

HOW TO ANSWER THE MOST COMMON INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

1. PLEASE COULD YOU TELL ME A LITTLE BIT ABOUT YOURSELF?

In this case, the interviewer is looking to discover what about you would make a good fit for the job you are applying for and how you would work within the business. In answer to this question, you should keep your answers brief yet to the point. For example, you might say something like 'I am a driven person and I have proven this in my previous role, as you can see on my resume, my determination earned me a promotion twice within my first year.' You may then go on to talk about personal experiences within your career and private life which have some relation to the job you are looking to do.

2. WHAT IS THE REASON FOR LEAVING YOUR PREVIOUS JOB?

In short, the prospective employer is looking to find out whether or not you were fired or left for an unreasonable reason. You should be honest but avoid saying anything that may reflect badly on you. If the situation becomes uncomfortable, you can divert the subject to your achievements.

3. WHAT SALARY ARE YOU EXPECTING FROM THIS POSITION?

No employer wants to hear that you are expecting more than is usual for the job role but they also won't want you to aim lower than average as this shows that you don't have ambition. The best way to answer this question is to say that it is negotiable. If you are in any doubt as to what is reasonable, it is important to research the salaries of other people in this role.

4. WHAT GOALS AND AMBITIONS DO YOU HAVE FOR THE FUTURE?

This question may also come in other wordings such as "Where do you see yourself five years from now?" But in essence, the answer should be the same, and that is to explain what you hope to have achieved within your career and in particular the role you are applying for. Talk about improving your skills and learning new ones and explain how you plan to reach any goals you have stated.

5. WHY ARE YOU THE BEST CANDIDATE FOR THIS POSITION?

This is where you need to sell yourself. Don't be shy and ensure that you mention anything that makes you stand out from the crowd after all this is your chance to show what an asset you will be to the company.

6. WHAT IS YOUR MAIN WEAKNESS?

This is somewhat of a trick question and should be approached with caution. You should never say that you have no weaknesses as this is impossible for any human being but instead, you should demonstrate how you overcome your weakness and turn it into a positive.

7. WHAT CAN YOU TELL ME ABOUT (COMPANY NAME)?

Many job interviewers will ask you to tell them about the company that you are interviewing with and it is a common mistake when people do not do their research. If you appear to not know a lot about the company, it is going to come across as you not being bothered whether you work for them or not. A good knowledge of the company can be very impressive and can often secure a position.

Careers Job Opportunities Job Therapy Tessa West,2024-07-23 A psychologist's guide to finding your most fulfilling job yet When we're unhappy in our jobs we often attribute our frustration to a bad manager boring tasks and stressful workloads But our dissatisfaction at work usually stems from a deeper psychological need that's not being met at work like not getting the recognition you deserve In Job Therapy Dr Tessa West helps you figure out the real reason you're unhappy and shows you how to find a new position in which you'll thrive whether in a different role, company or new industry altogether. Through her research interviewing thousands of people who have recently switched jobs or undergone career changes, she found there are five common sources of career frustration: having an identity crisis, does your sense of self no longer match your job, you've drifted apart, do you no longer recognize the job you once loved, you're torn between places, are you taking on too many roles at work, switching tasks too often or stuck between two paths, you're the runner up, do you always feel like you keep coming in second, you're the underappreciated star, are you crushing it at work but the people around you aren't recognizing your performance. Dr. West will guide you through a working week audit to help identify your unique psychological stressors and use that knowledge to understand what you want your future career to look like. Presenting cutting edge insights on networking and hiring from Dr. West's interviews with over 1,500 professional recruiters, Job Therapy will help you land your best role yet, one that guarantees happiness for years to come. Public Policy

Evaluation in the Middle East and North Africa Anis Ben Brik, 2025-06-13. This book examines the progress of the development of public policy evaluation in the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) region from multiple perspectives. It describes both past developments and the current state of evaluation across the region, focusing on how political regimes, administrative traditions, and policy advisory systems shape evaluation processes in different contexts. With contributions from a diverse list of international authors, it investigates the historical development of evaluation across the MENA region and analyses the political landscape, highlighting emerging trends and potential challenges that could influence the future of the field. An essential resource for researchers and practitioners in evaluation, public policy, and the MENA region, the book also provides students with the practical knowledge and essential skills needed for careers in evaluation and policy analysis.
