An Abandoned Bundle:

Against Normalization Anthony O'Brien, 2001-04-13 A literary study of South African cultural changes since the end of apartheid from 1980 to present

Animist Poetics Ryan Topper, 2025-08-01 Argues that African literature conceptualizes trauma and regeneration as a more than human process offering an animist revision of psychoanalysis Psychoanalytic trauma theory largely disregards African perspectives Postcolonial criticism often filters these perspectives through a secular humanist lens Examining how African literature uses animism to address the traumas of colonization Animist Poetics offers a new understanding of the postcolonial condition From an animist viewpoint the self is not an individual but rather a regenerative process linking the living the dead and their ecosystems Looking at poetry fiction drama and visual art including archival manuscripts by Wole Soyinka and Yvonne Vera Ryan Topper argues that African literature reinvents these Indigenous ecologies in uniquely modern ways Animist Poetics takes Indigenous and literary knowledge seriously rethinking the foundations of psychoanalysis and charting new theoretical paths in posthumanism the environmental humanities new materialism biopolitics and memory studies

Pearson's

Magazine ,1916 Pearson s Magazine 1899 1925 a monthly magazine devoted to literature politics and the arts was founded as a New York affiliate of the London periodical of the same name part of which it reprinted From 1916 to 1923 it was edited by Frank Harris Long Discourses Bhikkhu Sujato,SuttaCentral, SuttaCentral has published an entirely new translation of the four Pali Nik yas by Bhikkhu Sujato which is the first complete and consistent English translation of these core texts This is an ebook version of Bhikkhu Sujato s translation of the D gha Nik ya which can also be read at SuttaCentral website The Long Discourses D gha Nik ya abbreviated DN is a collection of 34 discourses in the Pali canon Tipi aka of the Therav da school The word long refers to the length of the individual discourses not the collection as a whole which is in fact the smallest of the five Pali Nik yas It is one of the fundamental collections of early Buddhist teachings depicting the Buddha in a lively range of settings Compared to other collections it contains more extended narratives in diverse literary styles Many discourses feature interreligious dialog with brahmins and other non Buddhists This collection parallels the D rgh gama DA of the Dharmaguptaka school which is the first text in the Taish edition of the Chinese canon Several uncollected suttas in Chinese and Sanskrit also belong to this collection Two thirds of a D rgh gama from the Sarv stiv da school has been found but only small portions have been published This translation of D gha Nik ya was updated on March 8th 2023 Who Am I Sifiso Hlongwane ,2020-04-29 All human beings face struggles in their lifetime Such struggles could be within themselves or outside In general the struggles emanate from some sort of conflict between the environment within which people live and the internal journey of discovering who they really are and their life s purpose Capabilities to achieve the life s mission exert an extra burden on individual s day to day existence I have learned that life is so much more than the things we tend to worry about especially obsessing about the self Life is full of advisements for your attention There are some very meaningful moments and occurrences in life that define who you are Who am I I Used to ponder Life seems to be crowded and jammed with distortions distractions pain struggle anger and despair coming from all directions all bidding to wrestle you away from your identity and journey As we go through different moments of self discovery we often get emotional even when some of the struggles have passed This is often a life long bale that of necessity leads us to questions about our own identity The book aims to educate and empower young and old generation in uplifting their true identification in accomplishing the vision 2030

The Novel: An Alternative History, 1600-1800 Steven Moore,2013-08-29 Winner of the Christian Gauss Award for excellence in literary scholarship from the Phi Beta Kappa Society Having excavated the world s earliest novels in his previous book literary historian Steven Moore explores in this sequel the remarkable flowering of the novel between the years 1600 and 1800 from Don Quixote to America s first big novel an homage to Cervantes entitled Modern Chivalry This is the period of such classic novels as Tom Jones Candide and Dangerous Liaisons but beyond the dozen or so recognized classics there are hundreds of other interesting novels that appeared then known only to specialists Spanish picaresques French heroic romances massive Chinese novels Japanese graphic novels eccentric English novels and the earliest American novels These minor novels are not only interesting in their own right but also provide the context needed to appreciate why the major novels were major breakthroughs The novel experienced an explosive growth spurt during these centuries as novelists experimented with different forms and genres epistolary novels romances Gothic thrillers novels in verse parodies science fiction episodic road trips and family sagas along with quirky unclassifiable experiments in fiction that resemble contemporary avant garde works As in his previous volume Moore privileges the innovators and outriders those who kept the novel novel In the most comprehensive history of this period ever written Moore examines over 400 novels from around the world in a lively style that is as entertaining as it is informative Though written for a general audience The Novel An Alternative History also provides the scholarly apparatus required by the serious student of the period This sequel like its predecessor is a zestfully encyclopedic avidly opinionated and dazzlingly fresh history of the most elastic of literary forms

