Managing Clinical Processes in Health Services Roslyn Sorensen, Rick Iedema, 2008 Managing Clinical Processes is the first book of its kind to address the concept of clinical process management and to integrate the clinical workplace within the corporate organisation for the Australian health services industry. It provides clinicians and managers with an understanding of the demands and expectations of modern health services from a patient consumer and multidisciplinary perspective and how to manage them. The text offers an evidence based approach to organising, evaluating and revising the processes that constitute a health service based on systematising care processes for specific clinical case types. Managing Clinical Processes in Health Services will be invaluable to those integrating and improving systems of clinical process management across the organisation. Provided by publisher Healthy Generations Scott McPhee, MS, DrPH, OT, FAOTA, Tim Johnson, DA, 2025-02-26 Healthy Generations Empowering Elders to Thrive in Senior Living Communities. As the population of older adults rapidly grows, senior living communities face increasing challenges in promoting the holistic wellness and quality of life of their residents. In this comprehensive guide, Scott McPhee and Tim Johnson present the innovative Healthy Generations™ model, a multidimensional approach to supporting seniors' physical, cognitive, social, emotional, and spiritual well-being. Drawing on decades of experience in occupational therapy and senior wellness, the authors provide an in-depth exploration of the six key domains of wellness for older adults. Evidence-based strategies for implementing person-centered programming. Practical tools for activity analysis and adapting programs for diverse needs. Over 30 ready-to-implement program ideas to engage and inspire seniors. Guidance on creating balanced activity calendars and evaluating outcomes. Whether you're an activity director, healthcare professional, or senior living administrator, this book offers a roadmap for transforming senior living communities into vibrant environments where elders can truly thrive. By nurturing the whole person and fostering meaningful engagement, the Healthy Generations approach empowers older adults to live with purpose, joy, and dignity in their later years. Scott McPhee, MS, DrPH, OT, FAOTA, brings 50 years of occupational therapy experience, including extensive work in program development, gerontology, and community health. Tim Johnson, MS, DA, is an author and fitness trainer specializing in senior wellness. Supporting Course and Programme Leaders in Higher Education Jenny Lawrence, Sue Morón-García, Rowena Senior, 2022-03-30 Offering research and evidence-based approaches that explore the essential components of programme leadership in higher education, this book is designed to define, develop, and support the programme leadership role and all those who undertake it. The book is split into three parts, taking into account the three different lenses through which programme leaders and their professional practice and relationships are generally viewed: the institution, the individual, and the programme team. Chapters and case studies address key elements crucial to the holistic development of programme leadership and programme leaders. These include Understanding and developing programme leadership in context, Developing organisational structures and processes so programme leaders can thrive Growing programme leaders educational leadership team working and communication Crucial reading for programme leaders as well as academic and educational developers and leaders working across faculties and whole institutions this text includes contributions from teaching and research focused higher education institutions as well as established and modern college and university based providers in both the northern and southern hemispheres
