Ethiopian Migrant Domestic Workers Bina Fernandez, 2019-08-06 This book tells the stories of the Ethiopian women who migrate to work as domestic workers in the Middle East Drawing on qualitative research in Ethiopia Lebanon and Kuwait the author reveals how women's aspirations to migrate are constituted within unequal gendered structures of opportunity in Ethiopia and asks us to consider how gender race class and nationality intersect in the construction of migrant subjectivities and agency By analysing the impact of migration on social reproduction both in Ethiopia and the destination countries the book offers fresh empirical and theoretical insights into the largest stream of women's autonomous international migration from Africa

Holy War Ian Campbell, 2022-05-01 In 1935 Fascist Italy invaded the sovereign state of Ethiopia a war of conquest that triggered a chain of events culminating in the Second World War In this stunning and highly original tale of two Churches historian Ian Campbell brings a whole new perspective to the story revealing that bishops of the Italian Catholic Church facilitated the invasion by sanctifying it as a crusade against the world's second oldest national Church Cardinals and archbishops rallied the support of Catholic Italy for Il Duce's invading armies by denouncing Ethiopian Christians as heretics and schismatics and announcing that the onslaught was an assignment from God Campbell marshals evidence from three decades of research to expose the martyrdom of thousands of clergy of the venerable Ethiopian Church the burning and looting of hundreds of Ethiopia's ancient monasteries and churches and the instigation and arming of a jihad against Ethiopian Christendom the likes of which had not been seen since the Middle Ages Finally Holy War traces how after Italy's surrender to the Allies the horrors of this pogrom were swept under the carpet of history and the leading culprits put on the road to sainthood A Story in Stones John Jeremy Hespeler-Boulton, J. J. Hespeler-Boulton, 2006 A Story in Stones explores the relationship between Portugal and Ethiopia during the 16th and 17th centuries from a unique perspective Through historical research and many years of fieldwork J J Hespeler Boulton reveals Portugal's early Renaissance contact within the Ethiopian Highlands using a description of contemporary architectural vestige What started as a mission of exploration and discovery for the Christian kingdom of the great Emperor Prester John and Portugal's search for an ally against Islamic forces developed into diplomatic military religious cultural and most long lasting of all architectural ties between Portugal and Ethiopia This great search started with the overland route of Portuguese explorer Pro da Covilh that led him to the Ethiopian Highlands in 1493 thirty seven years before Portugal's diplomatic embassy mission of 1520 The story within the stones can still be seen in the ancient Portuguese and Gondarine ruins which are still of great influence in today's architectural design in this region J J Hespeler Boulton explores over thirty different sites within the Highlands many of which are remote and rarely visited Fully illustrated with colour photos and drawings Review We are deeply indebted to Jeremy Hespeler Boulton for his initiative in studying Portuguese Portuguese Indian or Ethio Portuguese buildings in Ethiopia and thus opening an entirely new field of Ethio Portuguese studies Richard Pankhurst Institute of Ethiopian Studies Addis Ababa University About the Author J J Hespeler Boulton is an Art Architectural Historian and Associate of the Institute of Ethiopian Studies Addis Ababa University Having worked in Portugal as a lecturer at the University of Lisbon an associate for CIDEHUS the research and development organization at the University of Vora and as a Master Builder and Stonemason restoring old and traditional houses for over twelve years he is uniquely qualified in this field of research

Joseph's Glory Through Trial - Amharic Yonas Assefa, 2017-02-04 The story of Joseph in this book is based on Genesis Chapter 37-47 from the Holy Bible with Ethiopian Orthodox Christian art illustrations It contains 31 color illustrations and text both in English and Amharic There is a long history of Christian art in Ethiopia The Garima Gospels housed in Ethiopia's Abba Garima Monastery are the oldest known illuminated Christian manuscripts in existence This book tries to continue this holy tradition of teaching the Holy Bible with illustrations This book is designed to help children learn and retain the story in a fun and educational way It has been proven that learning is enhanced through the use of several senses Study shows that we retain 20 percent of what we hear and 10 percent of what we see But we retain 50 percent of what we see and hear The reading of the story will hopefully help your children to grow closer to God

