jeremiah, Lamentations Larry L. Walker,Elmer A. Martens,2017-05-01 The Cornerstone Biblical Commentary series 18 volumes is the product of nearly 40 scholars many of whom participated in the creation of the NLT The contributors to this series who are well known and represent a wide spectrum of theological positions within the evangelical community have built each volume to help pastors teachers and students of the Bible understand every thought contained in the Bible In short this will be one of the premier resources for those seeking an accessible but fairly high level discussion of scriptural interpretation Elmer A Martens PhD is professor emeritus of Old Testament and president emeritus at Mennonite Brethren Biblical Seminary Fresno California where he has taught for over 30 years He is the author of God's Design A Focus on Old Testament Theology and a commentary on Jeremiah Herald Press He was coeditor of The Flowering of Old Testament Theology and served for several years as the editor of the journal Direction Larry L Walker PhD held a professional teaching career with time split between Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and Mid America Baptist Seminary Since his retirement in 1998 he has done adjunct teaching at several seminaries He authored a commentary on Zephaniah for the Expositor's Bible Commentary and is also a contributor to the New International Dictionary of Old Testament Theology and Exegesis This Tragic Gospel Louis A. Ruprecht, Jr.,2008-07-23 This Tragic Gospel suggests that the Gospel of John intended to supplant the first three gospels and succeeded in gaining undue influence on the early churches This study focuses on the tragic moment when Jesus prays for deliverance from his impending death in the garden of Gethsemane Ruprecht contends that John rewrote this scene in order to convey a very different dramatic meaning from the one reflected in Mark's gospel In John's version not only did Jesus not pray to be spared he actually mocked this prayer embracing his imminent demise with godlike confidence Ruprecht believes that this dramatic reinterpretation undermined the tragedy of Jesus's death as Mark imagined it and so paved the way for the development of a kind of Christianity that focused far less on compassion in the face of human suffering John's Jesus offers the faithful food so that they will never hunger water so that they will never thirst and the promise of a world in which no faithful person ever sheds a tear Mark's Christians do suffer but they witness to suffering and death differently with compassion Mark's Christ suffers like all Christians after him but he embodies a tragic hope in the promise of a faith shored up by love and compassion Billboard, 1955-04-09 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends

Forgotten Songs Ray Van Neste, C. Richard Wells, 2012-10-01 Many in the church have forgotten the Psalms They may still be read but the rich history of using them as the backbone of Christian worship from the earliest days of the church until the 19th century is unknown For some the thought of praying or singing the Psalms alone or with others is entirely foreign In this we are out of step with our forebears in the faith we are an oddity in the history of the church and duly suffer for it Drawn by the rich spiritual depth produced in so many who have invested themselves in the Psalms Forgotten Songs seeks to reclaim the content in various areas of worship This book first examines biblical and historical foundations for the use of the Psalms in worship The Old Testament and New Testament are revisited noting the nature and purpose of the Psalms and how they were used Examples of the Psalms being employed by the Church Fathers and throughout the Reformation are also explored The second section of the book examines specific ways of using the Psalms in our worship today These aren't abstract ideas or suggestions but are examples from the personal and corporate lives of individuals who have been significantly impacted by the Psalms From group singing of the Psalms to praying Psalms publicly and privately to pastoral care and the place of lament Forgotten Songs will help others remember to actively use the Psalms in their own worship lives individually and corporately Contributors include such academicians and authors as Craig A. Blasing, Douglas Bond, Randall Bush, Jack Collins, Chad Davis, J. Michael Garrett, James H. Grant Jr, James Richard Joiner, Ray Ortlund, Leland Ryken, Calvin Seerveld, Justin Wainscott and John D.
