

When it all started

I was just at home one day and my brother was being taken to fight in the war and I could not just let him go on his own so I went to help.

Getting ready for war

I wasn't sure what I was going to do but I knew I had to be there for my brother, so the guy in charge told me I could help with any medical things and make food for the soldiers.

Learning how to do the work

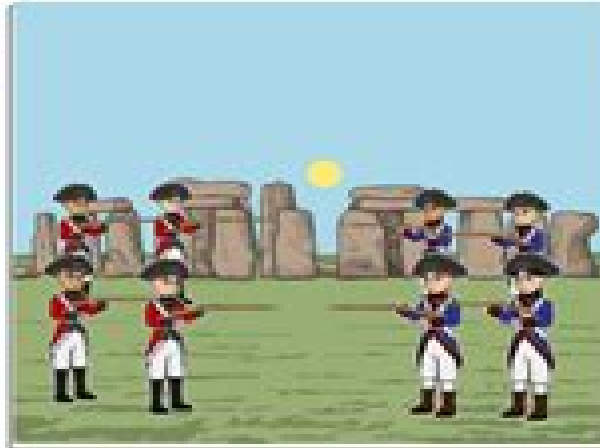

I go into a tent and a woman is there telling me everything I need to know, she just hoping that nothing will happen to my brother.

Talking to my brother before it all starts

I met up with my brother to talk to him about how everything is going to be ok and when this is all over we would go home and have the best meal of our lives.

During the war

The war had begun and a lot of people were getting hurt so after helping one person I look outside and I don't see my brother and next thing I see is a guy bringing him to me and he was badly hurt.

when it all ended..... for me

We all tried everything we could but nothing was working and next thing I knew he is not breathing and I knew he was gone. I tried to keep myself together but I couldn't, I broke down right there.