The Literature Police Peter D. McDonald, 2010-10-14 Censorship may have to do with literature Nadine Gordimer once said but literature has nothing whatever to do with censorship As the history of many repressive regimes shows this vital borderline has seldom been so clearly demarcated Just how murky it can sometimes be is compellingly exemplified in the case of apartheid South Africa For reasons that were neither obvious nor historically inevitable the apartheid censors were not only the agents of the white minority government's repressive anxieties about the medium of print They were also officially certified guardians of the literary This book is centrally about the often unpredictable cultural consequences of this paradoxical situation Peter D McDonald brings to light a wealth of new evidence from the once secret archives of the censorship bureaucracy from the records of resistance publishers and writers groups both in the country and abroad and uses extensive oral testimony He tells the strangely tangled stories of censorship and literature in apartheid South Africa and in the process uncovers an extraordinarily complex web of cultural connections linking Europe and Africa East and West The Literature Police affords a unique perspective on one of the most anachronistic exploitative and racist modern states of the post war era and on some of the many forms of cultural resistance it inspired It also raises urgent questions about how we understand the category of the literary in today's globalized intercultural world

The Uncrowned King Rowena Cory Daniells, 2016-10-11 Thirteen year old Piro watches powerless as her father's enemies march on his castle A traitor whispers poison in the King's ear undermining his trust in her brother Byren Determined to prove his loyalty Byren races across the path of the advancing army towards the Abbey Somehow he must get there in time to convince the Abbot to send his warriors to defend the castle Meanwhile the youngest of King Rolen's sons Fyn has barely begun his training as an Abbey mystic but he wakes in a cold sweat haunted by dreams of betrayal INCLUDES BONUS NOVELLA THE KING'S MAN Garzik younger son of Lord Dovecote has been captured and sent to Merofynia as a prize of war Now he must set things right before he can return home Turning his misfortune into opportunity Garzik resolves to spy for the rightful king Byren who yet thinks him slain at Dovecote With fortune on his side he may learn something that could change the path of the war for Garzik is and always will be the king's man

, 2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 We have entered a post truth era in which

Daniel J Boorstin notes believability has become an acceptable substitute for truth and manifold deceptions of our culture are difficult to separate from its few enduring truths In this era communities and individuals may feel routinely duped cheated or betrayed Though truth may be considered intrinsically valuable deception may sometimes be useful or necessary Sometimes there is pleasure in the spectacle of deception The essays in this volume address a variety of areas coming from different disciplines and methodological approaches what unites them is the notion of deception Deception is not just one thing it can be used for personal liberation and expression it can be use as a tool of state oppression and sometimes it is purely entertainment We encounter deception every day of our lives these essays explore some the ways in which we do

Eifelheim Michael Flynn, 2007-11-13 Publisher description for Eifelheim Michael Flynn In 1349 one small town in Germany disappeared and has never been resettled Tom a contemporary historian and his theoretical physicist girlfriend Sharon become interested Tom indeed becomes obsessed By all logic the town should have survived but it didn t and that violates everything Tom knows about history What s was special about Eifelheim that it utterly disappeared more than 600 years ago Father Deitrich is the village priest of Oberhochwald the village that will soon gain the name of Teufelheim in later years corrupted to Eifelheim in the year 1348 when the Black Death is gathering strength across Europe but is still not nearby Deitrich is an educated man knows science and philosophy and to his astonishment becomes the first contact between humanity and an alien race from a distant star when their interstellar ship crashes in the nearby forest It is a time of wonders in the shadow of the plague Tom and Sharon and Father Deitrich have a strange and intertwined destiny of tragedy and triumph in this brilliant SF novel by the winner of the Robert A Heinlein Award
