The College Board: Connecting Students to College Success

The College Board is a not-for-profit membership association whose mission is to connect students to college success and opportunity. Founded in 1900, the association is composed of more than 6,000 schools, colleges, universities, and other educational organizations. Each year, the College Board serves more than 3 million students and their parents, schools, colleges, and universities through its most prominent programs and services: SAT[®] tests, AP[®] courses and exams, and the SAT Suite of Assessments[®]. Among its best-known programs are the SAT[®], the PSAT/NCAAT[®], and the Advanced Placement Program[®] (AP[®]). The College Board is committed to the principles of excellence, equity, and fair assessment in education as well as to the programs, services, activities, and resources.
