An Introduction to Counselling and Psychotherapy: Theory, Research, Practice and Social Purpose, 7th Edition
 John McLeod, 2025-03-25

An Introduction to Counselling and Psychotherapy builds on the existing strengths of John McLeod's research and professional experience. This title provides a comprehensive introduction to the research and practice of counselling and psychotherapy and enables students to develop their confidence in deploying a range of therapeutic models. With renewed focus on issues of social justice and in-depth consideration of how best to respond to contemporary developments within and beyond the therapy session, McLeod's most recent edition provides students with the skills required to navigate their early careers in a post-Covid19 context. Complete with case studies and topics for discussion, this core textbook acts as a one-stop shop for students on a wide variety of counselling training programmes.

John McLeod is a household name in the world of C/P education. John has held Professorial position at the Universities of Keele, Abertay, Olso, Padua and Massey and at the Institute for Integrative Counselling and Psychotherapy, Dublin. He has published 14 books and more than 100 articles and chapters and has an international reputation as a leading figure in counselling and psychotherapy practice and research.

Love and Therapy Divine Charura, Stephen Paul, 2018-03-29

Sigmund Freud noted the importance of love in the healing of the human psyche. So many of life's distresses have their origins in lack of love, disruption of love or trauma. People naturally seek love in their lives to feel complete. Is therapy a substitute for love? Or is it love by another name? This important book looks at the place of love in therapy and whether it is the curative factor. The authors continually stress, however, that within psychotherapy both ethical and professional boundaries should govern this. Love at all times in order for it to be experienced as healing and therapeutic. This book offers explorations of the complexity of love from different modalities: psychoanalytic, humanistic, person-centred, psychosexual, family and systemic, transpersonal, existential and transcultural. The discussions challenge therapists and other allied professionals to think about their practice ethics and boundaries.
