Non-Elegiac Latin Love Poetry of Late Antiquity Vasileios Pappas,2025-05-19 For about five hundred years between Ovid s death 17 AD and Maximianus Elegies 6th century AD the genre of love elegy disappears Does this mean that love poetry in general was no longer being written This was certainly not the case Poets continued to compose love poetry merely in other forms than elegy This book deals with non elegiac Latin love poetry of Late Antiquity It is the first monograph to focus on the metaliterary interpretation of four non elegiac poetic works the Pervigilium Veneris Ausonius Bissula Reposianus De concubitu Martis et Veneris and the Aegritudo Perdicae The book contains all the required information about these poems including their date authorship structure and literary tradition However its content is predominantly original as it examines subjects that have not previously been discussed in the past These include a the generic interaction between the poems host genre and several guest genres that are present within them b the metaliterary discourse developed in several passages which reveals the metapoetic self consciousness of their poets c their hidden demands for the innovation of love poetry and d their allusive comments on the conservatism of this era

Love Among the Haystacks and Other Stories D. H. Lawrence, 1987-07-31 Each story in Love Among the Haystacks appears in a new authoritative text Late Have I Loved Thee Augustine of Hippo, 2006-12-05 The first collection of Saint Augustine's varied writings on human and divine love chosen to reflect his lifelong preoccupation with ordo amoris the principle of rightly directed love My weight is my love Saint Augustine writes in The Confessions He sees our ability to love as disordered by sin so that we often choose badly what and how to love Only by recognizing that we are commanded to love God first can any other object of our love be properly ordered Late Have I Loved Thee draws on the riches found in Augustine's sermons letters treatises and Scripture commentaries as well as passages from The Confessions and City of God Augustine 354-430 A.D. was the most prolific writer of Christian antiquity and the most influential theologian in Church history In his first encyclical God Is Love current Pope Benedict XVI acknowledges his indebtedness to him When we read Augustine today we encounter the same direct eloquent passions his original listeners experienced infused with his deep sense of human weakness and burning desire for union with God Author, Scribe, and Book in Late Medieval English Literature Rory G. Medieval Devotio-Literary Culture David J. Falls, 2016-03-31 Surviving in 59 complete manuscript versions few English texts of the late medieval period seem to have achieved the popularity of Nicholas Love's fifteenth century translation and adaptation of the Latin Meditationes Vitae Christi The Mirror of the Blessed Life of Jesus Christ The Mirror has received surprisingly little scholarly attention and is often contextualized in terms of its role in the theological conflict between English ecclesiastical orthodoxy and the teachings of heresiarch John Wycliff David Falls presents a new account of the text's history which de-centralises but does not disregard the influence of the Wycliffite controversy Falls interrogates preconceptions and investigates new possibilities for understanding the composition circulation function and use of Love's Mirror by examining both the textual modifications and additions made by Love in his adaptation of the Latin and places these alterations in context by examining individual copies of the Mirror The manuscript copies are read as both sites of literary consumption and nexuses of textual transition demonstrating that it was Love's ability to inscribe his work with functional diversity which explains the Mirror's popularity This book presents a nuanced picture not only of the Mirror's production circulation and function but also the dynamic and flourishing devotio literary culture of late medieval England in which Love's text operated Poet Close's Christmas Book; containing Memorial of his late Royal Highness Prince
