Relational Responses to Trauma in Twenty-First-Century French and Spanish Women's Writing Hannie Lawlor, 2024-09-05 Relational Responses to Trauma in Twenty First Century French and Spanish Women s Writing offers new insight into what it means to write relational lives It broadens the parameters of existing discussions in terms of geography as well as genre drawing together two literatures whose prominence in life writing theory to date could hardly be more different while French women s writing has long been at the centre of international discussions of autobiography the relative invisibility of Spanish women s writing remains striking The dialogue that thus underpins this study between diverse twenty first century case studies and broader approaches to life writing shines a light on what is gained from inviting different voices into the discussion These narrative projects challenge longstanding critical assumptions in autobiography studies and trauma theory about how writers can and should represent the multiple perspectives that are at the heart of intergenerational stories In exploring the narrative solutions that these texts propose in response to the ethical questions they navigate this book shows that writing relational lives rests on far more than the mere recounting of a shared history Relating in these texts it proposes is an act embedded in the telling of the story It is a mode of testifying together to traumatic experience one that reveals a powerful preoccupation in contemporary women's life writing practice with making more audible the many voices and versions that go unheard

French Fiction in the Mitterrand Years Colin Davis, Elizabeth Fallaize, 2000 The authors examine some of the most popular and some of the most challenging of texts that emerged during Francois Mitterrand's presidency They relate these texts to the dominant literary and cultural trends of the period

Damned Women Jennifer Waelti-Walters, 2000 Damned Women charts the previously unexplored literary territory of the place of lesbians in the French novel Beginning with the early depictions of lesbians as decadent monsters by nineteenth century male authors such as Diderot Balzac and Gautier Jennifer Waelti Walters shows how later little known female writers struggled to free lesbian characters from imposed stereotypes While homosexual men are legion in the history of French literature and criticism until now no critic writing in French or English has given the same sort of attention to lesbians Waelti Walters covers two hundred years of fiction beginning with the publication of Diderot's The Nun in 1796 and ending with present day lesbian writers Jocelyne Fran ois Mireille Best H l ne de Monferrand and the authors connected to Genevi ve Pastre's lesbian publishing house While she deals with renowned authors such as Violette Leduc and Monique Wittig including their respective literary and personal relationships with Simone de Beauvoir and H l ne Cixous many of the writers discussed will be unknown to most readers Their novels vary from the extraordinarily powerful to the utterly trite by providing the first comprehensive guide to this body of work Waelti Walters sheds light on French literary and cultural history Waelti Walters shows how the lesbian authors of this literature had little or no contact with each other let alone with lesbians outside France She describes their world and its effects on their work showing how their situation differs from that of British and North American lesbians Damned Women tells a story of alienation persecution and isolation within a culture It is a cultural and literary commentary full of new information forgotten or little known authors poignant surprises and unexpected interrelationships Jennifer Waelti Walters is retired from the Department of Women's Studies University of Victoria

On Both Sides of the Tracks Morgane Cadieu, 2024-01-09 An analysis of social mobility in contemporary French literature that offers a new perspective on figures who move between social classes Social climbers have often been the core characters of novels Their position between traditional tiers in society makes them touchstones for any political and literary moment including our own Morgane Cadieu's study looks at a certain kind of social climber in contemporary French literature whom she calls the parvenant Taken from the French term parvenu which refers to one who is newly arrived a parvenant is a character who shuttles between social groups A parvenant may become part of a new social class but devises literary ways to come back constantly undoing any fixed idea of social affiliation Focusing on recent French novels and autobiographies On Both Sides of the Tracks speaks powerfully to issues of emancipation and class Cadieu offers a fresh critical look at tales of social mobility in the work of Annie Ernaux Kaoutar Harchi Michel Houellebecq douard Louis and Marie NDiaye among others shedding fascinating light on upward mobility today as a formal literary problem Men of Their Words Nigel Harkness,2017-12-02 Whereas the centrality of femininity to nineteenth century French fiction has been the focus of widespread critical attention masculinity has until recently received little sustained treatment in either the literary or socio historical domains In this book Nigel Harkness uses the fiction of George Sand 1804 1876 the pre eminent woman writer of the period to explore questions of masculinity as they pertain to the nineteenth century French novel and to map out new approaches to the study of literary masculinity Drawing on contemporary theories of gender and narrative Harkness reveals how Sands novels repeatedly focus on a nexus of language masculinity and power in which narrative is both a vehicle for the expression of manhood and a site where masculinity is discursively performed Masculinity is thus reconfigured in Sands fiction as an identity constituted as much through words as through actions Analysis of the performances of masculinity staged in Sands novels opens onto an exploration of gendered processes of literary representation the links between masculinity and the doxa the equation of writing and power the homosocial function of acts of narration and the masculinity of authorship and authority Toute nuit hantée André Connes,1982 Films and Dreams Thorsten Botz-Bornstein,2007
