Comparative Perspectives on School Textbooks Dobrochna Hildebrandt-Wypych, Alexander W. Wiseman, 2021-04-22 This book examines the discourses on nation building civic identity minorities and the formation of religious identities in school textbooks worldwide It offers up to date practical and scholarly information on qualitative and mixed method textbook analysis as well as the broader context of critical comparative textbook and curriculum analyses in and across selected countries The volume offers unique and empirical research on how internal educational policies and ideological goals of dominant social political and economic groups affect textbook production and the curricular aims in different educational systems worldwide Chapters address the role of school textbooks in developing nationhood the creation of citizenship through school textbooks the complexity of gender in normative discourses and the intersection of religion and culture in school textbooks American Pageant AP Test Preparations 12th Edition Deirdre Kennedy, Kennedy, Sidney, 2001-12

American Pageant Ap Version Plus Study Guide 12th Edition David Kennedy, 2002-02-01 Asian American Education Clara C. Park, Russell Endo, Stacey J. Lee, Xue Lan Rong, 2007-07-01 This research anthology is the fourth volume in a series sponsored by the Special Interest Group Research on the Education of Asian and Pacific Americans SIG REAPA of the American Educational Research Association and National Association for Asian and Pacific American Education This series explores and explains the lived experiences of Asian and Americans as they acculturate to American schools develop literacy and claim their place in U S society and blends the work of well established Asian American scholars with the voices of emerging researchers and examines in close detail important issues in Asian American education and socialization Scholars and educational practitioners will find this book to be an invaluable and enlightening resource History Textbooks and the Wars in Asia Gi-Wook Shin, Daniel C. Snider, 2011-02-08 Over the past fifteen years Northeast Asia has witnessed growing intraregional exchanges and interactions especially in the realms of culture and economy Still the region cannot escape from the burden of history This book examines the formation of historical memory in four Northeast Asian societies China Japan South Korea and Taiwan and the United States focusing on the period from the beginning of the Sino Japanese war in 1931 until the formal conclusion of the Pacific War with the San Francisco Peace Treaty of 1951 The contributors analyse the recent efforts of Korean Japanese and Chinese scholars to write a common history of Northeast Asia and question the underlying motivations for their efforts and subsequent achievements In doing so they contend that the greatest obstacle to reconciliation in Northeast Asia lies in the existence of divided and often conflicting historical memories The book argues that a more fruitful approach lies in understanding how historical memory has evolved in each country and been incorporated into respective master narratives Through uncovering the existence of different master narratives it is hoped citizens will develop a more self critical self reflective approach to their own history and that such an introspective effort has the potential to lay the foundation for greater self and mutual understanding and eventual historical reconciliation in the region This book will be essential reading for students and scholars of Asian history Asian education and international relations in East Asia

Social Studies for Secondary Schools Alan J. Singer, 2008-10-26 This popular text advocates an inquiry and activity based view of social studies teaching that respects the points of view of students and teachers Based in practice and experience it offers systematic support and open honest advice for new teachers is conversational not pedantic and provides lots of examples While the structure and most of the topics remain largely the same as before this Third Edition presents new lesson ideas in every chapter especially designed to help new teachers to address learning standards to work in inclusive settings and to promote literacy and the use of technology in social studies classrooms puts a heavier focus on what is important to know and why includes new essays on the politics of social studies education responds to opponents of project or activity based social studies instruction and multicultural education with a sharpened defense of both of these approaches throughout the book Intended as a text for undergraduate and graduate pre service social studies methods courses this text is also useful for in service training programs as a reference for new social studies teachers and as a resource for experienced social studies educators who are engaged in rethinking their teaching practice

American Pageant Volume 2 12th Edition and American Spirit, Volume 2 10th Edition and Atlas David Kennedy, 2002-03-01 United States Presidential Elections , Children's Books in Print, 2007 ,2006 48 Liberal Lies About American History Larry Schweikart, 2008-09-04 A historian debunks four dozen PC myths about our nation s past Over the last forty years history textbooks have become more and more politically correct and distorted about our country's past argues professor Larry Schweikart. The result he says is that students graduate from high school and even college with twisted beliefs about economics, foreign policy, war, religion, race relations, and many other subjects. As he did in his popular A Patriot's History of the United States, Professor Schweikart corrects liberal bias by rediscovering facts that were once widely known. He challenges distorted books by name and debunks forty-eight common myths. A sample: The founders wanted to create a wall of separation between church and state. Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation only because he needed black soldiers. Truman ordered the bombing of Hiroshima to intimidate the Soviets with atomic diplomacy. Mikhail Gorbachev, not Ronald Reagan, was responsible for ending the Cold War. America's past, though not perfect, is far more admirable than you were probably taught.

