Cavallero,2011-05-01 Hollywood s Italian American Filmmakers explores the different ways in which Italian American directors from the 1920s to the present have responded to their ethnicity While some directors have used film to declare their ethnic roots and create an Italian American imagined community others have ignored or even denied their background Jonathan J Cavallero examines the films of Frank Capra Martin Scorsese Nancy Savoca Francis Ford Coppola and Quentin Tarantino with a focus on what the films reveal about each director s view on Italian American identities Whereas Capra s films highlight similarities between immigrant characters and WASP Americans Scorsese accepts his ethnic heritage but also sees it as confining Similarly many of Coppola s films provide a nostalgic treatment of Italian American identity but with little criticism of the culture s more negative aspects And while Savoca s movies reveal her artful ability to recognize how ethnic gender and class identities overlap Tarantino s films exhibit a playfully postmodern engagement with Italian American ethnicity Cavallero s exploration of the films of Capra Scorsese Savoca Coppola and Tarantino demonstrates how immigrant Italians fought prejudice how later generations positioned themselves in relation to their predecessors and how the American cinema usually seen as a cultural institution that works to assimilate has also served as a forum where assimilation was resisted The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2007 Hollywood's Stephen King T.

Magistrale,2003-11-22 For the past three decades Hollywood has faithfully adapted much of Stephen King s fiction into film Of the many major films that have been made not one has lost money Part of this may be explained in terms of King s own popularity in American culture he has been after all a best selling writer since the late 1970s But more interesting is what this cinematic fascination reveals about postmodern American culture In the first overview of Hollywood s major cinematic interpretations of Stephen King Tony Magistrale examines the various thematic narrative and character interconnections that highlight the relationships among his films Opening with a revealing interview with Stephen King the book takes us through chapters that explore such popular films as Stand By Me Misery The Shining The Green Mile and The Shawshank Redemption among others Psychic Blues Mark Edward,2012-05-15 With dark humor Magic Castle alumnus explores the business of psychics International Film Musical Corey K Creekmur,2013-01-11 A unique study of the film musical a global cinema tradition Medium Law Daithí Mac Síthigh,2017-09-13 Why should anyone care about the medium of communication today especially when talking about media law In today s digital society many emphasise convergence and seek new regulatory approaches In Medium Law however the medium theory insights of Harold Innis Marshall McLuhan and the Toronto School of Communication are drawn upon as part of an argument that differences between media and technological definitions continue to play a crucial role in the regulation of the media Indeed Mac S thigh argues that the idea of converged cross platform medium neutral media regulation is unattainable in practice and potentially undesirable in substance This is demonstrated through the exploration of the regulation of a variety of platforms such as films games video on demand and premium rate telephone services Regulatory areas discussed include content regulation copyright tax relief for producers and developers new online services conflicts between regulatory systems and freedom of expression This timely and topical volume will appeal to postgraduate students and postdoctoral researchers interested in fields such as Law Policy Regulation Media Studies Communications History and Cultural Studies Hollywood's America Steven Mintz,Randy W.