My Lifelong Journey from Livestock Caretaker to a Climate Change Advocate Mengistu Woube, 2024-10-01 The main purpose of writing this book is to share my lifelong experiences gained throughout the years covering major topics including the environment and climate change that I felt are important to share with my readers The topics depict my accumulated knowledge and skills and the challenges I faced indicating how each of us go through ups and downs in life Much of the discussion focuses on my exposure to tough and successful times in Ethiopia Sweden and in 30 other countries around the globe The second purpose of preparing this book is to inform my readers about the Ethio Swedish historical links and current relationships and to answer a primary question that comes to mind and that is what can we learn from Sweden how Sweden handle environment and adopt climate change as well as to thank the Swedish people and government for their kind provision of scholarships and funds for my higher education research community development and overall well being throughout the years I have lived there I am hoping that my life s autobiography covered in this book will inspire communities and especially young people to be able to walk on the right path and achieve their dreams in life Besides I hope it will enlighten my readers about the causes and effects of the on going human activities on the natural biophysical and human environments in Ethiopia Sweden and other countries around the globe

A Story in Stones: Portugal's Influence on Culture and Architecture in the Highlands of Ethiopia 1493-1634 (Updated & Revised 2nd Edition) J. J.

Hespeler-Boulton,2011-04 This newly updated and revised second edition of A Story in Stones explores the relationship between Portugal and Ethiopia during the XVI and XVII centuries from the unique perspective of stonework Through research and many years of working in the field J J Hespeler Boulton examines the first early Renaissance links between the principal European superpower of the day and the ancient Christian empire of Ethiopia s Highlands using contemporary architectural vestige as a catalyst for his findings What began as Portugal s mission to discover an unknown world soon became a quest to find Prester John the legendary Christian priest king presumed to be living on the far side of Islam In an attempt to form a Christian military alliance the search was both concluded and in a manner initiated by explorer P ro da Covilh in 1493 with his overland journey to the Highland court of Emperor Eskendar This was instrumental in setting up a string of ties between the two nations diplomatic military religious cultural and most long lasting of all architectural almost three decades before Portugal s diplomatic mission of 1520 The fascinating story contained in the stones can yet be seen in the Portuguese and Gondarine ruins that dot the Gojjam and Lake Tana regions they continue to influence today s Highland architectural design Hespeler Boulton examines over thirty different sites many of which are remote and rarely visited Fully illustrated with colour photos and drawings About the Author J J Hespeler Boulton is an Art Architectural Historian and Associate of the Institute of Ethiopian Studies Addis Ababa University He lived for twenty five years in Portugal during that time making several forays into the Ethiopian Highlands on behalf of the Department of History and CIDEHUS Centro de Investiga o e Desenvolvimento em Ci ncias Humanas e Sociais the research and development institute at the University of vora For the two year period 2007 2009 he lived in and conducted research from Bahir Dar on Lake Tana Ethiopia during which time he found his historical conclusions were at considerable variance with colleagues in the History Department at Bahir Dar University disagreements which have prompted the revisions leading to this current updated and revised edition of A Story in Stones

Historical Dictionary of Ethiopia David H. Shinn,Thomas P. Ofcansky,2013-04-11 Ethiopia is clearly one of the most important countries in Africa First of all with about 75 million people it is the third most populous country in Africa Second it is very strategically located in the Horn of Africa and bordering Eritrea Sudan Kenya and Somalia with some of whom it has touchy and sometimes worse relations Yet its capital Addis Ababa is the headquarters of the African Union the prime meeting place for Africa s leaders So if things went poorly in Ethiopia this would not be good for Africa and for a long time this was the case with internal disruption rife until it was literally suppressed under the strong rule of the recently deceased Meles Zenawi The Historical Dictionary of Ethiopia Second Edition covers the history of Ethiopia through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has several hundred cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Ethiopia The Material Culture of Failure

