A Faith Embracing All Creatures Tripp York,Andy Alexis-Baker,2012-11-09 What is the purpose of animals Didn t God give humans dominion over other creatures Didn t Jesus eat lamb These are the kinds of questions that Christians who advocate compassion toward other animals regularly face Yet Christians who have a faith based commitment to care for other animals through what they eat what they wear and how they live with other creatures are often unsure how to address these biblically and theologically based challenges In A Faith Embracing All Creatures authors from various denominational national ethnic and cultural backgrounds wrestle with the text theology and tradition to explain the roots of their desire to live peaceably with their nonhuman kin Together they show that there are no easy answers on what the Bible says about animals Instead there are nuances and complexities which even those asking these questions may be unaware of Editors

Andy Alexis Baker and Tripp York have gathered a collection of essays that wrestle with these nuances and tensions in Scripture around nonhuman animals In so doing they expand the discussion of nonviolence peacemaking and reconciliation to include the oft forgotten other members of God s good creation Creation, Myths Old and New Colin

Faith in the Marketplace Samuel Lee,2021-04-12 Contemporary missions often include evangelistic and socio economic dimensions For effective missions some way of assessing what is being achieved is needed beyond just the common metrics touching on the spiritual and or economic which neglects social transformation that ideally should also be occurring This book seeks to identify key factors for holistic evaluation based on salient characteristics that emerged as three Entrepreneurial Church Planting sites were studied in San Francisco Redeemer Community Church Selma Alabama Blue Jean Church and Lynch Kentucky Meridzo Ministries What emerges from these case studies is the importance of relationality general emphasis on growth and development and a well established focus on holistic transformation The mechanisms for the operation of holistic transformation are spelled out to reflect the operation of the three actors of the Trinity in missions The practical component of the book is the conceptual framework that reveals the operation of holistic transformation and ways to measure the dynamic relationships that occur Faith and Politics in the Public Sphere Etga Ugur,2019-07-12 In Faith and Politics in the Public Sphere Ugur explores the politics of religious engagement in the public sphere by comparing two modernist conservative movements the Mormon Church in the United States and the G len movement in Turkey The book traces the public activities and activism of these two influential and controversial actors at the state political society and civil society domains discerning their divergent strategies and positioning on public matters including moral issues religious freedoms democracy patriotism education social justice and immigration Despite being strikingly similar in their strong fellowship ties emphasis on conservative social values and their doctrines concerning political neutrality these two religious entities have employed different political strategies to promote their goals of survival growth and the collective interests of their communities In contrast to the Mormon Church s more assertive approach and emphasis on its autonomy and distinctiveness the G len movement has been rather cautious with its engagement in the public sphere with preference for coalition building and ambiguity To explain such different strategies Ugur examines how the liberal and republican models of the public sphere have shaped the norms and practices of public activism for religious groups in Turkey and the United States Ugur's deft and nuanced exploration of these movements adaptation and engagement is essential to help us better understand the dynamic role of religious involvement in the public sphere
