Fabulous Identities Patricia Hannon,2023-07-10 Fabulous Identities revises traditional interpretations of the fairy tale vogue which was dominated by salon women in the last decade of the French seventeenth century This study of women s tale narratives is set into an investigation of how aristocratic identity was transformed by political and social realignments forced by royal absolutism or ambitious materialism Women s distinctive contributions to the genre are defined by drawing upon various texts that articulated the century s moral cultural and aesthetic values as well as upon contemporary critical perspectives including seventeenth century historical and cultural studies Caught up in the philosophical political and social controversy over woman s nature seventeenth century women writers benefited from salon culture and their access to writing through the literary genres of fairy tales and novels to explore new identities and expand representations of subjectivity Women s tales can be seen as a theater for staging an authorial persona at odds with their portrait as presented in male authored didactic treatises and in the fairy tales of Charles Perrault At a time when the pressures of social conformity weighed heavily upon them the conteuses highlight through metamorphosis the affective dimension together with its impact on evolving notions of personal autonomy

The Emblem in Renaissance and Baroque Europe: Tradition and Variety Alison Adams,Anthony J. Harper,2023-11-27

The volume is a cross section of contributions to the Glasgow International Emblem Conference 1990 and demonstrates the range of research currently under way into the emblem tradition in the Renaissance and Baroque periods and the variety of its development across the centuries in many European countries The seventeen papers are arranged here in broad national and thematic groupings showing the emblem tradition in France Italy the Low Countries Germany Britain within the field of alchemy and extending into wider European traditions The volume is generously illustrated and an index is provided for the orientation of the reader An impression of the richness of the European emblem tradition is given for the general reader whilst the specialist is provided with a comprehensive insight into the many and varied strands of current emblem research and the diversity of approach adopted by scholars internationally

Performative Bodies, Hybrid Tongues Julian Vigo,2010

This book reconsiders the body in literature and makes a case for visual representation as a physical and gesticulative domain for rethinking the constructions of gender nationalism and sexuality Examining literary production from the eleventh century until the present the author argues that the body in contemporary North Africa and Latin America serves as a physical and symbolic terrain upon which sexual textual national racial and linguistic identities are vectored and through which postcolonial and hegemonic antagonisms of power and identity are resolved Rather than embracing third world identity as a residual repository of western thought colonization and linguistic infusion the author suggests that the paradigm of cultural identity in the Maghreb and Latin America is best understood through an examination of the emergent corporeal articulations of subjectivity prevalent in these literatures and visual cultures The text examines the body as a critical landscape through which the various discourses of nationhood gender and sexuality converge in order to construct a reading of the social that neither amasses subjectivity as singular under the rubric of the third world nor couches the other within static notions of gendered sexual or racial identities

Intimacies in Seventeenth-Century French Literature Marianne Legault,2016-04-15 Examining literary discourses on female friendship and intimacy in seventeenth century France this study takes as its premise the view that unlike men women have been denied for centuries the possibility of same sex friendship The author explores the effect of this homosocial and homoprivileged heritage on the deployment and constructions of female friendship and homoerotic relationships as thematic narratives in works by male and female writers in seventeenth century France The book consists of three parts the first surveys the history of male thinkers denial of female friendship concluding with a synopsis of the cultural representations of female same sex practices The second analyzes female intimacy and homoerotism as imagined appropriated and finally repudiated by Honoré d'Urfé's pastoral novel L'Astrée and Isaac de Benserade's seemingly lesbian friendly comedy Iphis et Iante The third turns to unprecedented depictions of female intimate and homoerotic bonds in Madeleine de Scudéry's novel Mathilde and Charlotte Rose de Caumont de La Force's fairy tale Plus Belle que Féerie This study reveals a female literary genealogy of intimacies between women in seventeenth century France and adds to the research in lesbian and queer studies fields in which pre-eighteenth century French literary texts are rare Le Miroir des femmes
