Cosper,2024-11-19 We expect evil to appear in obvious forms malice cruelty and contempt We also expect to find villains at the helm of evil movements and organizations leaders with dark impulses and motivations But all too often malevolence is more subtle hiding behind our own best intentions In The Church in Dark Times cultural critic Mike Cosper unveils this dynamic in the growing crisis of abuse and other failures in modern evangelical churches Drawing on the work of twentieth century political theorist Hannah Arendt Cosper explores what we can learn from her theory of the banality of evil the thoughtlessness that allows ordinary people to become complicit in all manner of corruption He uncovers the underlying causes of the breakdowns of the church and offers practices that foster healing and renewal This book will engage Christian leaders and all followers who want to better understand how church crises keep happening and how we can resist them and move forward      Hobbes's Political Theory Deborah Baumgold,1988-08-26      Voicing Concerns Gloria Davies,Gloria L. Davies,2001 Eleven essays by scholars of Chinese literature culture and politics describe the current state of Chinese critical inquiry surveying recent Chinese intellectual culture with attention to popular culture and Chinese models of intellectuality The role of western literary theory the influence of the New Confucianism and the place of scientism and social theory in modern Chinese thought are all covered The study of history is given particular scrutiny with consideration to the theory of ultrastable systems the relationship between patriotism and intellectual curiosity the interplay of past and future and the tensions between liberalism and the new left c Book News Inc      Assembly Bills, Original and Amended California.

Legislature. Assembly,1953      Herbert Read Reassessed David Goodway,1998-01-01 Herbert Read 1893 1968 acquired in his lifetime a considerable international reputation in all the major areas of his diverse activities as poet as educationalist as anarchist as philosopher of aesthetics as art critic as historian of and above all as propagandist for modern art and design The papers assembled in Herbert Read Reassessed offer a comprehensive and authoritative coverage of Read s life work that is designed to stimulate debate An impressive volume it manages to present a unified but not totalizing portrait of one of England s most distinguished twentieth century critics English Historical Review      The Secret Symmetry of Maimonides and Freud Nathan Szajnberg,2023-06-13 The Secret Symmetry of Maimonides and Freud presents the parallels between The Guide of the Perplexed and The Interpretation of Dreams considering how Maimonides might be perceived as anticipating Freud s much later work The Secret Symmetry of Maimonides and Freud suggests that humankind has secrets to hide and does so by using common mechanisms and embedding revealing hints for the benefit of the true reader Using a psychoanalytic approach in tandem with literary criticism and an in depth assessment of Judaica Szajnberg demonstrates the similarities between these two towering Jewish intellectual pillars Using concepts of esoteric literature from the Torah and later texts this book analyses their ideas on concealing and revealing to gain a renewed perspective on Freud's view of dreams Throughout Szajnberg articulates the challenges of reading translated works and how we can address the pitfalls in such translations The book is a vital read for psychoanalysts in training and practice as well as those interested in Judaica the history of ideas and early medieval studies      The Discourse of Character Education Peter Smagorinsky, Joel

Taxel, 2005-05-06 In this book Peter Smagorinsky and Joel Taxel analyze the ways in which the perennial issue of character education has been articulated in the United States both historically and in the current character education movement that began in earnest in the 1990s The goal is to uncover the ideological nature of different conceptions of character education The authors show how the current discourses are a continuation of discourse streams through which character education and the national purpose have been debated for hundreds of years most recently in what are known as the Culture Wars the intense often passionate debates about morality culture and values carried out by politicians religious groups social policy foundations and a wide range of political commentators and citizens in which the various stakeholders have sought influence over a wide range of social and economic issues including education The centerpiece is a discourse analysis of proposals funded by the United States Department of Education's Office of Educational Research and Improvement OERI Discourse profiles from sets of states that exhibit two distinct conceptions of character are examined and the documents from particular states are placed in dialogue with the OERI Request for Proposals One profile reflects the dominant perspective promoted in the U S based on an authoritarian view in which young people are indoctrinated into the value system of presumably virtuous adults through didactic instruction The other reflects the well established yet currently marginal discourse emphasizing attention to the whole environment in which character is developed and enacted and in which reflection on morality rather than didactic instruction in morality is the primary instructional approach By focusing on these two distinct regions and their conceptions of character the authors situate the character education movement at the turn of the twenty first century in the context of historical notions about the nature of character and regional conceptions regarding the nature of societal organization This enlightening volume is relevant to scholars practitioners policymakers and students across the field of education particularly those involved in character education moral development discourse analysis history and cultural foundations of education and related fields and to the wider public interested in character education      Negative

