The American Promise, Volume I: To 1877 James L. Roark, Michael P. Johnson, Patricia Cline Cohen, Sarah Stage, Susan M. Hartmann, 2012-01-09 The American Promise is more teachable and memorable than any other U S survey text The balanced narrative braids together political and social history so that students can discern overarching trends as well as individual stories The voices of hundreds of Americans from Presidents to pipe fitters and sharecroppers to suffragettes animate the past and make concepts memorable The past comes alive for students through dynamic special features and a stunning and distinctive visual program Over 775 contemporaneous illustrations more than any competing text draw students into the text and more than 180 full color maps increase students geographic literacy A rich array of special features complements the narrative offering more points of departure for assignments and discussion Longstanding favorites include Documenting the American Promise Historical Questions The Promise of Technology and Beyond American s Borders representing a key part of a our effort to increase attention paid to the global context of American history

Was the American Revolution a Mistake? Burton Weltman, 2013-08-27 Why was George Washington dismayed by the outcome of the American Revolution Would slavery still exist if the South had not seceded from the Union in 1861 Might socialists rule America today if Teddy Roosevelt had not run for President and lost in 1912 History is full of contingencies People confront problems and debate options for solving them Then they make a choice and face the consequences of their choice Often they wonder if a different choice might have been better Was the American Revolution a mistake Was racial segregation inevitable Was the Cold War necessary Americans have repeatedly asked these sorts of questions as they examined the consequences of their choices This is a book about revisiting crucial choices people made in history and examining the consequences of those choices for them and for us It demonstrates a method of teaching history that recreates events as people experienced them and asks important questions that troubled them but that rarely appear in conventional textbooks Unlike conventional methods that often reduce history to names dates and factoids for students to memorize it is a method that brings past debates to life the losers as well as the winners points of view and makes the subject exciting In studying history as choice students examine the problems people faced their options for solving them their decision making processes and the choices they made Then students evaluate the consequences of those choices both for people in the past and us today They explore what might have happened if different choices had been made Finally students relate the consequences of those past choices to problems we face today and the choices we need to make History as choice is a practical and practicable method It has been designed to satisfy the curriculum goals of the National Council for the Social Studies and the book explains how it can be used to satisfy any state or local curriculum standards The book also identifies and illustrates resources that can be used with this method from data bases to popular music and explains how teachers can gradually integrate it into their courses In the first part of the book the method of history as choice is explained using the question of whether the American Revolution was a mistake as a case in point The second part of the book explores thirteen other questions about significant issues and events in American history as additional examples of how one might teach history as choice American Republic to 1877, Unit 5 Resources McGraw-Hill Staff,2002-05 Provides blackline masters at unit chapter and section levels for unit 5 chapters 11 14 includes complete answer key The American Republic to 1877 Glencoe/McGraw-Hill,2004* Provides assessment blackline masters at unit chapter and section levels includes complete answer key The American Republic to 1877 Glencoe/McGraw-Hill,200?
