Three Plays of Maureen Hunter Hunter, Maureen, 2003 Book is clean and tight No writing in text Like New An Inland Voyage Robert Louis Stevenson, 2009-06-01 Robert Louis Stevenson's 1878 travelogue An Inland Voyage details his canoeing trip through France and Belgium in 1876. Pioneering new ground in outdoor literature, this was Stevenson's first book. He had decided to become free from his parents' financial support so that he might freely pursue the woman he loved. To support himself, he wrote travelogues, most notably An Inland Voyage, Travels with a Donkey in the Cévennes, and The Silverado Squatters. Stevenson undertook the journey with his friend Sir Walter Grindlay Simpson at a time when such outdoor travel for leisure was considered unusual, and it resulted in this romantic and original work that still inspires travelers today. Hill (Firm), 1927 The Dial Francis Fisher Browne, 1903 A Brief Handbook of English Authors Oscar Fay Adams, 2022-09-15 In A Brief Handbook of English Authors Oscar Fay Adams offers an insightful survey of notable English writers, weaving together biographical sketches, literary assessments, and contextual analyses. The book is characterized by its concise yet rich prose, making it an exemplary reference for both scholars and casual readers. Situated in the late 19th century, a period marked by burgeoning literary movements and critical evaluations, Adams tactfully annotates the contributions of significant figures, illustrating their influences on contemporary and subsequent literature while grounding their work within the socio-political landscape of the time. Oscar Fay Adams, an established literary critic and biographer of the late 19th century, was deeply influenced by the intellectual currents of his era, which emphasized a growing interest in literary biography and criticism. His experiences with academia and the publishing world uniquely positioned him to compile this handbook, aiming to illuminate the often-overlooked connections among English authors. Adams' commitment to providing a comprehensive yet accessible overview reflects his broader belief in the vital importance of literary heritage. A Brief Handbook of English Authors is an essential read for anyone looking to deepen their understanding of England's rich literary tradition. Scholars, students, and avid readers alike will benefit from Adams' analytical lens, providing a nuanced appreciation of authors whose works have shaped the very fabric of English literature. The Poems of Andrew Lang John Sloan, 2025-05-30 Andrew Lang (1844-1912) made his name in the last quarter of the Victorian era in a remarkable number of literary and intellectual fields: as popular poet, influential literary critic, editor of the classic series of Fairy Books for the young, and as author of groundbreaking books on anthropology, Homeric scholarship, folklore, and history. This is the first annotated edition of Lang's poems, bringing together his books of verse and over 150 additional poems, many of them collected for the first time. John Sloan's introduction provides a compelling account of Lang's achievements as a poet whose first two books of verse, Ballads and Lyrics of Old France and Ballades in Blue China, were a harbinger of the English aesthetic movement Lang helped to create an abiding interest in French poetry and to encourage a new spirit of literary cosmopolitanism in England He also widened the appeal of poetry in an age of new knowledge advancing literacy and the growth of the popular press The authoritative text is accompanied by extensive notes identifying important allusions and significant connections between the poems and Lang s other writings In the headnote to each poem the reader will find a record of publication history textual variants and sources including details of the original sources of Lang s verse translations from the French Greek and Latin The edition offers an invaluable guide to the study of Lang s poetry for students and scholars of nineteenth century British poetry     The Review of Reviews Albert Shaw,1894     American Monthly Review of Reviews Albert Shaw,1894     Report of the State School Book Commission, 1925 Ohio.