Aesthetics and Political Collapse in Eastern European and Balkan Cinema Zoran Samardzija, 2025-07-18 Negative Aesthetics and Political Collapse in Eastern European and Balkan Cinema examines the theme of political collapse in select contemporary Eastern European and Balkan art cinema and documentaries from the late eighties to the present Engaging with debates in Marxism and contemporary film theory about political aesthetics the book centers around the question of whether we can imagine possible futures through negative aesthetics which are skeptical of cinema's ability to reproduce reality in a comprehensive and unmediated manner In particular it analyzes examples of ambiguous art cinema and related hybrid documentary modes in order to invite spectators to rethink how we understand and represent the unique experiences of living through the collapse of authoritarian communism and the transition to neoliberal capitalism Negative Aesthetics and Political Collapse ultimately argues that the skepticism about political change and representing history found in these films forms an original mode of utopian thinking In other words their negativity about their own artistic autonomy is the very thing that allows them to hint at possible futures that are unrepresentable because they exist outside of the frameworks of contemporary geopolitics and our dominant understandings of cinematic aesthetics Redefining how we understand the intersections between geopolitics art cinema aesthetics and film theory the book presents a unique synthesis of film and political theory that attempts a new understanding of cinematic aesthetics As such it will interest scholars of film theory global art cinema aesthetics regional studies of Eastern Europe and the Balkans and political science

The Correspondence of Ezra Pound and the Frobenius Institute, 1930-1959 Ezra Pound, 2024-02-22 Collecting in full for the first time the correspondence between Ezra Pound and members of Leo Frobenius Forschungsinstitut für Kulturmorphologie in Frankfurt across a 30 year period this book sheds new light on an important but previously unexplored influence on Pound's controversial intellectual development in the Fascist era Ezra Pound's long term interest in anthropology and ethnography exerted a profound influence on early 20th century literary Modernism These letters reveal the extent of the influence of Frobenius concept of Paideuma on Pound's poetic and political writings during this period and his growing engagement with the culture of Nazi Germany Annotated throughout the letters are supported by contextualising essays by leading Modernist scholars as well as relevant contemporary published articles by Pound himself and his leading correspondent at the Institute the American Douglas C Fox

Army Reservist, 1956

Concentrationary Imaginaries Griselda Pollock, Max Silverman, 2015-11-30 In 1945 French political prisoners returning from the concentration camps of Germany coined the phrase the concentrationary universe to describe the camps as a terrible political experiment in the destruction of the human This book shows how the unacknowledged legacy of a totalitarian mentality has seeped into the deepest recesses of everyday popular culture It asks if the concentrationary now infests our cultural imaginary normalizing what was once considered horrific and exceptional by transforming into entertainment violations of human life Drawing on the political philosophy of Hannah Arendt and the analyses of violence by Agamben Virilio Lacoue Labarthe and Nancy it also offers close readings of films by Cavani and Haneke that identify and critically expose such an imaginary and hence contest its lingering force

Heart Speaks unto Heart Jan Kłos, 2021-08-09 Both Newman and Stein present a mature response to the challenges of their eras In like manner they reflect splendid examples of genuine persons in the grip of disrupting cultural trends They show the primacy of individual conscience and the importance of individual integrity even at the expense of social ostracism and extermination Newman and Stein are outstanding witnesses of individual freedom vis vis social and political systems This book uniquely combines the biographies of these two figures in order to show that no matter what kind of circumstances we may live in loyalty to one's own self is the most significant part of life In a penetrating account of Newman and Edith Stein Jan Kos explores the spirituality of two saints each of them speaking to our time By explorations of their life and work the author provides a wealth of insights for the twenty first century At once sensitive and learned Jan Kos's Heart Speaks unto Heart is a volume to be treasured and read again Prof Andrew Breeze Universidad de Navarra Spain In this profound and stimulating study Kos invites the reader to think not so much about Newman and Stein as with them and thus join them in their unique but mutually illuminating efforts to make sense of their faith their times still very much our times themselves and ultimately the mystery of the truth in whose grasp they both lived and died In translating Newman's work Stein discovered herself in communion with him Heart Speaks unto Heart beautifully explores this communion and in doing so shows us why it matters Prof Paul Wojda University of St Thomas U S A      School of the Air of the Americas ... Columbia Broadcasting System, Inc. Department of Education, 1941      The Attack of the Blob Hanna Fenichel Pitkin, 2021-02-16 The European intellectual Hannah Arendt worried about the tendency of social structures to take on a life of their own and paralyze individual action Pitkin is determined to trace our problems to the actions of individuals This book is thus a battle of wits A vivid sketch of the conflict between two basic outlooks Library Journal One leaves this book feeling enriched and challenged Pitkin prompts us to rethink our understanding of Arendt and to demythologize the pervasive sense of political helplessness Arendt herself sought so hard to articulate A cause for celebration Peter Baehr Times Literary Supplement Arendt is certainly among the most original and outstanding political theorists of the twentieth century It is difficult to imagine a hostile critic examining more effectively than Pitkin Arendt's concept of the social for hostility would inhibit the acquisition of the mastery of Arendt's texts that Pitkin displays at every turn Peter Berkowitz New Republic
