Kirsznar, Stephen R. Mandell, Beverly Lawn, 2003-08-01 40 Short Stories Beverly Lawn, Alistair M. Duckworth, E. M. Forster, Kate Chopin, 2007-05-01 The Geographies of African American Short Fiction Kenton Rambsy, 2022-03-25 Perhaps the brevity of short fiction accounts for the relatively scant attention devoted to it by scholars who have historically concentrated on longer prose narratives The Geographies of African American Short Fiction seeks to fill this gap by analyzing the ways African American short story writers plotted a diverse range of characters across multiple locations small towns a famous metropolis city sidewalks a rural wooded area apartment buildings a pond a general store a prison and more In the process these writers highlighted the extents to which places and spaces shaped or situated racial representations Presenting African American short story writers as cultural cartographers author Kenton Rambsy documents the variety of geographical references within their short stories to show how these authors make cultural spaces integral to their artwork and inscribe their stories with layered and resonant social histories The history of these short stories also documents the circulation of compositions across dozens of literary collections for nearly a century Anthology editors solidified the significance of a core group of short story authors including James Baldwin Toni Cade Bambara Charles Chesnutt Ralph Ellison Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Using quantitative information and an extensive literary dataset The Geographies of African American Short Fiction explores how editorial practices shaped the canon of African American short fiction

We Do Language: English Variation in the Secondary English Classroom Anne H. Charity Hudley, Christine Mallinson, 2013-11-29 We Do Language builds on the authors highly acclaimed first collaboration Understanding English Language Variation in U S Schools and examines the need to integrate linguistically informed teaching into the secondary English classroom The book includes specific information about the language varieties students bring with them to school so that educators can better assist students in developing the literacy skills necessary for the Common Core State Standards This resource features concrete strategies models and vignettes as well as classroom materials developed by English educators for English educators

Religion in the Composition Classroom Joe Wagner, 2015-06-22 Students in first year composition courses across the country discuss and write about touchy subjects like race class gender and religion This book focuses on the latter offering a pragmatic way of working with religious belief as a subject of study in the secular setting of the university classroom Based on the work of American pragmatists like Charles Peirce William James and John Dewey this approach considers what religious belief does in the world the tangible consequences of believing or not believing and steers away from questions concerning God's existence or benevolence Religion is viewed as a social and political force affecting human interaction Drawing on years of experience teaching composition in Chile and the United States the author explores real world events such as Chile's 1973 coup d'etat the resignation of Pope Benedict XVI and the daily interplay of religious beliefs among family members Reading and writing assignments geared for believers and nonbelievers alike are provided including student essays that make various arguments about religion

Reading and Writing About Literature Janet E. Gardner, 2012-09-15 Far less expensive than comparable guides Reading and Writing about Literature A Portable Guide is an ideal supplement for writing courses where literature anthologies and individual literary works that lack writing instruction are assigned This brief guide introduces strategies for reading literature explains the writing process and common writing assignments for literature courses provides instruction in writing about fiction poetry and drama and includes coverage of writing a research paper and of literary criticism and theory This volume in the popular Bedford St Martin's series of Portable Anthologies and Guides offers a trademark combination of high quality and great value