David Jeevendrampillai,Aaron Parkhurst,Timothy Carroll,Julie Shackelford,2020-05-27 What happens when objects behave unexpectedly or fail to do what they should Who defines failure Is failure always bad Rather than viewing concepts such as failure incoherence or incompetence as antithetical to social life this innovative new book examines the unexpected and surprising ways in which failure can lead to positive and creative results Combining both theoretical and ethnographic approaches to failure The Material Culture of Failure explores how failure manifests itself and operates in a variety of contexts The editors present ten ethnographic encounters of failure from areas as diverse as design textiles religion beauty and physical failure covering Europe North America Asia Africa and the Arabian Gulf Identifying common themes such as interpersonal national and religious articulations of power and identity the book shows some of the underlying assumptions that are revealed when materials fail designs crumble or things develop unexpectedly The first anthropological study dedicated to theorizing failure this innovative collection offers fresh insights based on the latest scholarship Destined to stimulate a new area of research the book makes a vital contribution to material culture studies and related social science theory Censorship Derek Jones,2001-12-01

Censorship A World Encyclopedia presents a comprehensive view of censorship from Ancient Egypt to those modern societies that claim to have abolished the practice For each country in the world the history of censorship is described and placed in context and the media censored are examined art cyberspace literature music the press popular culture radio television and the theatre not to mention the censorship of language the most fundamental censorship of all Also included are surveys of major controversies and chronicles of resistance Censorship will be an essential reference work for students of the many subjects touched by censorship and for all those who are interested in the history of and contemporary fate of freedom of expression The Power of the Cross Alfredo

Johnson,2014-11-17 This book outline various order of symbolism referred to the cross hidden in the Holy Bible And it is for this reason why this book is presented to help others to understand the true nature of the revelation of the Power of the Cross The New Cambridge History of the Bible: Volume 2, From 600 to 1450 Richard Marsden,E. Ann Matter,2012-04-26 This volume examines the development and use of the Bible from late Antiquity to the Reformation tracing both its geographical and its intellectual journeys from its homelands throughout the Middle East and Mediterranean and into northern Europe Richard Marsden and E Ann Matter's volume provides a balanced treatment of eastern and western biblical traditions highlighting processes of transmission and modes of exegesis among Roman and Orthodox Christians Jews and Muslims and illuminating the role of the Bible in medieval inter religious dialogue Translations into Ethiopic Slavic Armenian and Georgian vernaculars as well as Romance and Germanic are treated in detail along with the theme of allegorized spirituality and established forms of glossing The chapters take the study of Bible history beyond the cloisters of medieval monasteries and ecclesiastical schools to consider the influence of biblical texts on vernacular poetry prose drama law and the visual arts of East and West

Christians in the City of Nairobi Kyama Mugambi, Mark Shaw, 2025-02-06 In this book Kyama Mugambi and Mark Shaw examine the diverse expressions of Christianity in Metropolitan Nairobi a city boasting a population of ten million which is one of the most religiously pluralistic cities in the world Founded in 1899 as little more than a train depot for the Uganda Railway Nairobi has come a long way mosques megachurches and temples serve as the backdrop for examining Christianity and public life in this vibrant city This volume covers all the major Christian traditions practiced in the city including Protestantism Orthodoxy and Catholicism The city is a laboratory of a new global pluralism and a vital centre of a new global Christian pluralism specifically Mugambi and Shaw argue that this kind of pluralism is reshaping religion everywhere in the majority world Other themes include the role of women in Christianity Kenyan Independent Churches and the Christian youth movement The book illuminates how through Christianity Africans have begun to come to terms with modern urban realities including religious pluralism hypothesising how this process could unfold in other parts of the world

Ethnographic Chicago: Considering College Students and Ethiopian & Tamilian Immigrants Missiologically, 2008 Don't be fooled by the title of this book If you are expecting another dry heap of irrelevant missiological research you are going to be sadly disappointed With flair and wit Cody C Lorange slices through the chaff of ethnographic examination to produce Ethnographic Chicago a lively and energetic missiological rumination that has major ramifications for the Southern Baptist churches as well as further afield The local denominational venture is presented complete with all its warts and sparkling insights to encourage other North American missionaries to employ similar missional reflection as well as to serve as a methodological case study to bring about growth for the Kingdom's sake Dr Robert L

