The Battle of Pusan Perimeter was a large scale battle between United Nations and North Korean forces lasting from August 4 to September 18 1950 It was one of the first major engagements of the Korean War An army of 140 000 UN troops having been pushed to the brink of defeat were rallied to make a final stand against the invading North Korean army 98 000 men strong UN forces having been repeatedly defeated by the advancing North Koreans were forced back to the Pusan Perimeter a 140 mile 230 km defensive line around an area on the southeastern tip of the Korean Peninsula that included the port of Pusan The UN troops consisting mostly of forces from the Republic of Korea ROK United States and United Kingdom mounted a last stand around the perimeter fighting off repeated North Korean attacks for six weeks as they were engaged around the cities of Taegu Masan and Pohang and the Nakdong River The massive North Korean assaults were unsuccessful in forcing the United Nations troops back further from the perimeter despite two major pushes in August and September North Korean troops hampered by supply shortages and massive losses continually staged attacks on UN forces in an attempt to penetrate the perimeter and collapse the line However the UN used the port to amass an overwhelming advantage in troops equipment and logistics and its navy and air forces remained unchallenged by the North Koreans during the fight After six weeks the North Korean force collapsed and retreated in defeat after the UN force launched a counterattack at Inchon on September 15 The battle would be the furthest the North Korean troops would advance in the war as subsequent fighting ground the war into a stalemate

US Army Paratrooper in the Pacific Theater 1943-45 Gordon L.

Rottman, 2012-11-20 The two major Army units that operated in the Pacific the 11th Airborne Division and the 503rd Parachute Regimental Combat Team PRCT launched small scale operations on extremely difficult if not outright dangerous terrain while also conducting amphibious assaults fighting on jungled hills swamps and mud The two units were very different with the 503rd PRCT being reserved for special purpose missions and the 11th Airborne Division occupying a more traditional role This title will deal with the background to these two units and their training before detailing the specific equipment used in the theatre and finally and most importantly the combat experience at a personal level of the US Army Paratrooper in the Pacific

The Hall Street Shoot-Out Captain E.R. Walt, 2010-11-12 On a pleasant Monday evening in September of 1969 twenty six year old Johnny Lee Thomas excused himself from his family's dinner table picked up a pump shotgun and announced that he was going hunting alone Seconds later he stepped out of his house and shot sixteen year old Aljewel Wesley in the face as she sat on her own front porch listening to records with her boyfriend and grandmother That was but the first shot in what would shortly become the biggest gunbattle in the 130 year history of the Dallas Police Department Johnny Thomas continued to shoot at neighbors friends family members and passing motorists until the police arrived at which point he ambushed and shot the first three officers on the scene He then retreated to his house and held off an assault by a hundred or more determined police officers in a furious firefight that lasted more than an hour and involved hundreds if not thousands of rounds fired Before the incident ended ten persons would be shot including four police officers and a TV cameraman two would be killed including the shooter himself Authored by a participant and based upon official police documents original newspaper articles and personal interviews with forty six of the hundred or so officers present the book details the gunbattle from the first shot to the final barrage of gunfire that ended the shooters life and brought it to a close It includes a listing of sixty seven Dallas officers known to have been combatants or otherwise involved in the incident and details their location and participation as far as it is known Also included is an analysis of the factors that contributed to the spectacular nature of the incident from departmental policies procedures equipment and tactics to the culture and tenor of the times Chapters are also dedicated to the firearms used in the battle and an analysis of exactly who among the many officers involved was responsible for putting an end to Thomass rampagesomething that was never addressed in the original investigation The concluding chapters cover the aftermath of the gunbattle from the neighborhood riots and arson fires to the truncated investigation and include a brief history of the Dallas Police Departments Tactical Division and the fundamental changes in the operation of that unit that were brought about by the affair on Hall Street The book closes with an epilogue bringing the reader up to date on the major players in the drama