Hollywood or History Scott L. Roberts, Charles J. Elfer, 2018-07-01 Teaching and learning through Hollywood or commercial film productions is anything but a new approach and has been something of a mainstay in the classroom for nearly a century. Purposeful and effective instruction through film, however, is not problem-free and there are many challenges that accompany classroom applications of Hollywood motion pictures. In response to the problems and possibilities associated with teaching through film, we have collaboratively developed a collection of practical, classroom-ready lesson ideas that might bridge gaps between theory and practice and assist teachers endeavoring to make effective use of film in their classrooms. We believe that film can serve as a powerful tool in the social studies classroom and, where appropriately utilized, foster critical thinking and civic-mindedness. The College Career and Civic Life (C3) framework represents a renewed and formalized emphasis on the perennial social studies goals of deep thinking, reading, and writing. We believe that as teachers endeavor to digest and implement the platform in schools and classrooms across the country, the desire for access to structured strategies that lead to more active and rigorous investigation in the social studies classroom will grow increasingly acute. Our hope is that this edited book might play a small role in the larger project of supporting practitioners, specifically K-12 teachers of United States history, by offering a collection of classroom-ready tools based on the Hollywood or History strategy and designed to foster historical inquiry through the careful use of historically-themed motion pictures. The book consists of K-5 and 6-12 lesson plans addressing the following historical eras: Adapted from UCLA National Center for History in Schools

Keeping the Republic Christine Barbour, Gerald C. Wright, 2025-02-22 Keeping the Republic draws students into the study of American politics, showing them how to think critically about who gets what and how while exploring the twin themes of power and citizenship. Throughout the text and its features, authors Christine Barbour and Gerald C. Wright reveal how to effectively apply critical thinking skills to the political information encountered every day. With students living through one of the most challenging periods in American life, the Twelfth Edition is a much-needed resource to help them make sense of politics in America today and become savvy consumers of political information.

American Pageant Advanced Placement 12th Edition Plus American Spirit Volume 1 10th Edition David Kennedy, 2004-02-01 Tears in the Darkness Michael

Norman, Elizabeth M. Norman, 2009-06-09 Tears in the Darkness is an altogether new look at World War II that exposes the myths of war and shows the extent of suffering and loss on both sides For the first four months of 1942 U S Filipino and Japanese soldiers fought what was America's first major land battle of World War II the battle for the tiny Philippine peninsula of Bataan It ended with the surrender of 76 000 Filipinos and Americans the single largest defeat in American military history The defeat though was only the beginning as Michael and Elizabeth M Norman make dramatically clear in this powerfully original book From then until the Japanese surrendered in August 1945 the prisoners of war suffered an ordeal of unparalleled cruelty and savagery forty one months of captivity starvation rations dehydration hard labor deadly disease and torture far from the machinations of General Douglas MacArthur The Normans bring to the story remarkable feats of reportage and literary empathy Their protagonist Ben Steele is a figure out of Hemingway a young cowboy turned sketch artist from Montana who joined the army to see the world Juxtaposed against Steele's story and the sobering tale of the Death March and its aftermath is the story of a number of Japanese soldiers The Autobiography of Joseph A. Bagnall

Joseph A. Bagnall, 2009 A compelling account of a career in education Dr Bagnall has served as an elementary school teacher a public and private high school teacher a professor in community colleges and an administrator in a college continuing education division His many challenges contrast sharply with the problems of today's educators but his story offers insights and inspiration to those who care about schools and those who teach in them Cents and Sustainability Cheryl

Desha, Charlie Hargroves, Michael Harrison Smith, 2010-09-23 Cents and Sustainability is a clear sighted response to the 1987 call by Dr Gro Brundtland in Our Common Future to achieve a new era of economic growth that is forceful and at the same time socially and environmentally sustainable The Brundtland Report argued that not only was it achievable but that it was an urgent imperative in order to achieve a transition to sustainable development while significantly reducing poverty and driving clean and green investment With some still arguing for significantly slowing economic growth in order to reduce pressures on the environment this new book Cents and Sustainability shows that it is possible to reconcile the need for economic growth and environmental sustainability through a strategy to decouple economic growth from environmental pressures combined with a renewed commitment to achieve significant environmental restoration and poverty reduction Beginning with a brief overview of some of the most pressing environmental challenges of our time the book then explains decoupling theory overviews a number of factors that can undermine and even block efforts to decouple in both developed and developing countries and then discusses a number of key considerations to assist the development of national decoupling strategies The book then focuses on presenting evidence to support greater action not just on climate change but also on decoupling economic growth from the loss of biodiversity and the deterioration of natural systems freshwater extraction waste production and air pollution In the lead up to the 2012 United Nations Earth Summit and beyond Cents and Sustainability will be a crucial guide to inform and assist nations to develop strategies to significantly reduce environmental pressures strengthen their economy create jobs and reduce poverty I commend the team from The Natural Edge Project and their partners for undertaking to develop a response to Our Common Future to mark its 20th anniversary Dr Gro Brundtland Sequel to The Natural Advantage of Nations Published with The Natural Edge Project Baking Powder Wars Linda Civitello, 2017-05-22 First patented in 1856 baking powder sparked a classic American struggle for business supremacy For nearly a century brands battled to win loyal consumers for the new leavening miracle transforming American commerce and advertising even as they touched off a chemical revolution in the world's kitchens Linda Civitello chronicles the titanic struggle that reshaped America's diet and rewrote its recipes Presidents and robber barons bare knuckle litigation and bold faced bribery competing formulas and ruthless pricing Civitello shows how hundreds of companies sought market control focusing on the big four of Rumford Calumet Clabber Girl and the once popular brand Royal She also tells the war's untold stories from Royal's claims that its competitors sold poison to the Ku Klux Klan's campaign against Clabber Girl and its German Catholic owners Exhaustively researched and rich with detail Baking Powder Wars is the forgotten story of how a dawning industry raised Cain and cakes cookies muffins pancakes donuts and biscuits