The Origins of the New Churches Movement in Southern Ethiopia, 1927-1944 Brian L. Fargher, 2023-09-20 This study describes the beginnings of a movement which has created another face for Ethiopian Christianity The expatriate missionary evangelists who in 1927 were encouraged by Emperor Haile Selassie to work in southern Ethiopia intentionally bypassed the Orthodox model and made a fresh start Three of the many facets of the movement comprise the body of the book There is the religious backdrop of Orthodox Christianity and the expatriates fundamentalist traditions then the praxis and polity of their work finally the post Occupation outcome which confirmed their choices Since its beginning in 1932 the New Churches Movement has impacted every part of Ethiopian society religious political and socio economic It demonstrates that a fresh start can be complementary rather than competitive The movement s success encourages missionary evangelists to continue making new beginnings

YHWH SPEAK: Through Symbolism, Sign, Allegory and Parables Waheba Selassie, 2017-10-08 On page 70 71 of the Kebra Nagast Solomon saw in a vision YHWH as the SUN come down from heaven in the land of Judah and lighted it up then went to Ethiopia and never return This same SUN as YHWH came down again in a next generation time in the country of Judah and the Israelites paid no heed to it and they plotted to extinguish its light but it rose below the earth and in a place where it was not expected and it shined upon the country of Ethiopia Rome and afterwards upon all those who believed in it This Light is no other the Holy Trinity and as when Christ was born in Bethlehem of Judah and Ethiopia as outlined in the chapters above confirming not only in the Kebra Nagast The Glory of the Kings but also in the Holy Bible Blessed be the Holy Trinity Qedamawi Haile Selassie and Dingel Maryam forevermore Amen

Creating Standards Dmitry Bondarev, Alessandro Gori, Lameen Souag, 2019-04-15 Manuscript cultures based on Arabic script feature various tendencies in standardisation of orthography script types and layout Unlike previous studies this book steps outside disciplinary and regional boundaries and provides a typological cross cultural comparison of standardisation processes in twelve Arabic influenced writing traditions where different cultures languages and scripts interact A wide range of case studies give insights into the factors behind uniformity and variation in Judeo Arabic in Hebrew script South Palestinian Christian Arabic New Persian Aljamiado of the Spanish Moriscos Ottoman Turkish a single multilingual Ottoman manuscript Sino Arabic in northwest China Malay Jawi in the Moluccas Kanuri and Hausa in Nigeria Kabyle in Algeria and Ethiopian Fida script as used to transliterate Arabic One of the findings of this volume is that different domains of manuscript cultures have distinct paths of standardisation so that orthography tends to develop its own standardisation principles irrespective of norms applied to layout and script types This book will appeal to readers interested in manuscript studies sociolinguistics literacy studies and history of writing

The Christian Communities of Jerusalem and the Holy Land Anthony O'Mahony, 2003 The Christian presence in Jerusalem has always been diverse and cosmopolitan encompassing numerous churches representative of ecclesiastical traditions older than many nation states and ethnic groups Indeed the city's various Christian communities are administered by three Patriarchs five Catholic patriarchal vicars four archbishops and two Protestant bishops From the end of the Crusader period onwards these communities have come under the rule of numerous political entities from the Ottoman Empire through to the British Mandatory Administration and the modern states of Jordan and Israel The complex interaction of religion and politics and the involvement of Christians in politics has been a constant theme in the religious culture of Jerusalem The essays collected here provide a comprehensive historical religious and political survey of the Christian communities of modern Jerusalem Individual essays deal with topics ranging from church state relations to women missionaries and various expressions of Eastern and Western Christian presence and taken as a whole offer a fascinating overview of Christianity in the Holy Land at the beginning of a new century
